WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

THE DALLES, March 28, 1891. Weather forecast till 12 m.: Sunday; fair. Slightly warmer.

The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

C. P. Heald of Hood River gave us a pleasant call today. J. H. Cradlebaugh of the Hood River Glacier is in the city. McDonald Brothers of the "East End" keeps the La Plata cigar. Five car loads of wheat were shipped from the Wasco Warehouse this morning. Miss Bessie Lang returned home this morning after a prolonged absence in the east. John Pashek the tailor has just received a splendid lot of new suitings and pants goods. A cedar cut on the shore of Lake Madowska, Me., last week, scaled ten hundred and eight feet. Miss Keller of California was a passenger on this morning's train and is a guest of her uncle C. L. Phillips. Mr. C. P. Heald of Hood River informs us that he never saw a brighter prospect for fruit in his section than there is this year.

The Dalles Merchandise Company (late Brooks & Beers,) have put in a new line of goods' furnishing goods and boots and shoes.

It is understood that Representative Carter of Montana will succeed L. A. Groff as commissioner of the general land office.

We are informed by the captain of Company C that no skirmish drill is contemplated for tomorrow, as was erroneously stated in these columns yesterday.

Mrs. May Baldwin of Seattle, Wash., mother of Mrs. F. A. McDonald late of this city, is visiting friends in The Dalles and is the present guest of Mrs. R. A. Roscoe.

During the last ten days 19,000 bushels of wheat were bought and shipped by the Wasco warehouse. The average price paid including storage was about 65 cents.

The Wasco Observer says: It is quite a relief to our waste basket that the disappointed politician (?) of Emigrant Springs now pours forth his woes in the Mountaineer.

A telephone system, for the use of the fire department, has just arrived. One will be placed in the Umattilla House, one in the company's shops and one in the city engine house.

The Congregational church will be decorated tomorrow with calla lilies, orange blossoms, sprays from pepper trees and marguerites from Los Angeles, as well as large quantity of flowers from home. The decorations will be very beautiful.

H. Stoneman of this city is desirous of obtaining a location near The Dalles, suitable for erecting a three story building 75 by 100 feet, designed for manufacturing oyster oil and ointment. Will employ about one hundred men, best oil known for preserving leather.

From Mrs. John Barnett, who returned this morning from Huntington we learn that her sister Mrs. Monroe Grimes is still very low and very little hope is entertained of her recovery. Mr. L. Tirril is still living but may pass away at any moment.

From the Wasco Observer we learn that there is considerable sickness on the ranch of Messrs. Kerr and Buckley, in the Graes Valley section. Mrs. Buckley is sick and twelve hired hands are also under the weather. Dr. Beers made a trip out there last week.

The Dalles dailies are engaged in telling the truth, so they say, about each other. Michell's latest is that Gourlay is an ex-pounder of the Gospel. It strikes us that both gentlemen used to preach a little, but this would never be suspected from their editorials. By the way, didn't the pot make some personal allusions to the kettle?—Hood River Glacier.

The Mahone and anti-Mahone faction of white and colored republicans of Virginia, which have been at war with each other for two years past have buried the hatchet and now they expect to carry the state for the republican party at the next election.

It is not very generally known that Mrs. Hugh Lacey is running a restaurant in the Opera building. A gentleman who boards there says that he can compare the table to nothing but the spread to be seen on a Pullman Palace car. Parties who have gone there for meals say they never saw anything to equal it, and this is the voluntary testimony of one who boards there.

M. E. Church Services Tomorrow. Easter service in the morning, at eleven o'clock, consisting of songs, responsive readings, &c.

At half past seven, in the evening, the pastor will preach on "The Resurrection of Jesus," giving special attention to the proofs of this wonderful occurrence. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Class meeting at 10 a. m. and at 6:30 P. M.

Congregational Church.

The pastor will preach at the morning service on "The Resurrection of Jesus." Communion service will follow. In the evening a concert by the Sabbath school will be given for which an excellent programme has been prepared.

Is Disease a Punishment?

The following advertisement, published by a prominent western patent medicine house would indicate that they regard disease as a punishment for sin: "Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a fever cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. This can always be done if you choose to, as nature in her kindness to man gives timely warning and plainly tells you in nature's way, that as a punishment for some indiscretion, you are to be afflicted with a cold unless you choose to ward it off by prompt action. The first symptoms of a cold, in most cases, is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by a profuse watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double doses every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in most cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced." Fifty cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersley, druggists.

Yes Klickitat county wants a free ferry to The Dalles, and The Dalles is foolish also does not work for a free ferry to get the Klickitat produce and to sell to the Klickitat farmers their merchandise. —Klickitat Leader.

Charley Stubling keeps the La Plaga, La Flor de Herman Heynman, and Havana Blossom, Imported and Key West cigars, as well as the Cuban Blossom, manufactured in this city.

THE FRENCH SPOILIATION CLAIMS.

An Anecdote of Daniel Webster in Connection With Them. "I never have had more than my share of the alcoholic headaches that have been passed around where I have been," recently remarked a member of Chicago's leading clubs, "but I have been a heavy loser by intemperance nevertheless. In fact, I once had about a quarter of a million dollars, I believe, as the result of the intemperate habits of one man—no less a man than the great Daniel Webster himself. The United States government has just ordered the payment of French spoliation claims amounting to $1,500,000, and $3,500,000 additional has been scheduled for payment later. This money was originally paid to the United States by the French government to reimburse the owners of certain American vessels that had been seized by Napoleon. The United States government used this money in making the Louisiana purchase. Now the government is paying the claims of the descendants of the original vessel-owners. One of my ancestors owned five vessels that were seized, and his claim was placed in the hands of Daniel Webster. The immortal Daniel looked over all the papers, and seeing that the claim was entirely valid, undertook to secure its payment by congress. But at that time the United States was not so careful of its financial standing as it now is, and the eloquence of the great orator proved unavailing. One day, after a vain attempt to secure favorable action upon the claim, Mr. Webster went to his room, filled up with liberal quantities of old rye, and under the exhilarating influences of the same threw all the papers of the case into an open grate, swearing that the United States knew no such words as honor or honesty and that it would be utterly useless to waste any more time in prosecuting the claim. So about $250,000 worth of 'hopes' went up Mr. Webster's chimney in plain, black smoke. Now these French spoliation claims are being paid off dollar for dollar. Whenever I think of the terrible effect of Daniel's costly debauch I feel like drowning the memory of it some way. Will you join me?"

REVIEW OF THE LOCAL MARKET.

There is an improvement in all kinds of business for the week ending today, over the former.

REAL ESTATE—There has been more inquiry for outside property and more activity in inside or city real estate. The first, second and third additions to the city are attracting some attention and it is expected that there will be an active movement in those properties in the near future. The transfers during the week just closing have been in excess of a week ago, and our wise ones predict a very active season in city and country properties.

In the grain market there is nothing to note either in sales or shipments. The trade is very quiet, there being but a very limited supply on hand in warehouses and none to speak of being offered for sale by farmers. In Chicago there was a little flurry last Tuesday and Wednesday on the corners, for the purpose of making an advance, which only resulted in a rise of two or three points. The effort was fruitless and had no perceptible influence on the market worthy of mention in wheat centers. The Chicago and New York quotations are nominal as formerly reported. May deliver at Chicago is $1.02 3/4. New York $1.11 1/2.

Portland quotes a firmness and shippers are purchasing sparingly. Quote, nominally, valley $1.32 1/2 @ $1.35; Eastern Oregon, $1.27 1/2 @ $1.30.

OATS—The oat market is very quiet and offerings limited at quotations with an upward tendency. We quote, extra clean $1.60 per cental and inferior $1.40 per cental.

BARLEY—There is nothing doing in barley. Three hundred bushels of good seed barley was sold during the week at $1.10 per 100 lb. Quote prime brewing $1.05 @ 1.10, feed $1.00 @ 1.05 per cental, sacked.

FLOUR—Best brands $3.75 @ $4.00 per barrel.

MILLSTUFFS—The supply is quite sufficient for the demand. We quote bran and shorts $20.00 per ton. Shorts and middlings $22.50 @ $24.00 per ton.

HAY—Timothy is quoted $17.00 @ 18.00. Wheat hay is limited in supply and has an upward tendency. Quote, $12.50 per ton. Alfalfa market is without change in former quotation, $13.00 @ 14.00; oat hay, $12.00.

POTATOES—Early Rose are more eagerly sought after. Choice Early Goodrich and Burbank Seedlings are in good demand. Quote for table use .35 @ .90 cents per 100 lb.

BUTTER—Is in better supply. The market is supplied largely with California roll at present. Quote A 1.60, brine .30 @ .40, per roll, and dull sale.

EGGS—The market is weaker with a still further decline anticipated as the supply is increasing. Quote 15 cents per dozen and a downward tendency.

POULTRY—We quote, good, average fowls $4.00 per dozen, common $3.00 @ 3.50 per dozen. Turkeys .10 per lb. Geese .30 @ $1.25 each. Ducks .35 @ .40 each.

HIDES—Prime dry hides are quoted at .04 @ .05 per pound. Culls .02 1/2 @ .03 1/2. Green .02. Salt .03. Sheep pelts extra .75 @ .85, ordinary .40 @ .60 each. Bearskins, No. 1 $8.00 common $2.50.

BEEF—Beef on foot clean and prime .03 1/2, ordinary .02 1/2.

MUTTON—Wethers, extra choice $4.25 common $2.75 @ $3.50 per head.

HOGS—Live heavy, .04 1/2. Medium weight .04, dressed .05 1/2 @ .06. Lard 5 lb .11 @ 10 1/2; 10 lb .10 1/2; 15 lb .08 @ .08 1/2 c per pound.

Stock cattle are quoted at $9.00 @ 10.00 per head for yearlings and $14.00 @ 18.00 for 2-year-olds.

Stock sheep are not on the market, although we hear of $2.00 per head being offered after the shearing or $3.50 per head with fleeces.

Fresh milk cows are quoted from $25.00 @ 60.00 each, with a very limited offering.

The Best Cough Medicine.

"One of my customers came in today and asked for the best cough medicine I had," say Lew Young, a prominent druggist of Newman Grove, Neb. "Of course I showed him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and he did not ask to see any other. I have never yet sold a medicine that would loosen and relieve a severe cold so quickly as that does. I have sold four dozen of it within the last sixty days and do not know of a single case where it failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." Fifty cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersley, druggists.
