LONDON, March 26 .- The house of commons today adjourned for Easter holidays. House will reassemble April 6th.

The statement that the Portuguese authorities of South Africa have declared a state siege in Manicaland is not credited here. PROBABILITY OF INDIAN WAR.

Government Chooses

Washington, March 24 .- The war department is taking advantage of the ces-sation of hostilities among the Indians of Dakota, and has been engaged in gathering authentic information as to the prob-ability of another outbreak this spring. Careful investigation has been made by Death of Silas Potter, the Great Boston | Careful investigation has been made officers serving as agents at Pine Ridge and Rosebud agencies, and their reports are not altogether reassuring. In substance, these officers assert that there need or need not be trouble, just as the government desires. An outbreak can be prevented, or, on the other hand, very little will fan the slumbering feelings of the aborigines into a fierre flame; that is to say, the whole case rests upon A Denver Rallroad Attempts to Cross a Rival's Road and a Fight Ensues.

DENVER, March 26.—An exciting scene was witnessed here yesterday at Fifteenth and Champas streets where the Denver & Snhurban religiond attempted to area. hitherto friendly Indians who do not feel very complacent over the late trips to Washington, will, it is predicted, surely revolt. These Indians are at present in the majority in the Dakotas, as the most hostile chiefs have been taken by an Indian show for a European show-trip and the remaining hostiles are thus short of leaders. They realize regretate will the leaders. They realize perfectly well that the chiefs are not held as hostages, but have gone as a matter of enterprise, and so they would be necessarily deterred from an outbreak from fear of retaliation on their followers. These absent chiefs, however, are perhaps the worst fighters of the nation.

Berlin, March 24 .- The kaiser is reported to have offered the chancellor-ship of the empire to Count Waldersee, and that the count has the subject under consideration, but has already informed occasions expressed dissent to the views of the kaiser's policy, whereas the latter treats him as an instrument to carry out his plesaure. The chancellor is said to Children's Character the emperor communicated directly with the pope on the subject of returning to the church the money withheld during the heat of the culturkampf. The chancellor has always been opposed to returning the principal of the money, while the kaiser has been inclined to gratify the clericals in the Prussian chamber by surrendering it. The chancellor has had the support of Dr. Mignel, Prussian minister of finance, and it was their opposition that led Mossler to resign. Now it is said that the kaiser wishes to get rid of the church the money withheld during the church the money w have been much hurt because the emget rid of the chancellor and substitute Waldersee.

THE WORK OF THE WICKED.

Goshen, Ind., March 24.—The Hendrix murder trial made rapid progress today. Mrs. Calkins, who is included in the indictment, charged Hendrix with being the murderer of her husband, was the humiliation Moss felt for being sent to jail for drunkenness and abusing his wife.

Tennessee and the World's Fair.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 29.—The senate has rejected the bill appropriating $250,000 for state exhibit at the World's Fair. The house, however, passed the bill allowing county authorities to appropriate money for an exhibition being the murderer of her husband, was released from custody, and testified against her partner in crime. She said Hendrix and herself planned and succeeded in getting Calkins to marry her. Then they induced him to take out an accident insurance for $5000, making his property to his wife, and then to give Hendrix the power of attorney to collect for Mrs. Calkins the insurance, should he die by accident. About a week after the marriage to Calkins she, week after the marriage to Calkins she, with her husband and Hendrix went fishing, and while attempting to change seats Calkins was thrown overboard by Hendrix and drowned. She and Hendrix then rowed to shore and wet their clothing to indicate the boat had capsized, and gave the alarm.

THE SUGAR TRUST. An Attempt to Chest the Government Out of 2 1-2 Cents a Pound.

New York, March 24.—The sugar trust, in anticipation of a heavy loss on a large amount of sugar held by the concern April 1, is getting in some fine hydrophobia in so violent a form that men had to be kept with him all the time. His sufferings were terrible. to make the government pay over to the trust more than enough to cover the loss a mad dog.

Runaway Girl Taken Home.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 26.—The bill to pension disabled ex-confederate soldiers and their indigent widows, has passed both houses of the Arkansas with a youth named James O'Brien for the purpose of getting married. Annie cheerfully admitted that she had only cheerfully admitted that she had only known O'Brien about eight hours when she consented to run off with him. Shortly after getting outside of the heads she was recognized by an employe on the steamer, who knew her father. He induced the captain to prevent O'Brien seeing her during the voyage and to bring her back when the steamer returned. O'Brien is now in Seattle. The Hagen girl does not seem to be very well balanced mentally. Her case will be heared by a police judge tomorrow.

A CORNER IN WHEAT.

Millions of Dollars Invested in an Attempt to Increase the Price. Chicago, March 24.—Local papers say there have been rumors on the board of trade for some time to the effect that a "corner" was being worked on May wheat, the corners having begun to buy when the price was about 90 or 94 cents. Rumor variously pointed to a combination of New York and Chicago men and to a clique of Chicagoans exclusively. Now it is asserted it has been learned that Now it is asserted it has been learned that many of the buying orders have come from New York, and chiefly through commission houses here connected by private wires with Wall street. It is said the purchases of the manipulators must be high up in the millions. Local speculators have a shortage which aggregates thirty to forty million aggregates thirty to forty million bushels. If the clique holds half of this and succeeds in their supposed intention of working prices up to $1 25 the profits would aggregate over five millions.

THE NEW ORLEANS SENSATION.

ensational Facts Gleaned by the Grand Jury in the Bribery Allegations. New Orlkans, March 24.—The grand jury held another long session today, and from witnesses examined it is evident that that body is getting into the bribery business, and sensational developments are expected. The sensation will doubtless be the indictment of a prominent party not heretofore mentioned in connection with the unsavory part of the case. Many of the witnesses in the last few days have been surprised to find themselves called and protested they knew nothing until they got into the jury room. O'Malley has not yet been brought back, although a capias has has been issued, and it is unlikely he will be sought for until the grand jury is through with the investigation. Mayor Shakespeare's wife is said to have been stopped on the street by several Italians and threatened with the destruction of her home and family.

Bismarck Waiting Developments. London, March 24.—A Hamburg cor-respondent says that Prince Bismarck is understood to be looking forward with considerable interest to the publication of the kaiser's life of William I., and that upon the statements made in that publication will greatly depend the future course of the ex-chancellor. The prince is said to apprehend that the book will endeavor to belittle his share in the work of founding the German empire. In that case, his friends say, the publication of his own memoirs will be hastened.
