STORMS IN NEW YORK.

Streets Rendered Impassible from Fallen Poles—The Storms the Worst for Years.
Weather Moderating in Europe—Dangers of Great Floods from Effects of the Thaw.

COLD IN THE METROPOLIS.

The Streets of New York Rendered Almost Impassible by the Late Storm.
New York, Jan. 26.—This city is still isolated this morning, telegraphic communication being only partially restored. Large forces of men are at work clearing the streets of fallen poles and broken wires and the whole force of the police and fire department are doing patrol duty to guard against fires.
As all wires within the city are still down, the streets are rendered almost impassible by the fallen poles and tangled wires. It is believed that a large force of men will have communication nearly restored by the evening. The weather is clear and cool this morning.
This afternoon associated press dispatches from the west began to arrive and were the first news dispatches from the outside world since last night. The ticket service in this city is still suspended and business at most of exchanges almost at a stand still. Damage to electrical companies in the city are estimated at half a million of dollars. All wires between this city and Philadelphia are still down.
To Ship Goods in Bond.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Representative Wilson, of Washington, today was in consultation with Assistant Secretary Spaulding, of the treasury, on the subject of shipping goods in bond down the Columbia river. He presented a written statement showing the desirability of an arrangement whereby the goods could be shipped in bond from Upper Columbia points outside the country, and then back to ports on the coast, the desire being to accommodate business beyond San Francisco and Upper Puget sound points. Should this request be granted, the change would necessitate the appointment of an inspector at Kettle Falls, or some place in the vicinity, or the making of a sub-port of entry.

In Favor of Lotteries.
LOUISVILLE, Jan. 24.—Judge Jackson, of the circuit court, to-day decided the lottery cases before him in favor of the lotteries. One Manslis was indicted for selling Frankfort and Henry Academy lottery tickets. Judge Jackson held that the Kentucky act of May 23 last, repealing lottery licenses, is void, he knowing judicially that there are other lotteries in the class designated, and adding that the legislature may select a class and legislate in regard to it, but cannot discriminate between those who compose it. The case will be appealed.

Weather Moderating in Europe.
BRUSSELS, Jan. 26.—A thaw has set in here and floods have resulted. The low-lying suburbs of Brussels are flooded to a depth of five feet. Inundation is reported from various places, all attended with immense damage to property. No lives were lost but people are forced to flee from their homes.

Cut His Throat.
NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—During a fit of temporary insanity last night B. B. Hopkins, a prominent Wall Street broker, cut his throat in a horrible manner. He is still alive but cannot recover.
No Change yet in Illinois.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 26.—The joint session of the legislature today took a number of ballots for United States Senator but they showed no change from previous ones.

Two of a Kind.
BERLIN, Jan. 26.—It is announced that McKinley will visit Bismarck during the coming summer and express personally his admiration of that statesman and his protection policy.
Admitted his Guilt.
SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 26.—Ramon Lopez was hanged this morning for murder of Mary Desirello Oct. 20, 1890. Lopez acknowledged his crime and that his punishment was just right.
Departed for the East.
PINE RIDGE, Jan. 26.—General Miles and staff left for Chicago at noon, leaving Col. Shaffer in command at the agency.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 26.—Wheat steady, cash 92, May 97 1/2, July 92 3/4.

TALKED OF IN THE EAST.

Extract From an Eastern Paper on Pennoyer's Candidacy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The boom for Governor Pennoyer for president is spreading over the Eastern states, and has already occasioned gossip in Washington, which is just now the political center of the country. The following is from the Washington Post of this morning:
"Governor Pennoyer, of Oregon, is a candidate for president, and the Pacific democrats are booming him on the ground that in case Senator Stanford should be the candidate of the republicans it might be policy for the democrats to have a Pacific coast candidate. Pennoyer is a democrat who has always carried the republican state of Oregon for governor, and last year when Hermann, the republican candidate for congress, carried the state by 10,000 majority, Pennoyer's popularity carried him through by over 5000. The claim in certain quarters that Hill's chances have suffered by his election to the senate has caused anti-Cleveland democrats to look for another candidate. There is also a large body of men, who insist upon a Western man, and a leading Oregon democrat now in Washington says that Pennoyer's name is attracting attention on account of his popularity on the coast, and further that he is a man upon whom all factions can unite, because he is not well enough known to have enemies in the East. It will be remembered that Oregon cut a considerable figure in the presidential election."
THE MYSTERY SOLVED.
Why the Mayor of a Minnesota Town Committed Suicide.
LITCHFIELD, Minn., Jan. 24.—Henry L. Bawham, mayor of Litchfield, and president of the state bank of Stevens, killed himself some weeks ago, and the next day notice was posted on the bank doors that the institution would be closed until there could be a meeting of the creditors. There were several meetings of depositors, but they could get neither money or satisfactory answers to their questions. The crisis came yesterday when the discovery was made that there is only about $10,000 in the bank, which is not sufficient to pay the depositors more than a small per cent. Judge A. H. Young, of Minneapolis, has been appointed receiver and will take charge. The liabilities are $180,000. The mystery of suicide is solved, but whether Bawham lost the money by gambling in stocks and grain, or by making investments in real estate is not known.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

Great Britain Will Attend to the Dispute, Not Canada.
LONDON, Jan. 24.—The Chronicle says high authority declares the government has exercised no pressure in Canada regarding the pending negotiations. While it would rejoice to see Canada and America again commercial friends, it does not desire to depart from the policy of allowing the colonies a free hand in commercial matters; nor is it but right to imply any intention on the part of Canada to make reciprocal commercial agreement the basis of settlement of questions involved in the Behring sea matter, which must be decided on their merits.

Trouble in the Lake View Land Office.
There has been trouble in the Lake View land office in Oregon, and some of the citizens there are trying to have Receiver Snyder removed. A petition, signed by J. N. Merrill and others, representing pre-emption claimants as against swamp land claimants, have asked for the removal of Snyder and the appointment of W. F. Byrd, in his place. The whole matter has been referred to the interior department by the Oregon delegation and a special agent has been sent to Lakeview to investigate the circumstances. Some of the settlers there claim under the swamp land grants, and others claim under pre-emption and homestead grants. The rights of the claimants and the actions of the receiver will be investigated by the special agent, who will report to the department. It is believed by these who know Snyder's action that he is acting on what he believes to be the best authority as between disputants.

The Storm in Philadelphia.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—There is a heavy snow this morning and a number of small freight wrecks are reported. The damage done property by the storm is large. Throughout New Jersey trains are obliged to feel their way as telegraph poles and wires are all down. It will take days to repair the damage. Mails are from one to ten hours late. The greatest delay and damage is near the coast.
The question has been asked, "In what respect are St. Patrick's Pills better than any other?" Try them. You will find that they produce a pleasanter cathartic effect, are more certain in their action, and that they not only physic but cleanse the whole system and regulate the liver and bowels. KILLED AT LAST.

The Obnoxious Force Bill Meets an Ignominious Death in the United States Senate.

THE FORCE BILL KILLED.

The Long Debated Bill is Finally Defeated in the Senate.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The senate met at noon in continuation legislative day of Thursday last, the pending question being a resolution to amend the rules by providing a method for closing debate.

Morgan resumed the floor and continued his argument begun Saturday in opposition to the proposed rule, and to the elections bill, both of which measures he claimed on authority of the New York Times to be for an advancement of the Harrison project for re-election. At 1:20 Morgan yielded for motion by Walcott to proceed to consideration of the apportionment bill.

Dolph moved to lay the motion on the table and the motion was rejected amid much applause. Yeas 34, nays 35. Stewart, Teller and Wolcott voted with the democrats and Ingalls, was paired with Sanders. A vote was then taken on Wolcott's motion to take up the apportionment bill, and it was carried. Yeas 35, nays 34.

The house committee on commerce has reported favorably the bill allowing railroad companies to make special rates and give reduced rates to commercial travelers.
The Journal finally was approved. Yeas and nays were then ordered on motion that the house go into committee of the whole on the navy appropriation bill, but the call of the roll was interrupted by information given by Rogers of Arkansas that the force bill had been defeated in the senate. Then the Democrats gave cheer after cheer.

The Few Tails Massacre.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—A telegram was received by the war department from General Miles, giving an account of the recent killing of the Indian, Few Tails, by citizens. He characterized the incident as a useless outrage and said steps had been taken for the prosecution of the assassins. The telegram showed that the president had sent Miles an inquiry whether or not the outrage had been committed on the government reservation, and whether the assassins are members of any state organization. The object is to determine the question of jurisdiction.

DON'T.

Don't tell a man that he is a fool or a liar, even if you know him to be one. Some people are not grateful for anything.
