HURLED TO DRATH.

An Avalanche Near Baker City Buries Three Men Under One Hundred Feet of Snow.

A Million Dollar Blaze at Minneapolis, Minn.—Fears that the French May Insult the German Empress.

BAKER CITY, Feb. 25.—[Special to the CHRONICLE]—Full particulars of an avalanche at Cornucopia reveals the fact that an immense snow slide, of perhaps one hundred feet in depth crashed against the tramway of the Eastern Oregon Mining Co., leading from the Red Jacket mine to the mill and demolished it completely.

Further investigation resulted in the fact that three men, employes of the company, were missing.

The names of the unfortunate are given as Hugh Curren, foreman, H. Holsten, watchman, and Jules Nicholson, boarding house keeper.

Fred Stern, manager, together with a number of miners, started out on snow shoes with shovels to recover the bodies of the missing men.

About one year ago a similar snow slide occurred, doing about $100,000 worth of damage.

It shows a grand total of 90,830,565 feet. The largest shipments by far are from the state of Washington, which contributed 72,000,000 feet out of the 90,000,000.

TROUBLES OF LABOR.

The Oregon Improvement's Dispute With Its Miners.

SEATTLE, Feb. 24.—The dispute which has been in existence for some time between the Oregon Improvement company and its miners at Newcastle has resulted in the reinstatement of about forty-five of the miners who were driven out after the riots two years ago and ejection proceedings against six of the leaders of the discharged men. The trouble began with a dispute over the division of the work, the leaders of the miners having demanded that seven men should not get a new breast of coal to dig in their regular turn, on the ground that those men had refused to divide day work with miners who had no breast. The mine being overmanned January 15th, Corey discharged twenty-one men and the leaders in the trouble, and brought in a force of Sullivan's detectives to guard the mine. He continued to discharge men until he had gotten rid of eighty-two or eighty-three of the faction which had remained in control since the riot of two years ago. He hired forty-five of the Knights of Labor who were driven out at that time but have since remained in the neighborhood.

This has caused a bitter feeling among the discharged men. They claim that the reinstated men are blacklegs, and that Corey is trying to break up the organization. This Corey denies. The newly hired men deny that they are blacklegs, as they have kept up their organization and are working at union wages. They claim that the only difference is that now they are on top. They claim that Corey invited them to go to work, but Corey says the seven men to whom the old union objected filled the vacancies as fast as he made them without his inviting the men to return. There is no danger of a breach of the peace, and the detective force has been reduced to four men. William Penman, the leader of the discharged men, is expected home from the Miners' National Convention at Columbus, Ohio, in a day or two, and then some action will be taken. The old federation, to which the discharged men belong, has recently joined the Knights of Labor, so that both factions belong to that organization.

EASY ON THE SILVER QUESTION.

Harrison Believes the Democrats Are at a Disadvantage.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The president will go away from Washington, probably the next day after congress adjourns. He will go up into Maryland or one of the branches of Chesapeake bay, where some Philadelphia friends of his have a country house arranged as a hunting headquarters. The president will spend several days duck hunting. A friend of the president said yesterday that Harrison was comfortable over the silver situation. He thought that all of the disadvantages connected with the question were now with the democrats. The republican party in congress had passed about all the silver legislation that the financial world could stand. It had done as much for the true interests of silver as could be fairly done. The administration would not have been unfavorable to the proposition to buy all the silver outstanding in the market if this measure could have been accepted by the advocates of free coinage as the end of the question for the time being. This was plainly intimated to the extreme silver men through the treasury officials early in the session. The extreme silver men were at first disposed to accept the proposition as the best thing they could get; but when they passed the free coinage bill through the senate so easy they became elated, and thought they could carry it through the house, and they scornfully rejected the moderate proposition of a compromise.

A Shaky Illinois Insurance Company Doing Business in Other States.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Attorney-General Hunt today filed a bill in the circuit court to dissolve the Consolidated Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Chicago. An examination into the affairs of the company in November last disclosed the fact that its capital was impaired $39,000. Auditor Pavey discovered that ninety pages had been cut or torn from the journal of the company. It was claimed that the book-keeper tore the pages from the book to conceal errors which they contained and the incompetent manner in which the book was kept. Insurance risks in force amount to $3,113,000. The company is not licensed to transact business outside of Illinois, and it is said has unlawful risks in other states amounting to almost $3,000,000. In January, 1891, the company ceased business, and made a pretended assignment to George H. Ritchey. The attorney-general seeks to set aside the assignment and to have a receiver appointed to take charge of the assets and wind up the business. Judge Collins has issued an injunction restraining the disposition of the assets until a final hearing.

CORDIALLY RECEIVED.

United States Minister Pacheco Arrives Safely at Guatemala.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Guatemala advices of January 29 say that United States Minister Pacheco was cordially received by the Guatemalans, a special train being sent seventy-five miles to the coast for his conveyance. A banquet was tendered him, and he was serenaded by a band the day after his arrival. Colonel Torillos, commandant of the post of San Jose, was aboard the Pacific Mail Company's steamship and apologized to Captain Johnson as representing the company, for the seizure by the Guatemalan government of some arms, which had been brought by one of the company's steamers for Salvador.

ASK FOR A CHARTER.

And Will Build a Pacific Cable Without a Subsidy.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The opponent of the Pacific cable subsidy scheme have a new weapon to use in their fight against the subsidy act. Another company has appeared, which proposes to build a longer cable without a subsidy. The Pacific Cable Company asks the government to give them $3,000,000 to aid in laying the cable to Honolulu, a distance of 2000 miles; the other company proposes to build to Shanghai, 6500 miles, and asks for nothing but a revival of the charter granted to it by congress August 15, 1878, and which expired in 1879, no cable having been laid.—This old company was formed by Celso Cesar Marino, and in it were Senator Leland Stanford, J. C. Flood and several other California millionaires. They were promised a subsidy of $1,000,000 by the Hawaiian government as soon as the cable was laid. The capitalists did not see a sufficient and speedy return for their money, the scheme fell through and the charter lapsed. Marino now represents to congress that the company is ready to go ahead without any subsidy if the charter is revived. Opposition to the subsidy idea is very strong, and to defeat it an extension of the old company's charter will be urged.

BEGINNING TO CLEAR OFF.

Signal Service Reports Fair Weather in California Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25.—Signal officer Finley issued the following bulletin this morning: "The storm center has moved eastward beyond British Columbia. The barometer has risen with great rapidity in all districts; a change amounting to nearly one inch in Northern Nevada and nearly three-quarters of an inch in Northern Oregon and Washington, elsewhere from one-quarter to one-half an inch. This is the most extraordinary rise that has occurred during the season. The barometer is highest in Central California and lowest in Eastern Arizona. Winds are generally north to west in all districts, and the velocities generally light. Storm signals have been discontinued at all stations. The temperature has generally fallen in all districts except a slight rise in Washington. Heavy frosts have occurred in Northern California, Nevada, Oregon, and Washington. The telegraph lines are only partially restored in Southern California and Arizona, but all reports at hand show the prevalence of fair weather.

GLOWING CROP PROSPECTS.

The Heavy Fall of Snow has Brightened the Outlook for Wheat.

TACOMA, Feb. 25.—The prospects for the Washington wheat crop of 1891 have been brightened very considerably by the heavy fall of snow east of the mountains during the last week. Superintendent Cardin, of the Northern Pacific Elevator Company, who have just returned from Eastern Washington, says: "The snowfall will supply the necessary moisture needed to insure a wheat crop." He estimates the entire crop of the Northwest for 1891 at 16,000,000 bushels, 12,000,000 of which were for export. From advices he has received, the acreage in Washington this year will be 15 per cent greater than that of 1890, which, other things being equal, will produce a crop of 18,000,000 to 19,000,000 bushels. The elevator company is receiving daily consignments of grain to complete cargoes already arranged for shipment.
