SALEM, Or., Jan. 14.—The two houses met in the hall of the house at 10:30. The canvass showed 38,920 votes for Penoyer and 33,765 for Thompson.
The speaker, Geer, then announced Sylvester Penoyer duly elected governor of Oregon for four years beginning to-day, and Chief Justice Strahan administered the oath of office. The governor then read his message.
The Governor opposes raising of the World's fair appropriation by direct tax. Claiming it to be unconstitutional.
In his message the governor opposes the repeal of the usury law, recommends the repeal of the law creating state board of railroad commissioners.
Gov. Penoyer also asks the legislature to petition congress for an appropriation for the construction of a portage railroad at The Dalles and also another appropriation to deepen the waters of the lower Columbia.

DANCING IN GOOD EARNEST.
Fear That the Yakima Indians Will Join the Hostiles.
NORTH YAKIMA, Jan. 12.—There is now no question but what the Yakima Indians are dancing in good earnest, and those who are qualified to judge say that it is more than the customary winter dance to ask the good spirit in favor of plenty of grass for the stock and a good run of salmon. The Yakimas number about 3800, divided into the civilized and the renegades. The former are much the greater in number and are mostly well-to-do farmers, some of them counting their wealth by the tens of thousands.
These live near the agency headquarters at Fort Simcoe, own good stock and approved agricultural machinery. The renegades are the blanket Indians who live along the line of the railroad and are well armed and under the control of medicine men. They have been obtaining much whisky of late, and are more than usually quarrelsome. Piute runners have been among them and it is said they are combining with Chief Moses' Indians from the north. While no local outbreak is much apprehended, those who know the temper of the Indians denounce the wisdom of sending the arms from here. The real fear is that they will leave the reservation and join the hostiles.

The capital stock is $2,500,000. The officers are as follows: Henry D. Bushnell, president; William H. Reid, of Rochester, N. Y., vice president and treasurer; Henry D. Quimby, secretary. A large amount of preliminary work has already been done, and the final survey will be pushed as rapidly as possible. The company also propose establishing lines of steamers on both the Lower and Upper Columbia.

Another Cattle Thief in Custody.
SPOKANE FALLS, Jan. 12.—Another of the cattle thieves, named Bill Waltart, commonly known as "Wild Bill," was arrested in this city last night by Sheriff Pugh. Seven of the gang are now in prison, and search is being made for the others. The rumor that Matthews, who was with Miles when the latter was wounded by Sheriff Pugh in the fight Friday night near Spangle, had been lynched by the citizens of that town, is believed to be without foundation.
Both Shot Through the Head.
BAKERSFIELD, Oal., Jan. 12.—A couple arrived yesterday morning and registered at the Cosmopolitan hotel as Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, of El Pasco, Texas. They promenade all day through the streets together. At about 7 P. M. inmates were startled by two shots. Arriving at the room it was found that both were shot in the head. The woman died instantly. The man's brains were oozing out, but he was not dead, and is yet unconscious and cannot live. Nothing was found to identify them. The report is that they lived in Lemoore, and that his name is Lowry. Others say he is from Fresno.

Must Marry Mrs. O'Shea.
ARMAGH, Jan. 12.—The most Rev. Michael Logue, archbishop of the diocese of Armagh, and the primate of all Ireland, replying to an address of welcome on his return from Rome, declared the bishops and priests of Ireland would have nothing to do with any compromise regarding Parnell's retirement until he married Mrs. O'Shea, and he defied Parnell and his followers to carry on the agitation against the clergy.

SEATTLE, Jan. 12.—The bakers' strike is still on, the bosses, with one exception, failing to abide by the settlement of the board of arbitration, which was that the bakers should work nights until February 15 and day time only thereafter. Senator Hearst's Condition.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Senator Hearst is somewhat more comfortable this evening.

Congressional Proceedings.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—In the senate the financial bill was taken up immediately after reading of the journal. Ingalls addressed the senate, beginning his speech with a bitter denunciation of the independents in politics.
Ingalls said there were two evils which menaced the safety of republics. The first was the ignorant, debased, degraded suffrage contaminated by the sewage of decaying nations. Second—Suffrage intimidated and suppressed in the south and suffrage controlled in the large cities of the north. It was doubtful to his mind whether for half a century there has been a president elected that expressed the will of the people.
The election bill was intended to deal with one part of the great evil imperfect, impartial and incomplete remedy. Second evil was tyranny of combined concentrated conscienceless incorporated capital. It was no wonder the laboring man and agricultural classes of the country had awakened at last and spectators must take warning.
Referring to the late election they said it was neither republican defeat nor Democratic victory. It was a peaceful revolution. He attributed the depression of the country in a great measure to demonetization act of 1873. He has not the slightest doubt that a great majority of the people, irrespective of party were in favor of the free coinage of silver. It was for that reason he should cordially support the amendment of the senator from Nevada.

Miles Talking Instead of Fighting.
PINE RIDGE, S. D. Jan. 14.—This morning Little Hawk, Little Hawk, Creek Dog and Old Calico, came from the hostiles and are now (1:30) having a talk with General Miles. Other chiefs are expected. Col. An Important Measure Passed.

The silver men were pretty bright anyway.—Salem Statesman.
A prominent physician and old army surgeon in eastern Iowa, was called away from home for a few days; during his absence one of the children contracted a severe cold and his wife bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for it. They were so much pleased with the remedy that they afterwards used several bottles at various times. He said, from his experience with it, he regarded it as the most reliable preparation in use for colds and that it came the nearest being a specific of any medicine he had ever seen.
