HONORS TO GEN. GRANT

New York Breaks Ground for the Long-Deferred Monument to the Dead Chieftain.

Burglar Shot Dead in Portland where he had Raided a Gun Store-- Stock Yard Trouble in Chicago.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Amidst plaudits of thousands of citizens, the blare of trumpets, beating of drums and booming of cannon, the melody of childrens voices and the eloquence of orators, ground was broken today for the monument which is to be at the tomb at Riverside park where rests all that is mortal of General Grant.

Before turning up the soil, commander Freeman said: "We gather today not simply as representatives of hundreds of thousands living and dead whom he led to victory, but of the entire nation of men who wore the gray as well as men who wore the blue."

A BURGLAR KILLED.

A Man Attempts to Rob a Gun Store and is Shot to Death. PORTLAND, Or., April 27.—About five o'clock this morning a man whose name is at present unknown, entered Strowbridge's gun store by breaking in the front window.

THE FESTIVITIES WILL GO ON. The President's Sister is Better and the Exercises Will Be Carried Out. SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—On receipt of a dispatch from Cincinnati this morning conveying the intelligence of the improvement in the condition of Mrs. Eaton, sister of President Harrison, it was announced on behalf of the president that the programme of entertainment arrangements for today and the remainder of the week will be observed unless Mrs. Eaton's condition should be received.

A Chicago Cattle Rumpus.

CHICAGO, April 27.—The fight against yardage charged on cattle of the Union Stock Yards company by Nelson Morris, in behalf of himself, Armour Co., and Swift was begun this morning. The first lot of cattle consigned to private yards built by Morris, arrived this morning. In order to reach the yards it was necessary for the cars to be run over the tracks owned and operated by the Stock Yards company.

Farmers' and Traders' Bank Closed.

MONTGOMERY CITY, Mo., April 27.—The Farmers' and Traders' Bank has closed owing to uncertainty as to its condition. Capt. Covington, cashier, has disappeared and people are at a loss to know whether he is responsible for a shortage of $9,300 in the bank's account or whether the loss of money so preyed upon him that it unbalanced his mind.

The Strikers in Detroit.

DETROIT, April 27.—The result of the meeting of the board of arbitration appointed to settle the differences between the city railway company and its employees, resulted in a complete victory for the latter, the company promising to take back all strikers and give them employment during good behavior.

VON MOLTKE'S LAST MOMENTS.

His Physician Tells of the Last Acts and Death of the German Soldier.

BERLIN, April 25.—Count Von Moltke's physicians, speaking of the dead general, said he often spoke of the fine state of his health considering his advanced years. The general rose, earlier than usual Friday, for the purpose of seeing a relative off who was starting on a journey at noon. He drove to the upper house of the Prussian diet and there remained three hours. He subsequently walked to the staff headquarters, where he spent twenty minutes in laying out the details of some plans.

FOND OF CROSSING HUSBANDS.

The Matrimonial Career of Effa May Freed Rarely Interrupted.

HELENA, April 15.—A charming little woman, 22 years old, is in the lockup tonight. She achieved her third husband in this city Friday night, he being the second one with whom she eloped. She is registered as Effa May Freed. She first married Charles Jones, at Marion, Iowa but deserted him a few months later for Charles Still, whom she married in Cedar Rapids, without the formality of a divorce.

HUNT HOME AGAIN.

He Declares the Northern Pacific Has Not Bought His Road. WALLA WALLA, April 25.—This evening G. W. Hunt, president of the Oregon & Washington Territory railway, accompanied by Mrs. Hunt and children and Assistant General Manager Herman, returned from New York.

Slavin Must Fight or Crawl.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Professor Wm. Muldoon, who has Jake Kilrain in charge, gave a free expression to his feelings this evening on the matter of the little tiff which took place between Charlie Mitchell and Kilrain late Friday night: "If Slavin wants to fight," he said, "he will get it, and will get all he wants of it without Mitchell seeking a bit of cheap shoddy advertising. Now, if they mean business, which I doubt, and if they are not a crowd of bluffers in the control of a bluffer, as I believe Charles Mitchell to be, here is a chance. As Kilrain's manager, I will engage that he will meet Slavin in a ten-round contest before the Granite Club, for the purse they offer, at any time that may be agreed upon, and so soon as Slavin can get ready. There is not any use of the party cavorting out to Cincinnati in search of Sullivan, whose engagement will not admit of his fighting, but you see Mitchell's fine hand in it. He wants to make a big bluff at Sullivan as an advertisement. Kilrain is ready for Slavin. He does not need to go west looking for a man."

No Action at Present.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—No action will be taken by the treasury department at present in the case of Phoebe Cousins, removed from the position of secretary of the board of lady managers of the world's fair, and which was brought to the attention of the department yesterday by C. H. Jones, chairman of the committee on finance of the exposition. When the voucher of the lady who succeeded Miss Cousins as secretary for her salary for a portion of the month of April, which she will have served, is presented to the department for approval, the department will then have something as a basis upon which to take action. Meanwhile nothing can be done.

India in a Bad Way.

CALCUTTA, April 25.—The Englishman in a semi-official article, says the suppression of the opium trade in India will provoke a revolt among the Sikhs and other warlike races of that country. The only possible way to recoup the loss to the revenues from the opium traffic is by again imposing cotton duties, absorbing the famine fund, doubling the income tax and adding one shilling to the salt tax, which would cause misery and death among thousands of the inhabitants. Otherwise England would have to pay India £6,000,000 yearly.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Chronicle says it learns from an independent source that before Villard went to Europe he made arrangements to provide money for Northern Pacific needs for the year to come.

Stand by their Bread and Butter.

NEW ORLEANS, April 27.—The supreme court decided the lottery mandamus case in favor of the lottery company.

Cured of a Superstition.

Speaking of superstitions among sick people a hospital physician said: "Upon one occasion one of the convalescents was sitting near the window when he observed a small dog barking furiously while running along the ground directly underneath. Suddenly the animal stopped, and looking upward began to sniff the air and then commenced digging in the earth at a furious rate and keeping up an incessant whining. The patient called an attendant and told her that he wished to be put back to bed, as the time was fast approaching for his demise. The nurse remonstrated and tried to laugh the man out of the absurd notion, but it was without avail, and the patient had his wish granted and for several days grew rapidly worse."

Louis the Eighteenth and Talleyrand.

The duties of my position kept me in Paris and made it impossible for me to go and meet Louis XVIII. I saw him for the first time at Compiègne. He was in his study—M. de Suras brought me to it. The king on seeing me held out his hand and said to me in the most amiable—may, the most affectionate—manner: "I am very glad to see you; both our houses date from the same epoch. My ancestors were more clever than yours; had it been the reverse, you would say to me today, 'Take a chair, come here near me, let us speak of our affairs'; whereas today it is I who say to you, 'Sit down and let us talk.'"
