WE'LL HAVE A DOME.

The Senate at Salem Passes the Bill for Completing the State Capitol in Fine Style.

The Farmers' Alliance Members Elect Pfeffer to Succeed Ingalls in the U. S. Senate.

HAS PASSED THE SENATE.
SALEM, Or., Jan. 27.—Special.—The portage bill has passed the Senate as introduced. T. J. FALLING, ROBT. MAYS.

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Proceedings of that Body at the State Capitol Yesterday.

SALEM, Jan. 27.—In the senate Blackman today introduced a bill for additional circuit judge for the seventh district. The following bills were passed for justice of peace to examine the insane in the absence of the county judge.

Relating to guardians and wards. For completion of Capitol building, the vote standing from 21 to 41.

Amending the law regulating the fees and per diem of assessors and commissioners.

In the house the time has been consumed in detail work.

ANOTHER EXODUS.

Large Bodies of Negroes Moving Towards Oklahoma.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 27.—A big exodus of negroes from the state to Oklahoma has set in. Fifty families of negroes left here yesterday for Kingfisher, and they will be followed in a few days by 200 families of negroes.

A Negro by the name of Foster from Leavenworth, Kansas has been among the Negroes here some time, working up business. He represents to them that they can obtain rich farming lands in Oklahoma for almost nothing, and if enough of them go they can secure absolute control and government of the territory. The latter seems to be the principal inducement. A number of Negroes who owned good farms here have sold out everything and will join in the exodus.

INGALLS WILL RETIRE.

Farmers' Alliance Elect Pfeffer to Succeed Him.

TOPEKA, Jan. 27.—12 M.—Pfeffer has received the full alliance vote for senator in the house.

[LATER.]
TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 27.—The ballot for U. S. Senator today resulted.—House Pfeffer 96, Ingalls 23, Blari 5. Senate, Ingalls 35, Pfeffer 20.

Status of the Behring Sea Supreme Court Suit.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The brief of the attorney general in reply to the application of the Canadian government for writ of prohibition in the case of W. P. Sayward, libelled for catching seals in Behring sea, was filed with the Supreme court today. The attorney general holds that the supreme court has no power in any case to issue a writ of prohibition to the Sitka court because it is not a district court of the United States being merely a territorial court.

Two Men Burned to Death.

SAN JOSE, Jan. 27.—This morning a fire broke out in the Central lodging house wholly consuming it. Two men perished in the flames, John Foley, laborer, and Charles Nord barkeeper. Michael Burns was badly burned about the side and face. Total loss on building is about seven thousand dollars. The building is one of the oldest in the city.

The Order of Business.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The republican senatorial caucus committee on order of business met this morning and agreed a recommend to their colleagues that after the apportionment bill was acted upon the eight hour bills and copyright bill would be taken up in order.

Denouncing the Election Bill.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 27.—In both branches of the legislature last night a resolution was made the special order of Tuesday night, denouncing the election bill and declaring the state would withhold any appropriation for the world's fair if the bill becomes a law.

Our Ex-Postmaster General in Luck.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 27.—Vilas has received a majority over Spooner today when both houses legislature voted for U. S. Senator.

The Dead Historian's Will.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The will of the late George Bancroft has been placed in probate. The estate is given in trust for the benefit of his relatives.

HAWAII AND AMERICA.

King Kalakaua's Death Will not Disturb the Relations.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Colonel MacFarlane, chamberlain to the late King Kalakaua, when shown a dispatch from Deuver stating that a plan was on foot to overthrow the Hawaiian throne and inaugurate a republic with himself as president, characterized it as an absurd statement with not a particle of truth in it. The colonel leaves for Honolulu on the steamer Australia on Tuesday next. Colonel MacFarlane does not share the opinion that Queen Liliuokalani is inclined to affiliate closely with England, and believes that the death of the king will not influence reciprocity of Hawaii with the United States, because he knows the queen to be thoroughly imbued with the spirit which has for many years been the ruling sentiment of Kalakaua in reference to his policy toward America.

Colonel MacFarlane has most of King Kalakaua's private papers in his possession, and will take them to Honolulu. He states that the casket in which the body will be transported will not be used at the final interment, it being the custom from time immemorial to bury monarchs in Hawaiian coffins of native wood, elaborately embellished. According to Colonel MacFarlane's statement, the body will lie in state in the throne room for one week after its arrival at Honolulu, and the colonel thinks that at least three weeks will pass after the Charleston reaches the island before the king's body will be placed in its final resting place, the grand mausoleum, in groves of Nunaun valley.

Colonel MacFarlane was prevented by illness from returning to Honolulu on the Charleston, but has nearly recovered. He also said today that the real object of Kalakaua's visit to the United States was to readjust the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty and have it taken out of the operation of the McKinley bill. In fact, he had delayed his departure so as to hear from his minister at Washington, and, if his illness had not prevented, he had intended making a flying trip to Washington to see the president and Mr. Blaine in person, on the subject. His influence during the last session of the Hawaiian legislature prevented any action being taken by them on the subject for fear it would make the question more difficult.

A COWBOY DUEL.

Bad Men From Texas Bore Holes Through Each Other.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 25.—Details of a duel between cowboys at Lander have been received, which show it to have been a deliberately planned affair. One of the cowboys goes by the name of Six-Shooter Billy and the other is called Dab. Their trouble arose over a game of cards and they decided to settle it with six-shooters. They adjourned to a corral near the ranch buildings. Several cowboys attempted to stop the fight but without success. The men stood back to back, then each walked fifteen steps toward and commenced firing. Six-Shooter Billy was killed, four bullets striking him before he fell. Dab was shot three times, in the head, shoulder and hip. He is lying at the ranch in a dying condition. Both men are from Texas, but their real names are not known.

An Agreement Very Probable.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—A World's Bologne special says: The rival Irish factions have been talking at the Hotel du Louvre for two days, but tonight they are apparently no nearer a settlement of the tiresome dispute than before, McCarthy and Sexton are fresh from Harvard, whether they went to get assurance for Parnell's demands as the price of his retirement. If Gladstone had refused these assurances there would have been an end to the negotiations at once. Their continuance shows that some basis of settlement is under discussion. The first thing McCarthy did on seeing O'Brien and Dillon was to telegraph to the Bantry factions at Dublin to stop all agitation against Parnell until the Bologne meeting was over. This also indicates the issue of the conference to be helpful, as otherwise McCarthy would not obstruct any Parnell campaign.

The Revenue Cutter Bear.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—The fitting of the revenue cutter Bear for her northern season is progressing rapidly. The most significant change that is being made is the strengthening of her spar-deck, cutting portholes and putting down guncarriages for two long four-inch rifles. This looks as though it was intended that sealing pirates in Behring sea would be compelled to heave to in the event of Captain Healy considering it advisable to make a search. All the officers of the Bear pretend to be ignorant of the programme for the summer cruise.

A MINING DISASTER.

A Terrible Loss of Life from a Mining Explosion in Pennsylvania.

FEARFUL MINING EXPLOSION.
A Mine Blows Up in Pennsylvania and Kills a Large Number of Employees.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 27.—A special from Mt. Pleasant, Pa., says that a gas explosion in the mammoth shaft of the H. C. Frick Coke Cos mine, about ten miles from this place occurred this morning. Between 50 and 80 men were in the mine at the time of the explosion. Eighteen bodies have been taken out. It is estimated that fifty men are killed. It is very difficult to get particulars of the explosion although it occurred at nine this morning.

The mines are about half way between Latrobe and Mount Pleasant. The machinery which runs the fans was not injured and plenty of fresh air was forced into the mine to sustain the living and allow rescuing parties to enter in safety and bring out the bodies.

The mine is badly wrecked in places and it is not possible to get an accurate idea of the number living or injured who may be burned or imprisoned. There is no fire in the mine resulting from the explosion.

It is said that most of the killed are either English speaking or German miners. The shaft is about 100 feet deep and has a number of galleries. The superintendent has organized relief parties and is busily engaged in trying to penetrate the mine.

No Prizefighting in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 25.—Yesterday the athletic clubs of St. Paul and Minneapolis were thrown into consternation by the introduction of a bill by Senator Dean, of St. Paul, making all public fight encounters, challenges and the conveyance of challenges misdemeanors in the eyes of the law. The half-dozen mills arranged to occur in February will be off if the bill passes.

Fairness to American Imports.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 25.—A special declaration to the government at Washington, formulated by the Congo state authorities, was signed yesterday. It gives assurance that American imports will meet with the "most favored nation" treatment on entering the Congo state.

As Tiresome as Pine Ridge.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 27.—After the thirty seventh ballot for U. S. Senator was taken this morning without any result, the joint session adjourned until noon tomorrow.

Commending the Senate's Action.

LINCOLN, Jan. 27.—Resolutions were adopted in both branches of the legislature this morning approving the action of the United States senate in refusing to consider the force bill.

Don't Need Education in Wisconsin.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 27.—The democratic lower house this morning passed under suspension of rules a bill to repeal the Bennett compulsory education law.
