LOSS OF VESSELS.

Great Disasters to Shipping in and Around the Golden Gate--Some Loss of Life.

Miners Rescued Alive After Being Entombed for Nineteen Days--A Wonderful Record.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Up to this morning only two bodies have been recovered from the wreck of the ship Elizabeth. One of these is the China cook and the other is believed to be either that of one of the crew or of Capt. Henry of the local life saving service. The ship Jessamine which was in distress off point Keyes yesterday was brought into port late last night. She had a narrow escape from going ashore and was dismantled to keep her off the rocks.

The British ship Hesperides was taken from her moorings and collided with the ship Alex. McNeil last night. The Hesperides lost her foretop mast and both vessels were badly damaged.

An unknown bark sent up signal lights and was rescued by tugs as she drifted across the bay.

THE RESCUED MINERS.

Brought Out After Nineteen Days of Incarceration.

HAZLETON Pa., Feb. 24.—Four Hungarian miners were rescued from the cave in mine were brought to the surface this morning and given a small amount of lime juice and milk and allowed to rest. They will probably recover from the effects of their confinement.

It is impossible to get any statement from any of the men as their weakened condition prevents it.

All of the men are so weak that a simple movement of the head is impossible. How they lived for more than nineteen days is a question. The dinner in their pails would have been sufficient to sustain life for eight days perhaps, if dealt out sparingly.

THE MCKINLEY ACT.

Judge Blodgett Sends the Test Case to the Supreme Court.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 24.—Judge Blodgett this morning decided the case of Marshall Field & Co., involving the validity of the McKinley act. He said: "The best disposition the Court can make of the matter is to affirm the decision of the appraisers at New York and allow the case to go directly to the supreme court."

The "Monon" Railway's Trouble.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 24.—Judge Collins today postponed the further hearing before master chancery of bill for the appointment of a receiver of the "Monon" railway filed by William Alley until the answer to the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago road be filed and issue made. The answer of the "Monon" will be filed this afternoon when a general denial of all averments in the bill will be made.

Fifteen Thousand Offered for a Fight.

FARNELL'S NEW TACK.

Will Indulge in No More Bitterness, but Will Try Reasoning Arguments.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—In his speech today at Roscommon Parnell avoided all allusion to the attacks upon him and he seldom showed signs of excitement. He addressed his auditors calm and reasoning argument on the subject of Irish home rule, and urged that it would be absolute folly to accept anything less than the terms which he had demanded. He argued that Ireland was entitled to a parliament, armed with the fullest power to deal with Irish affairs, and subject only to the sovereign veto; that the land and police should be fully committed to Irish care, not after an interval of five years, but immediately upon organization of the home rule parliament. He advised his hearers to think for themselves, as Irishmen, and not as dependent on the opinions and guidance of any English faction or party. Mr. Parnell was cordially received by a numerous assemblage, and some rude attempt to insult him met with no encouragement. It is believed that Parnell intends to pursue the calmly aggressive course which he illustrated in his speech today, and that he will disappoint those who expect to see him indulge in the bitterness which he showed at Kilkenny.

A Fool and His Money.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 22.—James D. Lea, who, a year ago, was one of the wealthy young men of Washington, spent last night at the Central police station in the den of the tramps. January 10, 1890, he came in possession of real estate and other property valued at over $1,000,000, bequeathed him by a bachelor uncle. He bought his mother a cottage home in Washington, and then set out to squander his fortune. He leased and furnished a house in West Twenty-fourth street, New York, and it was there he lived richly for nearly a year. To meet his expenses, he sacrificed his real estate at half its value, and on Christmas he found his fortune completely gone. He is now on his way to San Francisco, where he expects employment in an engraving house.

Killed From an Ambush.

KATON, N. M., Feb. 22.—Yesterday Seth Russell and J. W. Cook, while out riding along the Vermajo, forty miles from here, were fired upon by unknown parties and Russell was killed. Cook saw two Mexicans getting away and fired at them and thinks he wounded one. Both men were in the employ of the Maxwell Landgrant company. Russell leaves a widow and two children. He was recently deputy United States marshal for this district.

This is the first series of meetings which will be held throughout the country for the same purpose. President Gomer said it is the beginning of the greatest labor movement ever inaugurated.
