RIOTERS ARE KILLED.

Hundreds of Rioters Attack Deputy Sheriffs at Morewood and are Shot Down Like Dogs. The Italian Minister Has Not Yet Got his Passport—President Harrison Will Come to the Coast.

The Associated Press Reports are Sent Exclusively to the Chronicle at The Dalles.

SEVERE FIGHTING.

A Desperate Battle Between the Rioters and Guards at Frick's Coke Works. PITTSBURG, April 2.—A desperate battle is reported between strikers and the armed guards at Moorewood this morning at 3 o'clock. Three or four hundred strikers approached the works of H. C. Frick, and began to batter down the gates.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Farther Particulars of the Rioting Troubles.

MT. PLEASANT, Pa., April 2.—At 2:45 this morning a mob of five hundred men began rioting at the Standard works. They destroyed some of the company's property and cut the telegraph lines so that no warning could be sent to the people at Moorewood.

In the meanwhile the wires were hurriedly repaired, and word sent to Moorewood that strikers would attack the works in three places and had well laid a plan to destroy the plant. The sheriff was soon in readiness to receive the attack and the men divided into five parties.

Eleven men fell dead in the road and the wounded are estimated as high as twenty-seven. The deputies who took part in the riot are experienced men, armed to the teeth.

Last night Superintendent Pickard told them that the raid was contemplated on the works and presented each man with a Winchester. "I have promised protection," he said, "to our men and I must give it to them when the raiders come. Obey me. Fire the first shot in the air, and then if they do not retreat fire the second shot and keep firing while you have ammunition.

The dead were carried into the company's store at Morewood. The strikers demanded the bodies but were refused and the place is now surrounded by an armed mob of 2000 men, who say they will burn everything on the premises unless the dead bodies are given up.

Baron Fava Has not Yet Demanded His Passport. WASHINGTON, April 2.—There is nothing new in the Italian situation. Fava has not made application for passport nor has Marquis Imperiali acknowledged the receipt of Blaine's letter sent him yesterday evening.

HARRISON MAY COME.

He Sees No Reason for Abandoning His Trip to The Dalles. WASHINGTON, April 2.—That the president does not believe the Italian embargo will take a serious turn is evidenced by the fact that he is making arrangements for his trip south and west during the present month.

Slaughter of Mexicans.

THE ERRATIC KAISER.

German Princess Offended at His Arrogance—His Visiting Craze. LONDON, March 31.—It is an open secret that Emperor William has managed to offend deeply nearly all the German princes by his extraordinary arrogance.

Dr. Herbet, French ambassador at Berlin, is about to be recalled on the ground that he ought to have prevented Empress Frederick's visit to Paris, which is excessively absurd and foolish.

A Pacific Coast Opinion.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—The Chronicle will say editorially: The country was treated to a short-lived sensation yesterday. A Washington newspaper man, learning of the recall of Baron Fava, the Italian minister to the United States, magnified the affair into a case of demanding passports and the news has flashed all over the country that diplomatic relations with Italy had been severed.

In every state except Texas agriculture chases away the sheep-raisers, who are obliged to reduce bands, while population increases regularly about a million and a half yearly. Never will the price of mutton be as low as formerly. It must go on increasing.

The Post this evening, commenting on the news from Washington, says: "Italy is bent on insult and there is but one thing to do in return—fight."

The Bulletin says: "The popular temper will not brook any paltering with the issue that has been raised."
