IMPORTANT TO SETTLERS ON R. R. LANDS.

We call the attention of occupants of the lands recently forfeited to the United States to the fact that "Secretary Noble has directed the commissioner of the general land office to publish a notice in the papers circulating in the vicinity of the lands forfeited by the railroad land forfeiture act, requiring all persons holding contracts for the purchase of such lands from the railroad companies to indicate at the local land offices, within sixty days, the particular lands which they intend to purchase under the act.

SOCIAL AND POLITICAL PERIL.

The disturbances in the coke region of Pennsylvania in which, at least, seven men were killed outright and as many as forty were more or less seriously wounded gives marked emphasis to the one grave lesson that the New Orleans affair has been teaching the people of the United States. The Oregonian of yesterday very truly says:

SERIOUS CHARGES.

The editor of the Goldendale Courier makes a curious statement with reference to the habits of the toppers of that town. He says: "Whiskey is imported into this city in bottles and sold to men who take it into an alley and drink it. They leave in every bottle an average of three or four tablespoonfuls."

DUTCH AND IRISH PATRIOTISM.

Some people don't like the Dutch and others don't like the Irish but one thing can be said for both; when a Dutchman or an Irishman gets into a shindy in which he comes out second best that's all there's of it. You never find him threatening to bring over the big army and navy of the mother country to punish the Yankee that licked him.

A CONSTITUTIONAL DEFECT.

It cannot be thought strange that foreign nations should consider a constitution very defective which grants the power of making international treaties, wherein the right of foreigners sojourning in the United States are guaranteed by this nation, while at the same time in such a case as that of the New Orleans affair, the Federal government has no more constitutional right to interfere with the course of justice or the punishment of the offenders than has a justice of the peace in the back woods of Oregon.

POLITICAL ROTTENNESS.

Chicago at this moment presents a powerful illustration of the utter corruption and rottenness inherent in the governmental management of our large cities. Two men are running for mayor, both belonging to the same party, and as the election campaign progresses each is vying with the other in promising that if elected he will make his administration democratic "from scrub woman to mayor."

The Popolo Romans a leading paper of Rome, Italy says:

If we cannot obtain the solemn rights which one great people owes to another, we will at least allow ourselves the satisfaction of sending back the American vessels filled with wheat for our markets, and return to the Yankee breeders their trichinoced meat.

The Chronicle the leading paper of The Dalles Oregon says: If you do Mr. Popolo Romans we will send your vessels back filled with hand organs, monkeys and macaroni. If this means war Popolo Romans can make the best of it.

Italy's claim for redress in the case of the eleven Italians massacred at New Orleans was based on the fact that a New Orleans jury had acquitted them.

Now if Humbert had only waited a little while he would have seen another New Orleans jury solemnly pronounce the lynchers innocent, and what would Humbert do in that case? If he would not go back of the court record in the one case he should not in the other. It's a poor rule that won't work both ways.

DANA'S VIEWS ON THE ALLIANCE.

Farmers to Wield an Important Influence, But Cannot Maintain Party Existence Long. Charles A. Dana, while in Atlanta, Ga., on his southern tour the other day, said that Cleveland, if nominated, would lose New York by 50,000 votes. Asked about the outlook for 1892, he said:

"Nobody can tell. The farmers' alliance is an important factor in the question. It depends on the amount of damage they will do to the republican party in the west and the democratic party in the south. Now the farmers' alliance in the south proposes to be democratic. It is held back by the negro question. That dominates everything here. There is no such balance wheel in the west, and the alliance is bitter against the republican party; they came from that party and you know when a member of an organization has left it he is more bitter against it than its original opponents. If the farmers' alliance in the south should grow to such proportions that the negro question would be considered unimportant, it would then smash the democratic party as far as it could.

Is Disease a Punishment?

The following advertisement, published by a prominent western patent medicine house would indicate that they regard disease as a punishment for sin: "Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a severe cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. This can always be done if you choose to, as nature in her kindness to man gives timely warning and plainly tells you in nature's way, that as a punishment for some indiscretion, you are to be afflicted with a cold unless you choose to ward it off by prompt action. The first symptoms of a cold, in most cases, is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by a profuse watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double doses every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in most cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced."
