SEVERE COLD IN EUROPE.

Intense Suffering and Death Caused by the Unprecedented Weather.

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—The ice here is eighteen inches thick, and the ponds are frozen to the bottom.

Advices from Naples report the death of two persons from the severe cold.

The roof of a school for boys gave away beneath its burden of snow and ice and twenty-two pupils were injured.

Several vessels have been wrecked in the Bay of Biscay and a number of lives lost.

Gales throughout Europe are the severest that have been experienced in years.

Will Invade on the 20th.

St. Louis, Jan. 19.—Advices from the northern border of the Cherokee strip are to the effect that a movement to invade the strip is assuming vast proportions.

A Venerable, Old Lady's Sad Death. BURGIN, Ky., Jan. 19.—Mrs. Lucy Cook, wife of the Rev. Strator Cook was burned to death at her home yesterday.

A Vile Murderer Hanged.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Jan. 19.—James M. Eubanks was hanged in the jail yard this morning for the murder of his daughter at Los Gatos, December, 1889.

National Bank Trouble.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 19.—The national bank examiners for Missouri took charge of the American National Bank of this city this morning.

Another Invasion of the Strip.

CALDWELL, Kan., Jan. 17.—In expectation of the passage of the Mansur bill to open up the Cherokee strip, an effort is being made to concentrate the O'Connor and Dell colonies, numbering about 3000 persons, at this point, for immediate invasion of the strip.

Additional Shortage Discovered.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 17.—It is now stated that an additional shortage of $80,000 has been discovered in the trust funds held by Attorney John C. Hall, and that the loss of that amount will fall upon Mrs. M. A. Baldwin, whose estate was in Hall's charge.

A Terrible Accident.

NAPA, Cal., Jan. 19.—L. Fosaneli, manager of the California Pomace company, here, fell into a tank of boiling pomace this morning, sinking in up to his waist. He was horribly scalded and will probably die.

Indians are Nervous.

PINE RIDGE, Jan. 19.—More nervousness is noticeable among the Indians this morning than has been noted for a number of days. This is occasioned by a variety of circumstances.

THEY ASK FOR PEACE.

Hostile Brules Dramatically Make Promises.

PINE RIDGE, Jan. 17.—A council between the friendly and hostile Indians has tended to quiet the anxiety of many white people, and assure the Indians that their fear of being massacred by soldiers is without foundation.

To-day an order was issued directing the Seventh infantry, Colonel Mermiam, which has been serving in Cherry creek and Lower Cheyenne river, near the Standing Rock agency, to return to its post at Fort Logan.

At noon to-day General Mille sent a message to the hostile camp, asking for a conference with the principal chiefs.

After a little more parleying Big Road stood up and solemnly and dramatically proclaimed himself as in favor of peace; at the same time he asked those who wished to join him in restoring peace and working for the prosperity of their people to raise their right hands toward heaven.

There was a big council held in the Indian camp this afternoon. The Brules and Ogallalas were represented by their chief orators, who spoke in a pacific way about the adjustment of grievances.

There will be no further trouble. The situation is still critical, but General Miles thinks there will be no further trouble.

Army Control Necessary.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—General Okerney has received a letter from Father Craft, who is at Pine Ridge agency. The priest says that he is recovering slowly from his wounds. He says that the Pine Ridge agency is now under the control of the army, and thinks that if this had been done before the battle of Wounded Knee, that affair would never have occurred.

More Encouraging Dispatches.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Advices from Buenos Ayres today are of a more encouraging nature than were the dispatches of yesterday. The revolutionary mob, which recently disturbed the peace of the provinces of Entrerios, has been disarmed and dispersed by the force sent against them by the Argentine government.

Hill Will Accept.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The Post's Albany special says: Hill's friends are very confident that he will accept the nomination for the senatorship as the best thing under the circumstances.

San Francisco Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. Jan. 19.—Wheat buyer 91@94½.

IN THE FAR WEST.

The Okanogan Trouble Subsiding—Troops Held in Readiness.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 17.—But few advices are being received on the Indian situation in Okanogan county. The following dispatch from Coulee City seems to indicate that the trouble is subsiding:

COULEE CITY, Jan. 17.

The situation is not so alarming at present. Settlers on the Okanogan river have organized and are more confident. The towns have organized rifle companies. An Indian farmer named Thomas has had runners bringing Indians in for a general council at Smock church, from which good results are expected.

County Auditor.

Did Not Know He Did It.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—A special to the Herald from Canyon City, Col., says: James Joyce was hanged in the penitentiary here this evening for the murder of John Snookes, a 20-year-old lad in Denver, July 4 last, during a drunken brawl over some beer.

The Republicans Have a Quorum.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The republicans now have 45 votes in Washington assuming that none have left the city since Saturday which is just a quorum in addition to Senator Farwell who is expected to-day and it is said that Senator Chandler will be present within a short time.

Will not Affect Chicago or New York Banks.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The Chemical bank, Second National and the U. S. National banks of this city correspondents of the American National bank of Kansas City will not be affected by the failure.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—The Merchants National Bank of this city, correspondents of the bank at Kansas City that failed to-day, will not feel the effects of the suspension.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Ill. Jan. 19.—Wheat steady. Cash 81½, May 93½, July 89½.

People at Hood river have a petition for a new county to be taken off the north western portion of Wasco. The kickers contend that out of 525 square miles of land, which the petition calls for in the new county, not one-fourth is fit for either agricultural or grazing purposes.

The proposed transfer of the Indian bureau to the war department will find numerous advocates. It is one of General Sheridan's favorite schemes. On general principles it is open to objection as involving avoidable exercises of civil functions by military authorities.

A French Girl's Predicament.

A comical contretemps has just taken place in one of the provincial towns of France. Over twenty years ago the wife of a prominent citizen gave birth to a little girl who was christened Camille, and whose birth, according to French law, was duly registered at the mayor's office. But as Camille is a name that is given to boys as well as to girls in France, the mayor made a mistake in entering the registration, and set down the infant as being a boy.

The Unprofitable Eiffel Tower.

The stockholders in the Eiffel tower enterprise are feeling blue just now in consequence of the steady diminution of their receipts. In the season now closing 665,000 francs were taken in. The cost of keeping the tower open was 830,000 francs, and 800,000 more were spent for repairs.

There are growing on a farm in San Antonio, Cal., two large fig trees that are as old as the state. They are thirty feet in height, have a very large spread and are marvels of productivity. It is thought they will yield 1,000 pounds of fruit each.
