You men who have labored so long to elect your independent candidate also deserve my thanks (applause.) My were paid off last Friday. All the workrepublican friends, I thank you too. thank you that the contest has been free from personalities." (Applause.)

When the vote was progressing, Representative Tanbereck, the only one of farmers who did not vote for the demoerats, said: "I vote I for A. J. Streeter, the nominee of the 'F. M. B. A.,'" and dropping into his seat burst into tears. It was sincere sorrow, nobody doubted, and cheer after cheer from the republican side rewarded his loyalty to esentative Tanbereck, the only one of was admitted to the war the following year. At the commencement of the rebellion he was elected colonel of the 14th Illinois infantry, and during the war took an active part in many of its most important engagements. For gallant services under General Sherman he was made major-general. to Disgorge.

PARKERSBURG, West Va., March 10 .-The men working in the Hatfield tunnel on the Norfolk & Western extention I men except five negroes got gloriously drunk, and during the night the negroes, discovered their loss they appealed to the leader of the famous Hatfield band his party nominee.

John McCaulley Palmer, was born in Scott county, Kentucky in 1317. In 1831 he emigrated to Madison county, Illinois, and during the summer of 1838 he commenced the study of law. He was admitted to the war the following isses after tonight will be attended to."

I eveled at their heads, while they were toold to deliver the booty. The entire amount of stolen money was recovered, and $100 of the negroes' money was taken also. The Hatfields returned, gave the $400 to whom it belonged, keeping the $100, and tacked up at the end of the tunnel, where the negroes work, this sign: "Any nigger found on these premust elapse before a reply will be given to the invitation. ises after tonight will be attended to."

THE NEXT ELECTROCUTION.

New York Murderers Who Are Sentenced to Die Next Week.

Sing Sing, N. Y., Murch 9.—Despite a strong hope instilled by their counsel, Slocum and Smiler, the murderes condemned to die some time during the week beginning midnight Sunday, are showing a change in demeanor. This conduct ef either Slocum or Smiler since the first few days after they received their sentences. The passing of Satur-day without any move by their lawyers toward preventing the execution of the sentence seems to have had a powerful impression on the murderers. They apparently began to realize that this is their last week of life. Warden Brush has the preparations for the electrocution well in hand. The state completioner of lunear who will see to the today.

The treasurer of the Western Union
Telegraph Co., has today declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per missioner of lunacy, who will see to the carrying out of the sentence, will visit the prison some day this week and assist at a preliminary test of the instrument of death.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

Draft of the Platform Upon Which the Anti-Parnellites Will Stand.

DUBLIN, March 10 .- The draft of the constitution submitted today to the meeting of the anti-Parnellites in this city defines the objects of the national federation as being home rule; land law sources; abolishment of the grand jury system; establishment of the educational system, based on the principle of equal dealing toward all sections; electoral registrations; reform in regard to parliament and municipal government and other bodies, and repeals the coercion act. The pledge also proposed binding all members of parliment who declare for national federation to vote with the party. party.

There Is Millions in It.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—A local paper says: The New York company that proposes to explore the northwest counties of Washington, ought to get profit as well as glory out of the enterprise. It is singular that some of the young fellows who are burning with a desire to reach the north pole or to investigate Central Africa, do not turn their attention to the unexplored regions noon. It is practically settled that we will submit the question to arbitration.

The Government Buys Silver.

Washington, March 11.—Three hundred and sixty-five ounces of silver were purchased today at prices ranging from vestigate Central Africa, do not turn their attention to the unexplored regions of this country and Mexico. by a prominent western patent medicine house would indicate that they regard disease as a punishment for sin: "Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a severe cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. This can always be done if you choose to, as nature in kindness to man gives timely warning and plainly tells you in nature's that as a punishment for some indiscre-tion, you are to be afflicted with a cold unless you choose to ward it off by prompt action. The first symptoms of a cold, in most cases, is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed federation as being home rule; land law reform; improvement in the status of the masses, as sent to the social, political rights of laborers and artisans; development of Irish industries and resources; abolishment of the grand jury system; establishment of the educational in double doses every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in most cases will effectually count-

An Immense Shark. While native fishermen were out fishing with nets at Waialua, on the other side of Oahu, a monster shark got entangled in one of the nets and was hauled ashore on the beach. Almost the whole village went down and killed the monster with axes. The shark measured eighteen feet in length. When cut up into pieces two good sized turtles, one of which was still living, were found in the stomach. The turtles measured eighteen inches across. Other things of a varied nature were also found in the stomach. The jawbones were brought to Honolulu by the steamer C. R. Bishop and placed on exhibition. The jaws have seven rows of teeth and me twenty-two inches when fully extended. The natives stated that the mate of the dead shark managed to escape.-Hono-
