NOT YET SENT HOME.

The Italian Government Has Not Yet Given Our Minister at Rome his Passport.

A Cyclone Batters Up a Railaoad Train in Mexico and Does Much Damage.

ROME, April 13.—Up to noon today it has been impossible to learn anything further concerning the report that the Italian cabinet had decided to request. United Stated minister Porter to leave Rome in case no reply to premier Rudini's last note was received from secretary Blaine by tomorrow. In well informed circles the prevailing opinion is that the the premier will not proceed to extremeties at this juncture.

A MEXICAN CYCLONE.

Hailstones Batter a Railroad Train and Kill a Mexican.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 13.—Two sleeping coaches running between the city of Mexico, San Antonio and Washington, D. C., via the Mexican National road, reached here in a dilapidated condition. The train to which they were attached passed through a cyclone and hail storm near Tavrone, Mexico, Saturday night. So large were the hail stones that the headlight of the engine and every pane of glass on one side of the train of cars was smashed. The roofs were battered so hard that not a particle of paint remained. Several persons in the day coaches were injured and a Mexican at Tavrone was killed. Passengers say that the cyclone must have created great havoc.

A MEXICAN STAMPEDE.

Three Hundred Kansas Settlers Go There to Locate.

ABDENE, Kan., April 13.—Another large party leaves for the west coast of Mexico tonight. Others will join them in western Kansas and 300 in all will make the trip. They take their entire possessions. A company of 300 that went last fall are digging ditches in the interior. They are still living on provisions taken with them.

FITZSIMMONS IN LUCK.

Joe Harris, the Backer of Hall, Withdraws His Challenge.

DENVER, April 13.—The following telegram was received here last night from from San Francisco:

"I withdraw my offer to back Hall against Fitzsimmons as Hall has proved unreliable. Leave for Australia by the next steamer. (Signed) JOE HARRIS."

Curtis May Have Been Murdered.

PORTLAND, Or., April 13.— Considerable mystery surrounds the death of John Curtis, the bar-keeper who was found dead in his room in East Portland. At first they thought Curtis had committed suicide but later developments indicated that he was foully dealt with. A coroner's jury is now in session.

A Railroad Accident.

PITTSBURG, Penn., April 13.—The westbound passenger train for Cleveland, Ohio, ran into a landslide at Vanport, Penn., twenty-five miles west of here early this morning derailing the locomotive, baggage and mail cars. The engineer and firemen were so badly scalded that they will die. Others are only slightly hurt.

A Pioneer Gold Hunter Gone to Rest.

SALEM, April 13.—Wm. J. Herron, one of Marion county's pioneers, died of la grippe this morning at 9 o'clock at his home in this city, aged sixty-seven years. He came to Oregon in 1845. He was the finder of gold in Eastern Oregon in 1845 which created such a great mining excitement.

That Momentous Letter Has Not Been Sent.

NEW YORK, April 13.—A Washington special says: "The letter from secretary Blaine to Premier Rudini has not yet been sent, according to the best advices, from the department of state."

A Lynching by the F. F. V.'s.

ROANOKE, Va., April 13.—Alexander Foote, a negro who murdered J. J. Meadows at Bluefield, W. Virginia Tuesday morning. He was taken from the jail at Princeter, Mercer county, Virginia and was hanged to a tree.

A Crazy Woman's Deed.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 13.—A crazy negro woman last night set fire to the Greenshaw County poor house, which burned to the ground. An old bed-ridden man named William Johnson was consumed with it.

A Titled Foreigner Dead.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 13.—Count Lewenhaupt, of Sweeden, who maried Miss Ellen, youngest daughter of ex-secretary of state, Bayard, the second of this month, died this morning.

NEW YORK'S ITALIAN PAPER.

Its Comments Upon the Latest Dispatches From Rome.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Le Cod Italia has the following editorial:

"It is now nearly a month since the Italian government sent its first note to the cabinet at Washington, asking for equitable and immediate reparation for the Italian citizens cowardly murdered in New Orleans. Harrison and Blaine, before our minister, who brought them the formal and peremptory note of Marquis di Rudini, shed, in an admirable duet of Americanized buffoonery, tears of sorrow on the poor victims; but they gave no other satisfaction than presidential and ministerial tears. But the treacherous tears, those of the American minister, included, are not current in the Italian market. The most cunning Blaine, having once dried up his obligatory tears, thought that the facts of the New Orleans affair could be settled in an easy and friendly manner. But the New Orleans outrage could not be so lightly put aside. The slaughter at New Orleans and behavior of the Washington government have raised in all European cabinets an awful question. The United States signed treaties with us, but when occasion came to put them into action they said they were bound by private engagements to their states. Can this ambiguity and violation of government last? All Europe has backed the note of Marquis di Rudini. A recent cable dispatch has proved to the American government that the Italian cabinet is not joking, and that it is quite equal to the occasion in this emergency. The United State must learn that to hold a position amongst civilized nations it is not enough to have millions of dollars, but it is necessary as a first condition, sine qua non, to be honest."

A LOCKOUT ORDERED.

A Thousand Men, Women and Children Thrown Out of Employment in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—Seventy-five contractors and builders met today to consider what action should be taken in regard to the proposed boycott of the trades unions on the iron work manufactured by non-union foundries. Resolutions were adopted protesting against the boycotts, and a committee was appointed to effect a permanent organization of employers of labor to resist the unreasonable demands of trade unions. Besides this association of builders another combination of employers is being formed in this city. Last week a preliminary meeting was held at which over $100,000,000 capital was represented. This association is being formed for the purpose of protecting employers against the unjust demands of labor unions, but will not touch the wage question. A week ago the shoemakers in Buckingham & Hecht's factory went on a strike because the firm introduced a casting machine. As no settlement could be arrived at three other firms, Cahn, McKeisburg & Co., Porter, Slessinger & Co., and Rosenthal, Feder & Co., comprising the shoe manufacturers' association, tonight declared a lockout. One thousand men, women and boys are thus thrown out of employment. These companies comprise two-thirds of all the shoemakers in the city. Factories will obtain necessary supplies from the east during the lockout.

NEWS FROM ASTORIA.

The Second Day's Salmon Catch in the Columbia.

ASTORIA, Or., April 11.—The second day of the fishing season showed up a little better than the first day, but the result was far from satisfactory to most of the fishermen. The boats in the bay below the city came in about empty-handed, but those from up the river sent in a very fair catch. The high boat at Kinney's cannery had sixty-two fish, but several of the boats came in without a fish, and very few of them had more than five or six. At Booth's high boat they had forty-two fish, but the average was less than five to the boat. Eighteen and one-half salmon for high boat, with one for low boat, was the record at George & Rarker's, and the other canners reported much the same success. A prominent member of the Fisherman's Union said that the reason for good catches on the Oregon side above Astoria was that the men had started out two or three days before the beginning of the season and had a supply on hand when it started. It was hoped that the catches would be no heavier up above than they were in the bay in front of the city and down below as soon as the surplus fish caught illegally were sent in. The traps in Baker's bay are not catching many fish, and the present indications are that the April pack will be a light one. There was a big fleet of boats out this morning and it looked like old times as they all came scudding for home after low water slack.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

The Archbishop of St. Louis to be Nominated for Cardinal.

ST. LOUIS, April 11.—Within the next four weeks the Rev. H. H. Brady, vicar general, will issue a call for the Roman Catholic archbishops and bishops of the entire United States, together with the priesthood of the diocese, to assemble in St. Louis primarily to make arrangements for the golden jubilee of the Most Rev. Peter Richards Kendrick, archbishop of St. Louis. But there is a still more important action to be taken by the high church officials upon this occasion. It is understood that the formal nominating of the present venerable archbishop for the position of cardinal will be made. Just in what way action will be taken or the subject brought before the distinguished body is not yet determined, but that it will come up for consideration is an acknowledged fact.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 13.—Wheat, steady; cash, 1.05@1.05¾.

Tyranny of an Officer.

LONDON, April 11.—The report of a disturbance among the troops at Bresian is confirmed, although denied officially. The affair is said to have had its origin in the outrageous tyranny of an officer of the garrison, who cut a recruit down with his sword, because he was not prompt in saluting. This provoked murmuring among the other recruits, and the officer, seeing what he considered signs of insubordination, ran among them slashing right and left with his sword. No one was fatally injured, although several were hurt bad enough to be sent to the hospital. The officer was not even put under arrest.

How the French Press Stands.

PARIS, April 11.—In spite of the fact that the French press for a few days during Italy-American imbroglio placed itself under the suspicion of favoring the side of Italy in the hope that the Rome government would injure itself and weaken the military and naval strength of the country by going to war with the United States, Figaro prints a violent article against England from the opposite point of view. The article accuses England of being master of the art of egotistical and brutal policy in that she is now covertly inciting Italy to war with America in order that she may ascertain the capacity of the Italian ironclads.

A SENSATION PROMISED.

Contract Laborers Being Brought to the United States.

CHICAGO, April 13.—Special immigration agent Lester, of Springfield, arrived here today. He is preparing a voluminous report for secretary Foster. "I have just returned from Omaha," said he "and I can promise you a big sensation in the course of ten days. I have been making investigations there and have evidence that the contract alien labor law has been, and is being grossly violated. It will be a big sensation."

The Chicago Election.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The board of election commissioners resumed the canvass of votes of the last city election. Second ward showed a gain of four for Cregier, and a loss of seventeen for Washburne (republican); no material change in third and fourth wards.

A $400,000 New Jersey Fire.

ELIZABETH, N. J., April 13.—The principal business block of this city, the Arcade building, owned by Amor Clark and occupied by the Post Office. First National Bank and a number of stores was burned today. The loss is estimated at $400,000.

Manager Holcomb Resigns.

OMAHA, Neb., April 13.—Assistant General Manager Holcomb of the Union Pacific has resigned and will be succeeded by E. Dickinson, recently with the B. & O., at once.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—Wheat, buyer '91, 1.62½.

The Care of Books.

Children should early be taught care of a book. A very little child can understand that a book must not be thrown on the floor or torn or bent backward or maltreated in the thousand small ways in which children are permitted to abuse books. Such habits in children are due quite as much to ignorance as carelessness on the part of parents. Those who have no interest or sentiment for books themselves are not likely to expect it from their children. A reverence for books is part of the love one bears them, and people who have been brought up in an atmosphere of books, or who spend much time in reading or study, will naturally handle a book respectfully themselves, and insist that their children shall do likewise.

There is much negligence shown in the matter of returning borrowed books, and this often by persons of whom one would expect better things. For months after a book is read it is allowed to lie about the house, and no especial effort is made to return it to its owner. That a book should be returned as soon as read, just as particularly as one would return a tool after using it or a garment after wearing it, would appear to go without saying. Yet it is not always the case.

And it is right to insist that our children shall be as exact in this respect; that they shall, after borrowing a book, cover it neatly if it be a nicely bound one, treat it carefully while in their possession and return it promptly when finished. This is not only simple justice to the owner, but such teaching will go far toward making a child particular about the property of others.—Harper's Bazar.

Canine Fidelity.

We are wont to regard the dog as the perfect embodiment of fidelity, and on the whole the good opinion of his character has been justified. The saying of the German pessimist that he would cease to believe in truth but for the assurance of his dog's eye is a striking tribute to the species. But even Ouida herself, one supposes, would hardly claim this excellence for every member of the canine family. We are apt to forget that the instinct of attachment was developed comparatively late in the history of the species. The dog is by nature unattached and vagrant, and only becomes attached and faithful by an infusion of human grace. Hence the comical spectacle one sometimes sees in the streets—a well meaning but misguided youth attempting to keep a loosely inclined pup close to his heels. And not a few members of the species appear to remain in this unregenerate state in mature years.—Cornhill Magazine.
