ITALIAN CUTTHROATS.

his own home. The crime was directly traced to a secret band of murderous Italian cut-throats, known as the Mafia. The Mafia, was originally an Italian political society which inculcated the duty of getting rid of objectionable persons by assassination. Driven from its native home in the south of Italy, by the vigor of the Italian government, it formed a domicile in a land that all too readily opens her gates to receive a class of persons who leave their country for Powell ever did him a wrong, or who their country's good. Chief Hennessy had simply done his duty. He had pried into the secret workings of these professional assassins, and for this he must die. From the moment of his Pertinent Inquiries from death evidence began to accumulate that it was the infamous work of the Mafia. A number of men were arrested and placed on trial. The trial lasted twenty the cause for taxes being twenty-five five days. him on a higher plane, would come to the defense of his murderous countrymen, and invoke the sacred name of God in connection with another vendetta. Uncle Sam has borne with wonderous Abstracters, patience the villanous pranks of these red-handed rascals, and it will be a good day for this country when he takes by the ear such men as the editor of Le Cod Italia and all his sympathizing compatriots, and leading them to the edge of the Atlantic and dumps the whole infernal outfit into it. Death of Uncle Johnny Powell. Death has again claimed one of Crook county's best and most honored citizens. John Powell died at his home, half a mile west of Prineville. Sunday night, after an illness of only a few days with heart disease Mr. Powell was the eldest son of Rev. The tragedy encted at New Orleans last Saturday was the natural outcome of the reign of murderous outlawry that has so long infested the city at the mouth of the Mississippi. On the 15th of last October Chief of Police Hennessy was shot to pieces near the threshold of his own home. The crime was directly home until the present time. On March 15, 1828 he was married to Miss Emily York and the fruits of this union were eight sons and three daughters, of wbom three sons and two daughters survive. The funeral took place Tuesday fore-noon from the Union church, conducted by Elder Holman assisted by Rev.

During all his life of nearly 73 years Mr. Powell had conducted himself so as to command the respect and love of all who knew him, and we doubt if there is one living today who can say that John holds a feeling of enmity towards the dead. He had lived a long and useful life, but has gone hence to receive the reward of the just and righteous.

It makes one's blood boil to read the following from an editorial in Le Cod Italia, an Italian paper published in the city of New York. The writer refers to the recent tragedy in New Orleans:

Without words we want satisfaction in full and complete. If the minister at Washington has not at this hour made his word good, 1,000,000 of the Italians residing in the United States will know how to do. If the massacre that we have witnessed in this free republic is allowed to go unpunished we will denounce it as an assassination. Our word is quickly pledged. We never repent. Vendetta.

The newspaper invites to a mass meeting whoever has a heart that beats in his bosom, and the article continues: is bosom, and the article continues:
In this moment of persecution through alignity, wrath and hate, we ought to emember that we are all Italians, and such we invite El Progresso and El folombo to unite with us at a grand mass meeting. THE DALLES.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural an i grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

THE LARGEST WOOL MARKET.

The rich grazing country along the fastern slope of the the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped this year.

THE VINEYARD OF OREGON.

The country near The Dalles produces splendid crops of cereals, and its fruits cannot be excelled. It is the vineyard of Oregon, its grapes equalling California's best, and its other fruits, apples, pears, prunes, cherries etc., are unsurpassed.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia. yielding this year a revenue of $1,500,000 which can and will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickital valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH

It is the richest city of its size on the coast, and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop, more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed! Its climate delightful! Its possibilities incalculable! Its resources unlimited! And on these corner stones she stands.
