FREEPORT, Pa., March 5.—Expert burglars made an attempt last night to rob the Freeport bank, and were partly successful. They drilled and forced the combination off the yault door and then ner safe is broken and has not yet been opened today. The banker, Mr. Lud-wick, thinks the safe's contents are all right. If this be true, $10,000 to $15,000 of the bank's money is safe. In the steel vault were twenty private boxes filled with valuable bonds, money and stamps. All of these were broken open and the contents taken. There was over $150,000 in money, bonds and other articles stolen. The burglars gained an entrance from a back window; their tracks and also the print of their satchel was plainly imprinted in the snow. It is thought they began their work about 9 o'clock last night.
