THE RIG STRIKE

All Quiet in the Coke Regions--- Funeral to Take Place Saturday.

Mt. Pleasant, April 3.—Quiet reigns throughout the coke regions this morning. No outbreaks have occurred since the fatal raid of yesterday morning. While the situation is still grave, the presence of the militia had a reassuring effect. Two regiments are upon the ground. So far no further deaths have occurred but several more are in a critical condition. The funerals will take place Saturday.

Peter Wise, master workman of the Knights of Labor, says the entire coke country will turn out and about that time the people must take care. The inquest on the bodies was resumed this morning, neither sheriff nor coke companies were represented. A doubt is created as to whether the pistol shot was fired first by the guards or the strikers, The most of yesterday's testimony was favorable to the strikers.

Fears are entertained for the safety of Captain Lauer, whose men did the shooting yesterday. Threats were made against him loud. He is going around with a body guard and trouble is looked for in Layette county. It is probable Telegram to Blaine. KANSAS CITY, April 3 .- The following Kansas City, April 3.—The following telegram was today sent Secretary Blaine: "The Ex-Confederate Social and Benevolent association of Kansas City, express the hope that in your official dealings with the Italian government, it be not forgotten that our form of government is entirely satisfactory to the people who made it, and that as to maintaining the integrity, honor and dignity of this government, there be no division the disconsiderable of the Mormon church at Independence, Mo., known respectively as the "Hendrickite" and the "Reorganized Church," are fighting for possession of Mount Zion, a low hill about four acres in extent, which was selected by Joshua Smith as the place where all the elect will assemble on judgment day, and from there be taken to heaven. The Mormons believe the foundations of a magnificent temple were laid many years down in every direction." of sentiment among the people.

OF A GENERAL NATURE.

A Very Prominent War Spirit is Mani-festing Itself In the Crescent City.

New Orleans, La., April 1.—The city is very much excited over the reports received here from Washington concerning the resignation of Baron Fava and very pronounced war spirit is manifesting itself. The opinion is generally expressed that the Italian government has acted with extreme haste, and before acted with extreme haste, and before the machinery of justice had been put into operation. The grand jury is still in session, and is not likely to report for several days yet. It has not com-pleted its investigation into the charges of bribery, and has only casually investi-gated the prison occurrence. It was openly asserted here that the gentlemen who signed the call for the meeting at the Clay statue would be indicted, but the sentiment is strong here in support the sentiment is strong here in support of the summary action that was taken and the mob participating represented so large a number, there being perhaps ten thousand around the jail, that it is ten thousand around the jail, that it is generally believed that no indictments will be presented. To indict the people who took part in the tragedy would be ridiculous, is the opinion openly expressed. A reporter visited the Italian consulate this morning. There was no flag flowing in front of the building, and inside there were only two or three perinside there were only two or three persons engaged in conversation with the consul. Mr. Corte said that Baron Fava had officially notified him of his recall this morning, and had added a denial of the report telegraphed yester-day that Americans had been thrown into a prison at Florence and other places in Italy. The consul did not desire to express an opinion upon the recall. He said he did not know whether it was tantamount to a declara tion of hostility.

WHY PAVA WAS RECALLED. The pressure brought upon Rudini to act with exceptional vigor in pressing the American government to a settlement of the New Orleans massacre episode, grows out of the feeling assidu-ously fomented by the partisan friends of Ex-Premier Crispi, and especially by such of them as are Sicilians, who either dread the power of, or sympathize with the objects of the Mafia. The attitude of this class of men has been stiffened by the fact that some of Crispi's opponents have openly declared that the New Orleans lynching was just, if illegal.

Reports From Eastern Washington In dicate an Immense Yield. SPOKANE FALLS, April 1.—Official reports to the chamber of commerce from seventeen towns in the grain districts of eastern Washington indicates a largely increased acreage over that of last year. These reports are from the Palouse, Walla Walla, Yakima and Potlatch val-leys, where the famous wheat blockade leys, where the famous wheat blockade occurred late Peter McDonald as representative for North Sligo is announced this afternoon. The contest resulted in the election of the McCarthyites candidate by a majority of 800.

leys, where the famous wheat blockade occurred last autumn, and also from that broad region encircled by the Big Bend of the Columbia river. In the Big Bend, where government land is being rapidly taken by immigrants, the increase of acreage will run 50 to 100 per cent. In the Palouse, Walla Walla, Yakima and Potlatch districts the increase will be about 25 per cent.

about 25 per cent.

As barley was a profitable crop last year the acreage of that grain will be particularly large. The soil is in excellent condition; in places it is wet to a depth of three feet. Farm work is being ### pushed with exceptional vigor.

Kerrigan Put His Man to Sleep. Hot Springs, Ark., April 1.—Patsy Kerrigan, of Boston, and Tom McManus, the "Unknown," fought today for $250 a side and 50 per cent. of the gate receipts. Queensbury rules governed and four-ounce gloves were used. Kerrigan forced the fighting from the start and punished McManus severely. McManus, most of the time, was simply able to act on the defensive, and was knocked out in the ninth round by a blow on the neck. Kerrigan was punished very slightly.

Washington, April 1.—Secretary Noble has directed the commissioner of the general land office to publish a notice in the papers circulating in the vicinity of the lands forfeited by the recent railroad land forfeiture act, requiring all parts. land forfeiture act, requiring all persons holding contracts for the purchase of such lands from the railroad companies to indicate at the local land offices within sixty days, the particular lands which they intend to purchase under the act.

Want Their Second Papers.

New York, April 1.—An amusing feature of the Italian flurry has occurred here. A large body of Italians this morning rushed to the naturalization bureau for second papers. They appear to be afraid of being drafted for service by the Italian government, and are sure that war is imminent.

Nww York, April 3.-Lamotte Peters & Co., have brought action for $30,000 brokerage against Geo. Washington Hunt, president of the Oregon & Washington Territory Railroad Co., for work in the deal not completed. They claim to have procured the loan of one million from Oregon & Transconential Co., through Henry Willard in bonds of Oregon and Washington Territory Co., at the request of the defendant who then decline to accept the loan.

Judge Ingraham ordered the plaintiff to give $2500 security on the attachment by which they have levied on $918,000 on bonds and $550,000 on stock of the defendant's road.

BAD WEATHER EAST.

Heavy Storms All Over New England. Boston, April 3 .- The storm throughout New England is very severe. A stiff northeast gale was blowing all night and a heavy rain on the coast and snow in the interior. Sixteen inches of snow fell throughout western New England. All trains are late. The wind reached a velocity of sixty miles per hour. The harbor tide is the highest for six months.

Considerable damage was done shipping. Many vessels dragged their anchors and drifted on the flats. A few schooners are dismasted and others badly damaged. Telegraph and telephone wires are down in every direction. Reports from Chatham are that more damage has been done inland that by any

A Prominent Official Dies Tucson, Ariz., April 3 .- H. R. Jefferds. United States attorney for the district of Arizona, died this morning.

The woes of the home-seeker are many, and sometimes they are comical. The story which comes of the gentleman who attempted to stake out a claim on the Cour d'Alene reservation during the month of February is one of the most humorous yet. He first located what he imagined to be a beautiful meadow, la-boriously staked it off, and while resting from his exertions a mutely eloquent si-wash strolled along. Never a word spake he, but he took a shovel and cleared off three feet of snow; then with an ax he chopped into the surface, next poked a ten-foot pole into the aperture and drew it out dripping with water, showing that the white man had located a quarter section of the lake. The chilling disappoint-ment of this adventure to the white man may be imagined. As to the siwash, never a word spake he.—Spokane Review.
