THE BLUE AND THE GREY.

Last Services Over a Southern Hero and Brave Man.

General Joseph Johnstson, almost the last great commander of the confederacy, took place in this city this morning, and by request of the deceased, the ceremonies were devoid of all ostention or unnecessary formality, and was conducted with strict simplicity.

The services were in character with the man. There was no display of uniforms, battle flags or military trappings. There was a large attendance of distinguished persons. No services were held at the res dence of the deceased, but just before 11 o'clock the remains were taken to St. John's Episcopal church accompanied by the family and near friends. The party was met at the church by honorary pall bearers. All the men who the war were drawn up in double line. Along the side walk were about 100 men of Robert Lee camp, confederate veterans, without uniform, stood with gray heads bared as the body was borne between their ranks.

The casket was a plain one, covered

St. John's church was crowded to the utmost capacity with delegations of exconfederates and different societies and many prominent people of Washington. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Douglas, rector of the Episcopal church, and were confined to the simple Episcopalian burial service for the dead.

At the conclusion of the services the remains were removed to the Baltimore & Potomac station and left there on the 12 o'clock train for Baltimore, where the body will be intered in Green Mount late the Particulars of the Mafia Plot. NEW OBLEANS, March 22 .- The promised expose of the Mafia plot by Sunze-ria and Nattalia, two of the Italian prisoners now in jail, caused a great deal of excitement in Italian quarters. This afternoon a secret meeting was held in an Gov. Nicholls Writes Blaine and Says old building, near Congo square, which was attended by 100 Italians, who disthey have not been able to learn whether or not any threats were made. It is probable claimed both Sunzeria and Nattalia have subjects. already told most of their story to At-torney General Rogers and to the mem-bers of the committee of safety, and they have consented to repeat it to the grand jury whenever that body gets ready to WASHINGTON, March 24.—The funeral services over the remains of the late General Joseph Johnston almost the is given out now, is to get at the men who were associated with O'Malley, and who were associated with O mattey, and particularly the ones who are believed to have employed him to "fix" jurors. Governor Nicholls' long-expected reply to Secretary Blaine's telegram, demand-ing a report of the Saturday uprising, has been written at last and left for Washington on last nicht's late meil Washington on last night's late mail. From all that can be learned about the letter it will not give Mr. Blaine either a great deal of satisfaction or a great deal of news.

THE O'SHEA DIVORCE. "

It Is Now Said the Lady Objects to Marriage With Parziell.

DUBLIN, March 22,-The decree just fought under General Johnston during the war were drawn up in double line. of an absolute divorce in six weeks which fact is greatly increasing the discussion of the question whether Mr. Parnell will avail himself of the opportunity offered to make the lady his wife. It has all along been admitted that the couple have intended to be married so The casket was a plain one, covered with black cloth and without ornaments. A silver plate bore the inscription: "Joseph E. Johnston, born February 3, 1807, died March 21st, 1891." St. John's church was crowded to the Parnell's conduct, and now believes the band than to obtain possession of her money to bolster up his personal cause.

night, which came near resulting fatally to two innocent men. A notorious ex-convict named Smith slashed and cut in all directions, and was only overpowered by the number present. Luckily the wounds are but slight. The fellow's in-tentions were unquestionably murder-ous, as he stated to the constable that his only regret was that his knife was not longer. Smith has done time in Folsom for the murder of a man in North "I am sorry," replied Mr. Reed, "that you did not see me somer; but the crown has been altered into a foolscap, which is to be presented to the next speaker." "That's one on me," said the New Yorker, as he slapped Reed on the back and roared with laughter.-Washington Correspondence. There is a machine in this city that has been built to work black sand in which gold abounds, and which is plenty in various places along the coast. On the Wright yesterday, from Coos bay, came one hundred tons of black sand to be put through the agitator. This sand goes $8 to the ton, and the trick is after the work is done to have two heaps, the sand in one heap and the gold in the other. There's millions in it, to be got out .- Astorian.

Last Call---- Last Chance.

SALT LAKE, Utah, March 22.—Almost a panic happened tonight in St. Paul,s Episcopal church. Rector Lane was to preach to the newspaper men and the the house was packed by the fraternity and their friends. The audience had just been seated when the floor gave way, resulting in almost a panic, and in-juring a number of persons. No one, however, was seriously hurt.
