A SHIPPING DISASTER.

A British Steamship Goes Ashore on the North Carolina Coast with Much Loss of Life.

England Accepts Harrison's Invitation to the World's Fair---Great Loss of Stock in New Mexico.

The Associated Press Reports are Sent Exclusively to the Chronicle at The Dalles.

IT WAS A BRITISH STEAMER.

Ashore on the North Carolina Coast. Great Loss of Life. [FIRST REPORT.]

Washington, March 25 .- The general all. superintendent of the life saving service is in receipt of a telegram stating that a Swedish steamship went ashore a mile south of the Chickamicomic life saving station, North Carolina, and there is little prospect of saving any of the crew unless the weather moderates as the vessel is fast breaking up.

[LATER.] NORFOLK, N. C., March 25 .- The steamer which went ashore a mile below the Chickamicomic life-saving station, on the North Carolina coast, yesterday morning, is the British steamship, Straharlia, bound from Santiago De Cuba to Baltimore. Out of the crew of twentysix nineteen were lost including all the officers except the second mate. The steamer will be a total loss.

HARRISON IS STURBORN.

Does Not Want a New York Man in the Loss of Large Herds in New Mexico by Treasury Department.

NEW YORK, March 23 .- Secretary Foster takes charge of the treasury department tomorrow. He has expressed a desire that Charles E. Coon shall be appointed to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of General Batcheller, bell has lost in the last three months as assistant secretary of the treasury. Mr. Windom, it is known, wanted Mr. Coon, but was prevailed on to take (ieneral Batcheller. Mr. Foster wants Mr. Coon, but the president does not want a weather has been cold and the ground New York man in the treasury department. Although personally anxious that Mr. Coon should have the place, Mr. Foster appears to be willing to accept the president's view of the situation. The president thinks the place should go to one of the defeated western congressmen. The vacancy has existed over six months. If the fight becomes too warm, the place may not be filled at the cyclenty inspired statements in the Tribune this morning in regard to

SUIT TO RECOVER.

Edward S. Stokes Claimes a Big Sum of Money on a Stock Deal.

New York, March 23 .- In a suit brought by Edward S. Stokes to recover $75,000 on a stock deal from John W. MacKay, the millionaire, and Hector de Castro, of the MacKay-Bennett cable company, Judge Barrett, of the suprme court, has ordered MacKay to submit to an examination before trial. Stokes claimed he turned over bonds and stocks of the United Lines telegraph, the Chicago board of trade telegraph, the Pacific telegraph, the Pacific Mutual tele-graph, and the Lehigh Valley companes, which defendant agreed to pay $100,-000. He only received $25,000 on account. Mackay claims to have bought and paid for all the stocks he has. De Castro swears MacKay advanced him $1,234,000 to buy up most of these telegraph lines.

THE TROUBLES OF NATIONS.

The Charleston Will Probably be Sent to South America.

Washington, March 23 .- The continued warlike news from Chili renders it likely that the Charleston will be sent along with the San Francisco to join the The company possesses stumpage on two million acres of land in Honduras on which is hard wood lumber valued at over seven million dollars. The Mafia in New York.

NEW YORK, March 23 .- An evening paper this afternoon says: Chief Inspector Byrnes fully realizes the necessity at this time of curbing the revengeful spirit of Italian colonists of this city and preventing exhibitions of too much aggressiveness over the recent episode at New Orleans. Detectives Sergeant, Perrezo and Sissano, of the central office, have been unremitting in their labors among the Italians during blast. their labors among the Italians during blast. the past week. They succeeded in locating the whereabouts of the two leaders and the fatal injury of one or more persons and serious injury to half a dozen other employes of the company.

The American Express Co. lost several fraternity in this city. Several secret meetings were held yesterday, but Byrnes had an agent in disguise present at each gathering, and today is in pos-session of the knowledge of the complete proceedings at each meeting.

Canon Kearney Did Not Subscribe London, March 25.—The British government has formally notified Blaine, United States secretary of state that Great Britian accepts president Harmania British Britis nal, as one of those who had forwarded a contribution to the lord mayor of £5, rison's invitation to take part in the with a request that it be applied to the Parnell fund. The National Press con-siders that the denial of the canon sug-gests the existence of a bogus list of subscribers to the fund.

That Blanket Mortgage.

Washington, March 23.—The treasury officials say the proposed blanket mortgage of the Union Pacific cannot be made except by the authority of congress. A friend of the Union Pacific is quoted as saying:

"It has been known for some time that a new financial scheme was coming out. During this time the stock has been very strong, and is known to have been bought by insiders. This implies they see something in the arrangement cal-culated to benefit the stock."

By careful inquiry of stockmen from different parts of the county it is learned that the loss of stock during the recent storm amounted to nothing. One man who has about 5000 sheep reports a loss of thirty, another with 3000 lost five, and this seems to be about the average—only the natural loss that would have occurred had there been no storm. Cattle and horse raisers report no loss to speak of, and report their stock in fine condition.—Ochoco Review.

that has prevailed during the winter, sheep have remained fat and the growth of wool has not stopped, so the fleeces which the sheep of this country will yield this season will be long and of extra quality, and should bring better prices than common.—Ochoco Review.
