THE SOLDIERS MUST REMAIN. PITTSBURGH, April 13.—General Wiley is by no means confident that all troubles in the coke regions are at an end. Bloodshed and violence he is quite sure will result if the troops are withdrawn; therefore, he thinks the soldiers may expect a long siege in the mountains.

The Coming of the Messiah. NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 13.—Professor C. A. Totten, of Yale, in speaking of the publication of his recent mathematical calculation, said: "Some papers have published that I predict the end of the world within this century. They mistake—that is their error, not mine. I do not think that the end will come for a million years and I have not made any prophecy about it at all."

Practically Ended. LINCOLN, April 13.—Grand Master Newman, of the Trainmen's Brotherhood, ordered all the striking Burlington & Quincy brakemen to go to work, and declares the statements of Sweeney, of the Switchmen's Brotherhood, in asserting the Trainmen's Brotherhood would uphold the strike, unwarranted. This practically ends the strike as the brakemen can do nothing without the trainmen's assistance. Sweeney refuses to talk.
