LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Emil Schutz and J. H. Jackson arrived on the noon passenger today, from below.

Mrs. Garrison who has been quite poorly for five or six weeks is slowly improving.

C. E. Bayard leaves tomorrow morning for Seattle where he expects to remain for some time.

Miss Minnie Garrison of East Portland is visiting at the home of her grandmother Mrs. Garrison.

A wagon load of fat hogs owned by C. M. Van Duyn were sold yesterday at five and one-fourth cents, on foot.

United States Judge Lorenzo Sawyer, of San Francisco passed through the city on the noon passenger today.

The city treasury was enriched to the extent of $25 this morning, the fine of an incorrigible drunk who was arrested last night.

C. M. Van Duyn sold two cars of beef cattle to Mr. Lewis of Portland which are expected to arrive in town today from Tygh Valley.

Herman Raster formerly of Kingsley now of Kings valley, Benton county came up on the noon train today on a visit to his old ranch at Kingsley.

Potatoes seem to be a drug in this market. We saw two persons from the country today who could not dispose of some they had brought into town, at any price.

Edgar Pratt of Wamic, A. J. Wall of Eight Mile, C. P. Balch of Dufur, Alex. Strachan of Dufur, Frank Gabel of Waxpinitia and Wm. Holder, state lecturer of the grange from Grass Valley, were in town today.

Clerk Crossen and Deputy Morgan are praying hard that somebody would take a notion to get married or file a deed for record or something that would enliven the dull times at the court house.

An Indian woman named Allie, of this city, was today examined before Dr. Shackelford and Judge Thornbury and committed to the state asylum for insanity.

It was a Dakota editor who wrote: "The price of this paper has not increased on account of the McKinley bill, but we wish to correct the misapprehension of some of the subscribers who seem to think it was placed on the free list."

The land contest case on hearing for the past three or four days between Richard Sigman and Robert Bradley of Dufur was settled by the mutual agreement of the parties, this morning. The contest involved 80 acres of railroad land which the parties agreed to divide.

Mr. William O'Dell of Hood River who has been under the medical care of Dr. Vanderpool at Dufur for some time was moved to this city yesterday and is now the guest of superintendent Shelley. Mr. O'Dell stood the journey from Dufur better than was expected. He will proceed to his home as soon as it is thought prudent.

Two members of the city council Messrs. Blakely and Peters have, by their removal from the ward for which they were councilmen, ceased to be members of that body. As there is only a bare quorum, left their places will undoubtedly be filled without delay, by appointment as provided by the city charter.

This is a plain and truthful utterance, made to an Oregonian reporter by E. B. Dufur, of The Dalles: "Eastern Oregon is with Portland, heart and soul, in its efforts to build a portage road between The Dalles and Celilo. Every man, woman and child endorses the scheme adopted at the Portland convention. I am satisfied that our section of the state will put up its portion of the amount needed. If Portland does not get the river opened its Eastern Oregon trade will surely go over the mountain to Puget sound."

So the state militia is to go into camp in a couple of months and for the time conduct themselves as real soldiers. The state has shown how proud it is of the boys by making an appropriation so exceedingly liberal that six overcoats will be loaned out to each company of 60 men for the men on guard duty. The boys will be permitted to furnish their own bed and bedding; if they indulge in the luxury of target practice they can blow off their own ammunition for the state won't furnish any, and besides all these privileges and emoluments they are paid a wage of $1.50 a day. You see it's a fat job this. Let us all join.

O. N. G. ENCAMPMENT.

Orders Issued by the Officials in Regard Thereto.

HONORABLE OREGON NATIONAL GUARD, ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT, PORTLAND, Oregon, April 15, 1891. GENERAL ORDERS, No. 2.

The following extracts from the journal of proceedings of the state military board, April session, are published for general information:

I.—The annual encampment authorized by law will be held by regiments in their respective districts during the months of June and July of this year. The exact time and place will be decided by the respective regiments and announced in regimental orders, the same to be approved by the commander-in-chief.

Each encampment will continue for six days; all officers, musicians and privates being entitled to the compensation allowed by law for this period.

II.—The Portland Light Battery will camp with the First Regiment and the cavalry troops unless otherwise directed with the Regiments to which they are at present attached.

III.—The time spent in camp will be assiduously applied to the duties of a soldier. Not less than one hour per day (Sunday excepted) will be devoted to the settings up drill. The importance of soldierly bearing and military courtesies should not be overlooked by commanders. Particular attention should be paid to the general appearance of the camp and the personal appearance of the men on duty as to neatness and cleanliness of clothes and equipments. No intoxicating liquors, except for medical purposes, will be permitted within the Encampments.

IV.—The Adjutant-General is authorized to enter into a contract on behalf of the State for overcoats for guard duty during Encampments at the rate of six coats to a Company for each Company in camp.

V.—Regimental Commanders will forward to the Adjutant-General, as soon as practicable, the exact date and place of holding their respective Encampments and the number of Companies which will participate in the same.

VI.—The sum of 50 cents per day per man will be allowed for the purpose of procuring rations while in camp.

VII.—Each man will be required to furnish a pair of blankets or two comforters for his own use during camp.

VIII.—On account of the demands for funds to carry on the encampments, the allowance for target practice cannot be audited during the current year.

IX.—Allowance for services for court-martial, members and witnesses, will be audited as follows: Per diem, as prescribed by law; for services on duty in camp, mileage at 5 cents per mile; for civilian witnesses, $2 per day and 5 cents per mile.

By order of the commander-in-chief: J. C. SHOWN, Official: Adjutant General. R. W. MITCHELL, Major and Assist. Adj. General.

An Apology.

THE DALLES, April 24, 1891. EDITOR CHRONICLE: I owe it to the young lady to whom I was reported to have been married, to say that I regret exceedingly that what was intended only as a joke among a few private companions should have been carried so far as to be published. The fault was wholly mine that such a report was given out and I would not now that it should have happened under the circumstances, for the world. It was far from my intention to wrong any one and I hope those most deeply injured will accept this apology, the only reparation I can now make. FRANK PARISH.

The Government Slow but Sure.

Our townsman Marshall Hill this morning received from the government at Washington the sum of $57.03. There is nothing particularly strange in that, but from the circumstance that it was in payment for services rendered by Mr. Hill when he was a lad not then twenty-one years of age. He is now fifty-four years old. Mr Hill thinks the United States government a slow paymaster but a sure one.

Home Wanted.

The King's Daughters, of this city, desire to find a home for a boy of about 10 years of age. The country preferred. For further particulars apply to this office.

To the Public.

Notice is hereby given that all the barber shops of The Dalles will be closed in future on Sundays.

President Harrison will arrive at The Dalles on May 7th at 11:15 o'clock a. m. and will remain here fifteen minutes.

The editor sat on a hard bottom chair trying to think of a thought, and he plunged all his fingers about through his hair, but not one topic they brought. He had written on temperance, tariff and free trade, and the prospects of making a crop, and joking about ice cream and weak lemonade, till his readers had told him to stop. And weary of thinking, sleep came to his eyes, and he pillowed his head on the desk, when the thoughts which, when awake, had refused to arise, came in groups that were strong and grotesque. And as the ideas arily float, he selects the bright one of the tribe, and this is the gem which while reading, he wrote: "Now is the time to subscribe."

In the city of New York there are over 150,000 people who earn less than 60 cents a day. Thousands of this number are poor girls who work from eleven to sixteen hours a day. Last year there were over 23,000 families forcibly evicted in that city owing to their inability to pay their rent. One person in every ten who died in New York in 1889 was buried in Potter's field.—Astorian.

He had told his son to milk the cow, feed the horses, slop the pigs, hunt up the eggs, feed the calves, catch the colt and put him in the stable, cut some wood, split some kindling, stir the cream, put some fresh water in the creamery after supper and to be sure and study his lessons before he went to bed. Then he went to the farmer's club to discuss the question "How to keep the boys on the farm."

The notice of marriage published yesterday and referred to in a communication in another column was written and handed into this office by a thoroughly reliable person who believed it to be true, because he heard it solemnly asserted by the lips of the pretended bridegroom. It was even then only published after careful inquiry, from others who had heard the same assertion. It was a dastardly low trick, and the CHRONICLE regrets having been made a party to the deception on the lady's account. The fool killer is at present out of town or somebody, who richly deserves it would have got licked.

A. J. Wall bought a fine trotter from C. P. Balch of Dufur this morning. Wall says the price paid was $300, and that the animal can trot in 3 minutes. The CHRONICLE is privately informed that under favorable circumstances on a good track she might make a mile in 10 minutes.

Geo. C. Bills leaves this evening for Salem, having in charge the Indian woman Allie, who was committed to the insane asylum to-day. Cates has telegraphed ahead to the officials not to keep Chris too, as he is perfectly harmless.

Fresh salmon just received at W. A. Kirby.

Married Lovers.

The affectionate man, who sits with his arm on the back of the seat when he rides in the cars with his wife, is always open to the suspicion that somewhere in the recesses of his self esteem he considers himself a sadly bespecked individual, and is excessively attentive to his better half in public places for the simple purpose of side tracking any intimation of such a state of affairs that might be apparent if he didn't do his half of the acting.

But the exquisite way a friend of mine directed his pretty wife where to go the other day as they parted at a crowded street corner contained no such intimation, inasmuch as he put in the word "dear" wherever he could catch his breath, and concluded with, "Don't forget, dear, to take a car at Park square, dear, and remember that the number is three hundred, dear, and thirty-seven."—Boston Globe.

Sudden.

Presence of mind is not always monopolized by the brave and wise, nor is it uniformly cultivated for great and good purposes.

Several of the pupils in a certain "backwoods" district determined not to study geography. The teacher believed that they were old enough to begin the subject, and accordingly called one of the oldest boys to her desk and spoke to him about the necessity of a knowledge of his own and other countries.

"I shan't study g'ography till I git ready!" growled the youngster. The teacher rose quickly and seized him by the collar, intending to shake him, when the young rascal hastily added, "But I am ready now!"—Youth's Companion.

This Can Be Done on Nearly Every Farm.

Given a flow of 100 gallons of water per minute and plenty of liver and scraps thrown in, and you can raise 1,000 pounds of trout in a pond 10 feet deep, 10 feet long and ten feet broad, replacing them with small ones as rapidly as they reach marketable size. It can be done very profitably too. The time is looked forward to, and it is not far away, when every farmer will look upon an acre of water as he does upon an acre of land, expecting so much yearly yield from it, whether it is pond, lake, river or estuary.—Washington Star.

A Dreadful Threat.

A poet having loaned a small amount to a friend found it very difficult to collect the same, as his friend failed to recollect the incident. Meeting his friend in need the poet said: "If you don't pay me that $17 which you owe me I shall have to resort to extreme measures."

"And what may they be?"

"I'll dedicate my next poem in your honor."

The friend turned pale and shelled out abruptly.—Texas Siftings.

A Large Difference.

"What was your lawyer's fee in that case, Dimling?"

"It wasn't a fee, Totling; it was an honorarium."

"What's the difference?"

"Well, an honorarium is about ten times as much as a fee."—Harper's Bazar.

The Best Cough Medicine.

"One of my customers came in today and asked me for the best cough medicine I had," says Lew Young, a prominent druggist of Newman Grove, Neb. "Of course I showed him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and he did not ask to see any other. I have never yet sold a medicine that would loosen and relieve a severe cold so quickly as that does. I have sold four dozen of it within the last sixty days, and do not know of a single case where it failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersley, drugstore.
