WM. WINDOM DEAD.

He Expires at a Banquet Given in his Honor at New York City
Last Night.

their Report.

SECRETARY WINDOM DEAD.

The Great Financier Dies in New York
Last Night.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—William Windom, secretary of the treasury of the United States, died last night of heart disease in the banquet hall at Delmonico's, where he was the guest of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation. He had just finished a response to the first toast of the evening. The body of Secretary Windom was taken by train to Washington this morning.

[Secretary William Windom was born in Belmont county, Ohio, May 10, 1827.
He studied law and entered into practice of his profession in his native state.
In 1855 he moved to Minnesota, and was elected representative to congress from 1858 to 1868. In 1870 he was appointed United States senator to fill a vacancy, and at the expiration of the term, was elected United States senator for 1871, and in 1876 was re-elected. March 5, 1881, he was appointed secretary of the treasury by President Garfield and remained in office till the 27th of October of the same year, when his state honored him with an election to the United States senate, which position he held until 1883. When President Harrison assumed office he chose William Windom as his secretary of the treasury, which position he held satisfactorily up to the time of his death. He was a man of sterling integrity and as a financier was held in high regard.]

THE FUNERAL.

Not Known When it will Take Place, but Probably Monday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Everywhere throughout the city flags are flying at half-mast and seemingly the only topic of conversation is the sudden and lamentable death of Secretary Windom. The time of the funeral will depend upon the arrival of the only son, William, who is now in the south, but probably it will take place Monday with private services at the family residence, and with public services at the Church of the Covenant, of which Mr. Windom was a member.

Assistant Secretary Nettleton as he is senior in point of service will probably be designated to act as secretary of the treasury for a period of ten days, which is the limit of designations of this kind.

Flags are at half mast on all federal, municipal and other buildings, and on many private resident. Colors draped in mourning, for the illustrious dead. The examination of the body made early this morning by the coroner, confirmed the belief that death was instantaneous.
When the inquest was finished the body was placed in a casket of sombre black, relieved by no ornamentation. The interior was lined with deep colored copper, and all the body was hidden from view with the exception of the face. The features exhibited no sign of pain, and the secretary looked as if he had sunk into a calm and peaceful sleep.

The secretary of state today issued an executive order that all departments of the executive branch of the government, and all officers subordinate thereto shall manifest due respect to the memory of this eminent citizen in a manner comporting with the dignity of the office he had honored by his devotion to public duty.

The president further directs the treasury department in all branches that the capitol be draped in mourning for thirty days, and on the day of the funeral all the several executive departments shall be closed and that on all public buildings throughout the United States, national flags be displayed at half mast.

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

New Bills Introduced.—The Assessment
Bill to be the Order of Next Friday.

SALEM, Jan. 30.—In the house this morning several new bills were introduced. The assessment and taxation bill was made a special order for Tuesday next.

A Notable Death.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Charles Bradlaugh died at six o'clock this morning.
Bradlaugh's end was quiet and peaceful. He was insensible when he died and seemed to suffer no pain. Immediate cause of death was uræmia.

FARMERS IN COUNCIL.

Proceedings of the National Alliance at Omaha.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 28.—The national farmer's alliance had a lively discussion at today's session on the amendment to the constitution to exclude women from acting as delegates, and it was finally voted down.

The amendment making all laboring men eligible to membership was tabled by a large vote.

The remainder of the morning was occupied in discussing minor changes, and a recess was taken until 2 this afternoon.

In the afternoon the report of the committee on resolutions, which was quite lengthy, was considered by paragraphs and adopted. It begins with the following preamble:

WHEREAS, Owing to the oppression that has been heaped upon us by grasping monopolists, capitalists, trusts and combinations, we believe it is time for action; and

WHEREAS, The national farmer's alliance, in convention, assembled, does most emphatically declare against the present system of government as manipulated by the congress of the United States and the legislature of the several states, therefore, we declare in favor of holding a convention February 22, 1892, to fix a date and place for the holding of a convention to nominate a candidate for the office of president and vice president of the United States. In this preliminary convention the representation will be one delegate from each state in the Union.

The resolutions favor abolition of all national banks, and that the surplus fund be loaned to individuals upon land security at a low rate of interest; declares for the Australian ballot law; demands foreclosure of mortgages held by the government on railroads; discountenances gambling in stocks and shares; favors the election of president and vice president by popular vote. As the farmers of the United States largely outnumber any other class of citizens, they demand the passage of laws of reform, not as party measures, but for the good of the government. The alliance shall not take part as partisans in the political struggle as affiliating with the republicans or democrats. The interstate law should be so amended and enforced as to allow railroads a reasonable income on the money invested.

The resolutions further demand that the mortgages on the Union and Central Pacific railroads shall be foreclosed at once, and the roads be taken charge of by the government and run in the interest of the people, with the view to extending both lines to the Eastern seaboard. Free and unlimited coinage of silver is favored, and that the volume of currency be increased to $50 per capita.
Demand is made that all paper money be placed on an equality with gold.

Another resolution declares that—We, as land-owners, pledge ourselves to demand that the government allow us to borrow money from the United States at the same rate of interest as do the bankers. All mortgages, bonds and shares of stock should be assessed at their face value; United States senators should be elected by popular vote; laws regarding the liquor traffic should be so amended as not to be a precedent endangering the morals of our children and destroying the usefulness of our citizens; we believe women have the same rights as their husbands to hold property, and we are in sympathy with any law that will give our wives, sisters and daughters full representation at the polls; our children should be educated for honest labor, and agricultural colleges should be established in every state.
Liberal pensions are favored, also the passage of the Conger land bill.

At a conference with the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association the representatives tonight decide that the two organizations could affiliate but could not consolidate.

QUAY READY TO SPEAK.

He Will do so in the Senate Within a Day or Two.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Senator Quay, who has for many months been under charges from many sources of corrupt and criminal acts in office, and who has steadily refused to say anything as to whether the accusations were true or false, is about to speak. He has prepared to deny every charge brought against him. His speech is now completed and ready to be published whenever Mr. Quay sees fit. The medium through which Mr. Quay will give his version to the world is the United States senate, and within a day or two. Mr.
Quay's friends say that the reading of the speech will take about half an hour, and will cause the biggest sensation the senate has had for a long time. A chief point against Quay has hitherto been that he denied nothing of the charges made against him. His friends will assert that he has been vindicated until the accusation has been definitely proved.

Horse Stealer Arrested.

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 30.—This morning the police arrested a man giving his name as Isaac Mozart. Mozart is wanted at Salem to answer a charge of horse stealing.

ST. PAUL'S CORRUPT OFFICIALS.

The Grand Jury Files a Report That Makes a Sensation.

ST. PAUL, Minn. Jan. 30.—The report made by the St. Paul grand jury yesterday was the most sensational ever filed in this county. It charges that immense amounts of money had been diverted from the proper channels into the pocket-ets of individuals.

Indictments were found against several county officials. The jury recommends a thorough examination of the books of the county clerk, auditor and treasurer to ascertain the full amount of money that has been wrongfully appropriated from the county treasury.

The Oregonian's Second Edition Changes Hands.

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 30.—The Evening Telegram will announce editorially this evening that it has been purchased by a party of St. Paul capitalists headed by Captain H. G. Moffat, who will at once assume the management. The Telegram will be enlarged and otherwise improved.

Herman L. Chase Receiver of the Spokane Bank.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The comptroller of the currency today appointed Herman L. Chase receiver of the Spokane Falls National bank. He is a resident of Tacoma, and was selected after a careful consideration of the various candidates. Representative Wilson tried to have a man from Spokane appointed, but this was flatly refused by the department.

The Behring Sea Trouble.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Lord Salisbury was closeted yesterday three hours at the foreign office with Minister Lincoln.
The Behring sea dispute was under discussion. It is rumored that hereafter the negotiations will become more international in character, and that among the powers to assist in a solution of the difficulty will be Germany and Russia.

Mourning in London.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—The sudden death of Windom, Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, has caused a sensation in London generally and deep sorrow among the members of the American colony in this city. Flags on con-sulate buildings are at half mast.

Another Mine Horror.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., Jan. 30.—All openings of the Chapin mine are closed in hope that the fire can be smothered.
Four imprisoned miners escaped through the timber shaft, but two others have been suffocated. Their bodies were brought to the surface.

A $100,000 Fire.

FINDLAY, Ohio, Jan. 23.—Early this morning a fire in the town of Cygnet, fifteen miles north of this city destroyed six blocks. Three persons are known to have perished in the flames and others are reported missing. Several more probably will be found to have lost their lives. The loss will exceed $100,000.

The Fine too Light.

PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—In the United States court today Lerry Sullivan and William Scott, both of Astoria, plead guilty to the charge of shanghaiing sailors.
They were fined one hundred dollars each.

Honoring Windom.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 30.—Both branches of the legislature have adopted resolutions expressive of sorrow at the death of Secretary Windom. Both houses then adjourned out of respect to the deceased.

Honor of the Illustrious Dead.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The senate and house has adjourned as a mark of respect to the late secretary of the treasury, Wm. Windom.

A prominent physician and old army surgeon in eastern Iowa, was called away from home for a few days; during his absence one of the children contracted a severe cold and his wife bought a bottle of Chamberlin's Cough Remedy for it.
They were so much pleased that they afterwards used several bottles at various times. He said, from experience with it, he regarded it as the most reliable preparation in use for colds and that it came the nearest being a specific of any medicine he had ever seen. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly.

Hopless Hope.—He—May I hope? She —Yes; if you will promise never to refer to the matter again.

The question has been asked, "In what respect are St. Patrick's Pills better than any other?" Try them. You will find that they produce a pleasant cathartic effect, are more certain in their action, and that they not only physic but cleanse the whole system and regulate the liver and bowels. For sale at 25 cents per box by Snipes & Kinersly.

Literally Handcapped.

"If I marry Miss Bond," observed Lummix, "people will say I am after her money. You see, I am literally handicapped by her fortune." "If you can get the girl you ought not to mind the handicap," replied Skingullet. "You'll find her fortune handy for bonnets, too."
