DISCUSSION AT LENGTH

Baron Fava's Recall was Largely of a Personal Nature—Blaine Warned Not to Attempt a Brilliant Stroke.

The Italian Situation Assuming Some Serious Phases—Comments of the London Papers.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The impression is deepening in the diplomatic circles that there is a decidedly personal aspect to the withdrawal of Baron Fava. It is learned that for the last year Carlton, United States consul at Palermo made a report to the secretary of state upon the subject of brigandage in Italy. He described a number of cases of outrage upon foreign citizens, Americans included, by Italian banditti and proceeded to score the Italian government deeply for failure to suppress those red-handed criminals and defend foreigners in Italy. This report was published in this country and so aroused the indignation of Baron Fava, the Italian minister, that he promptly notified his government of the nature of the report and announced the determination to secure the consuls recall. In Secretary Blaine's absence he was able to do this. Blaine was much displeased at the action taken but was too late to recall the department's decision. Consequently the relations between Blaine and the Baron have become somewhat less pleasant than they formerly had been, and according to the gossip floating about the state department, by some means not exactly described the Italian government came to understand and repress upon more cordial terms with prominent United States officials and might obtain more favors for his government.

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENCE.

What is Being Wired in Regard to the Americans—Italian Embroglio.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Associated Press correspondent here has perused the dispatches exchanged between the government of Italy and the government of the United States in regard to the New Orleans lynching. The substance of them is that Italy asked in the main that legal process should be instituted against the culprits, regarding them as common assassins, Italy likewise asked for indemnity for the families of the men killed in New Orleans by the mob. To these requests the United States authorities at Washington answered that the constitution of the United States gave but limited powers to the Federal government in regard to interference with various states of the Union, but the United States government affirmed its good intentions in the matter.

The answer from Washington being regarded as unsatisfactory, Italy instructed Baron Fava, March 27th, to press the original demands made upon the United States government and in event of his failing to obtain satisfaction to leave Washington incog., after consigning the cares of the legation at Washington to the first secretary.

ENGLISH OPINION.

Comments of the London Press on the Prospective Unpleasantness.
LONDON, April 1.—The St. James' Gazette commenting on the recall of Baron Fava says: "If Italy is disposed to send her ironclads to the Mississippi, Americans have no ships to face the Lepanto and Duila for forty minutes. The withdrawal of the ambassador is the next thing to a declaration of war, and evidently is meant to convey to the United States the information that Italy does not care to be trifled with."

The Star says the United States is in an extremely difficult position though the lynching at New Orleans may have been justifiable. The withdrawal of Fava is the easiest solution of the problem. The Globe thinks that the United States should be taught a vigorous lesson in diplomacy. They must learn that they cannot ignore old world ideas.

SOME SENSIBLE VIEWS.

Comments of Eastern Papers on the Italian Controversy.
PHILADELPHIA, April 1.—The Enquirer says: "We attach no serious importance to the recall of the Italian minister, this is more a political move on the part of the Italian government than as a desire for a naval brush. There has been a change of ministry over there. The new government has learned a lesson from the British jingoism."

BOSTON, April 1.—The Post: It now becomes Blaine's duty to confine business within the limits of diplomacy and prevent its expansion into real trouble. There is no doubt of his ability, to do this, if he is not misled by the attraction of an opportunity for some "brilliant stroke."

PACIFYING THE INDIANS.

Agents Directed to Inform the Red Men of the Government's Plans.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The commissioner of Indian affairs has sent to the agents of the various Sioux reservations a letter giving a synopsis of all existing treaties and arguments between the Sioux and the government, including the Indian appropriation acts passed during the last congress. The commissioner directs the agents to state to the Indians that Agent Cooper has been instructed to proceed to Pine Ridge and find out definitely what persons suffered a loss of property during the late trouble and as soon as this information is received the $100,000 which congress appropriated to make good these losses will be paid to them.

They are also directed to explain that agents have been requested to report to him what Indians are ready and entitled to receive from the government cows and other stock, and, as soon as this information is received, stock will be purchased and sent to them. The Indians are also to be told that the superintendent of Indian schools is now investigating the matter of establishing a large boarding school at Rosebud, improving the boarding-schools at Pine Ridge and elsewhere, and of locating and building thirty day-schools provided for, and that it is hoped, before the opening of the new school year in September, all this work will either be completed or well under way.

Agents are also instructed to inform the Indians that probably within the next month a commission will be appointed to settle the boundary line between Pine Ridge and Rosebud, and orders had already been given for the establishment of sub-issue stations at convenient places. Larger and better cattle will also be furnished the Indians. The commissioner directs that agents state to the Indians very fully and emphatically that a review of disturbances will postpone the payment of money and furnishing of supplies.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

Chief Justice Fuller's Daughter Married in Washington and Miss Umar in London.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—In the presence of a large and distinguished assemblage, and without ostentation or display, Miss Grace Weston Fuller, the eldest daughter of Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller, was married to Archibald Lapham Brown, of Chicago, this evening at 8 o'clock in St. John's Episcopal church, by the Rev. Dr. Douglas, rector of the church. There was no bridesmaids and no music of any description, save a wedding march from Lohengrin, and the church decorations were confined to the altar and chancel rail. Miss Janie Fuller, youngest sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor to her sister, and Mr. Bartram, of Chicago, an intimate friend of the groom, was best man. The bride was becomingly attired in a Worth gown having a skirt of white satin with a long court train of the same material. In her hand was a large bouquet of lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern, while a diamond pin held a long wedding veil in place. The list of guests who witnessed the ceremony included: Postmaster-General Wanamaker, Sir Julian and Lady Panncote, Minister Guzman, of Nicaragua, the Chinese suite, the Korean minister, Justices Harlan, Brown, Lamar, Bradley and Brewster, Senators Cullom and Cockrell and others well known in official and civil life.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the chief justice, where Washington society was invited to congratulate the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for New York on a brief tour, and thence will go on a trip abroad.

LOST IN THE SNOW.

A Sixteen-Year-Old Lad and His Father Who Sought Him Missing.
DENVER, Col., March 30.—Thomas Clark, a boy sixteen years old, who carries the mail from Oil City to Ringy, is reported to have lost his way, and has not been heard from since a week ago Sunday. The route is over a terrible country. The snow in that section is five feet on the level, and the boy is supposed to have lost his way. His father, W. A. Clark started to hunt for him Friday in the midst of a driving snow-storm. He has not been heard from. Searching parties are looking for them both. Yesterday a horse used by the father was found dead between Ervay and Oil City. Grave apprehensions are felt for both. The storm raging in that section is the worst in the history of the country.

SHE WAS BOUGHT OFF.

Would Rather Have Coin Than a Noble Husband.
NEW YORK, March 30.—Count Karaly of Buda Pesth, has claimed his son and now both are on their way to Australia. George's wife is not with them. The count was told that while George adored his wife, the latter's love for her husband was waning as the funds were getting low, and the young lady seriously thought of resuming her profession as an actress. Then Count Karaly commissioned a detective to seek out the actress and also to confidentially inform her that if she would sign a full release, giving up all claim against young Karaly, the sum of $5000 would be handed her. It is believed she has accepted the proposition.

Small Comet Discovered.

MOUNT HAMILTON, March 30.—A small, fairly bright comet, with a tail fifteen minutes long, was discovered last night at the Lick observatory at 8 hours, 34 minutes. Its position was right ascension 1 hour, 10 minutes, 10 seconds, declination 44 degrees, 45 minutes. The comet is moving rapidly southwards, in the direction of the sun, 1 degree a day. This makes the fifteenth comet discovered by this observer. Its present motion, however, will soon carry it out of sight in the neighborhood of the sun.

THE SITUATION IN ROME.

Our Minister Pleading Patience.—A Poor April Fool Joke.

ROME, April 1.—In official circles it is stated that the Italian minister at Washington has not cabled anything decisive to the government regarding his recall. The American minister here, A. G. Porter, yesterday requested the Italian government to be patient for a few days, explaining in detail the obstacles existing in the United States to a speedy settlement of the question involved by the New Orleans lynching.

Rumors circulated in the United States that a number of Americans were detained here as hostages for future treatment of Italians in the United States is classed as an April fool day joke of very bad taste. Public opinion here is awaiting the issue of the negotiations in a most tranquil frame of mind.

The newspapers of this city pronounce themselves very strongly against the action of the United States government. Influential Italians advise the Italian government to send a circular note to friendly powers denouncing the United States as being confessedly unable to insure justice.

The cabinet will meet today and will resolve upon what further steps are to be taken in the New Orleans matter.

In the course of an interview today with an associated press correspondent, Marquis Di Rudini said: "Personally I am most kindly disposed toward the United States government" and expressed the hope that the civil authorities of the United States would not fail in their duties toward society, justice, morality and law. "Public opinion, however," he added "demands a more energetic course of action." "If the United States government," he continued "does not perceive it is in the wrong a diplomatic rupture is unavoidable."

Continuing the Premier said: "Report that Americans have been insulted and arrested in Italy as the outcome of the present negotiations are ridiculous and false. Americans always receive here, the best and kindest hospitality, both upon part of the Italian government and the Italian people, both knowing perfectly the duties of a civilized country."

The pressure brought to bear upon Premier Marquis Di Rudini and which has compelled him to act vigorously, is fomented by friends of Signor Crispi, late Premier of Italy.

BLAINE AND THE PRESIDENT

To Have an Interview this Afternoon.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Secretary Blaine has arranged to have an interview with the President this afternoon. He has been engaged in the preparation of his reply to Fava's last note, and it is supposed he will submit this paper to the President before any statement is made public respecting the correspondence between the government of the United States and Italy.

No Decrease in the Public Debt for March.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Owing to the heavy disbursements during March, it is estimated that there will be little if any decrease in the public debt. The expenditures are mainly on account of the refunding of the direct tax, the settlement of the French spoliation claims, tobacco rebate claims, etc.

A Young Rascal Escapes Punishment.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The case of Henry Martin, the stepson of Senator Vance, who attempted to enter the White House on the night of March 21st, by breaking through a window, came up in the police court this morning and was nolle prosequi.

Gov. Nichols is not Worried.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—In regard to the report of the recall of Baron Fava, Gov. Nichols is not concerning himself very much about the complications that have arisen and seems to think there is nothing further for him to say or do at present.

Proctor Will Hurry to Washington.

YUMA, Ariz., April 1.—Secretary of War Proctor arrived here this morning. The secretary said if the Italian reports be confirmed he would start east immediately after reaching San Francisco.

San Francisco Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Wheat, buyer season, 1.54.
