Sheriff McCormick will now ask the governor to call out the troops again.
SCOTSDALE, April 18.—A report is just received that the strikers blew up the water tank at the kyle works of Frick & Co., early this morning. No guard was about and nobody hurt.

WHEAT STILL HIGH.
The Market at Chicago Goes Wild Again.
CHICAGO, April 18.—There was another boom in wheat this morning occasioned by higher prices abroad and possible poor crops throughout Europe. May option opened 1.10 1/4, and within one minute had sold up to 1.11 1/4. From there it continued to advance steadily until quoted at 1.15 and July at 1.10 1/4. By 11 o'clock the market had fluctuated downward again. May selling at 1.12 1/4, and July at 1.09 1/4.

Miss Beckett was present and detailed at length the tactics adopted to inveigle her into wrong doing.

THE BEET SUGAR INDUSTRY.
To Become in Time One of the First Importances to the Country.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—At a meeting of the Alameda Sugar company the president, Isaac Hecht, reported that the books showed a profit for the year 1890-91 of $21,000, which, with the profit of the year previous, makes the net balance for two seasons $27,000. This money has been applied in part payment for permanent improvements, leaving the company still in debt $35,000, against which there is on hand $15,000 in seed, material and molasses. To cover the indebtedness and put the company on a solid financial basis, an assessment of four dollars a share has been ordered. On account of the probable shortage in the sugar beet crop the directors have advanced the price of beets from $4.50 to $5.00 per ton. The president also referred to the probable necessity of removing the company's works from Alvarado. The beet sugar industry, said Mr. Hecht in conclusion, must in time become of first importance to the state and country. The income last year from 1320 acres in beets averaged about $100 an acre, while $25 an acre for wheat land is considered good.

BLAINE INCENSED.
At What He Terms the Indecent Behavior of Italy's Government.
NEW YORK, April 16.—The Herald's Washington special says: "Secretary Blaine is known to be thoroughly incensed at what he had not hesitated privately to characterize as the contemptible and indecent behavior of the Italian government. His note indicates his pen has felt the numerous communications received about himself and other members of the cabinet since the diplomatic controversy began. These communications are from leading men of all parties and professions, and they uniformly urge upon the administration the firmest treatment of the offensive conduct of the Italian government, consistent with our national dignity and self-respect. It is confidently asserted and predicted in authoritative circles here that the publication of Blaine's note yesterday will lead to the downfall of the Rudini ministry."

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.
Fate of Three Men Who Sought Shelter Under a Tree.
TRENTON, Mo., April 16.—William Hoffman, William Ferguson and Fred Stimson, sought shelter from a storm this morning under a tree. Lightning struck the tree, instantly killing Hoffman, who was leaning against it. Ferguson had his hand on Hoffman's shoulder and was knocked senseless, falling in a pool of water. Stimson was paralyzed below the knees, but managed to pull Ferguson from the water, and then crawled a mile to town for assistance. Ferguson is totally paralyzed and will die. The only mark on Hoffman was a blue spot on his forehead.

THE INDIAN SCARE OVER.
The Excitement Believed to Have Been Caused by Disguised Whites.
BOISE, Ida., April 16.—The Statesman has the following special from Blackfoot: "Everything is quiet. No apprehension is felt by citizens of immediate danger, although ranchers are thoroughly armed and ready for any emergency. They have returned to their usual pursuits. The opinion here is that the parties who fired on the Challis stage were whites disguised as Indians, as a man by the name of Houston was expected to come down that day with a large sum of money, but he went by the way of Ketchum. Indians and squaws are to be seen on the streets in large numbers, which would not be the case if an outbreak was imminent."

ONLY IN FUN.
Manager J. M. Hill in a Joke Nearly Ends the Life of a Friend.
CINCINNATI, O., April 16.—While O. Myers was standing in the grand hotel yesterday J. M. Hill, the well-known theatrical manager, came up behind him and putting his arm around his neck gave him the "strangler's" hold. The strain was so sudden that it ruptured a blood vessel. A doctor was immediately called, and after receiving attention Myers was taken home. The injury was not thought serious, but this afternoon Myers had another violent hemorrhage, and tonight the doctors consider his condition very critical. Mr. Hill and Mr. Myers are old friends, and Mr. Hill was only playfully scuffling with him.

GENERAL BOOTH'S EFFORTS.
He Purchases a Large Quantity of Land and Will Establish a Farm Colony.
LONDON, April 16.—General Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, has agreed to pay £10,000 for 600 acres of land near Southend, upon which he will establish his farm colony. This is one of the agencies by which he expects to "redeem 'Darkest England.' He will from time to time buy additional land, and will spend from £15,000 to £20,000 in buildings, drainage and other improvements. The taxes on the property will average 42 pence per acre. The land is badly situated, and in the judgment of experts the price paid is absurdly high.

The California Olive-Oil Producers.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 16.—The meeting of the olive-oil producers and manufacturers, called by the state board of horticulture, was held today. Chairman Kimball appointed a committee on organization, consisting of Cooper, Goodrich and Wetmore. The chairman stated that it was proposed to perfect some scheme that will result in a test by scientific men of all the oils, and the filing at headquarters of their exact value.

GOODS IN BOND.
Secretary Foster Will Formulate New Rules.
WASHINGTON, April 18.—Secretary Foster was asked today about the proposed changes which it is said is contemplated in the present system of transportation through the territories of the United States on goods shipped over Canadian roads under consular seals. The secretary replied that the department did not want to injure the business of the Canadian roads. The single principle which the department wanted to have established in the matter was the protection of American revenues. The department would treat these goods precisely as though entered at New York or another American port, destined for inland custom houses.

THE OFFICIAL COUNT.
It Is Settled Beyond a Doubt That Chicago Will Have a Republican Mayor.
CHICAGO, April 16.—The official canvass of the election returns for mayor was practically completed today in twenty-nine of the thirty-four wards in the city. Taking the official count in these wards and the city hall unofficial returns for the remaining five, the result is a plurality of 1034 votes for Hempstead Washburne, (Rep.), over the democratic incumbent, Cregier. In the official canvass the figures in several precincts are still subject to revision, but it is believed there will be little or no change from the figures above given.

Burglars Resort to Sharp Practice.
NORWALK, Conn., April 18.—Burglars fired a small barn in the outskirts of the city last night. While the police and others were watching the blaze they entered Jackson's jewelry store and secured $15,000 worth of jewelry and diamonds.
A Conductor's Savviness.
A Pennsylvania railroad conductor on one of the limited trains between New York and Washington the other night entered the first coach, found it crowded, and in one of the front seats upon the left was a young man. He was well, even elegantly, dressed. In his hand he held a French novel. Upon his small and ordinary countenance there sat the haughty look of reserve of the imitation gentleman.

When the conductor entered and called for the tickets this youthful person affected to be so absorbed in his book that the conductor passed him by, calling first upon the rest of the passengers, even going clear through the train before he returned to disturb the haughty reader. When the conductor came back the young person still refused to pay any attention. The conductor waited a moment and then called out rather sharply for his ticket. The youthful and now thoroughly contemptuous person, noticing that the man, whom he called the guard of the train, had addressed him with some brusqueness, which he translated into rudeness, took his ticket and, without looking at the conductor, threw it upon the floor. The graduate of the Pennsylvania school of manners was fully equal to this unusual situation. He showed no temper, no excitement, nor any lack of repose. With the calm gravity of a man who is sure of himself he stooped to the floor, punched the fallen ticket the requisite number of times with great gravity, and then quietly laid it back upon the floor where it had been dropped and walked calmly on amid the roars of the entire car.—T. C. Crawford in New York Tribune.

The Sulky Man.
If the temper is a sullen or sulky one, its malignant character is apparent; probably he has some little cause for taking offense, or he has at least an opportunity for imagining that he has been slighted. He persuades himself that some one has been wanting in the affection or respect which is his due. He feels himself insulted, injured; and he has not magnanimity enough to pass over the matter without taking care that the slight offered should be expiated by suffering. His self love demands that some one should suffer; and the suffering of the victim—although he might be shocked to think so and might refuse to believe it—affords him a certain satisfaction and a certain pleasure.

When the offender has been made to feel that it is no light matter to neglect the comfort of the ill tempered man, or to prefer any other interests to his, when he or she has been made thoroughly miserable, the sulky man is appeased; he is perhaps even penitent; his demon has been gratified, and is no longer hungry. The fact that the bad temper, with its symptoms of black looks or harsh words or sullen silence, was maintained until the suffering of the victim became evident is enough to show that sulkiness is really a much worse kind of fault than people generally imagine.—Chambers' Journal.
Joseph Jefferson is not only an admirable actor, but he is a painter, of much more than ordinary skill and power. The work that he has performed in either department would have been sufficient to have secured for him more than common reputation.
Alice, daughter of the poet Longfellow, is a fine photographer of the amateur class. Her specialty is storm pictures, and some of them, taken along the Massachusetts coast, will soon appear as illustrations of a book of sea songs.
