Secretary Proctor Has No Authority to Make a Move. WASHINGTON, April 28.—Secretary Proctor has taken no action in the matter of the lynching at Walla Walla. AGAIN A GLOBE TROTTER.

Citizen George Francis Train Will Endeavor to Beat His Former Record.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Citizen George Francis Train will leave New York tomorrow night for another trip around the world. The decision is a sudden one, but it does not take the citizen long to make up his mind. He made the last circle around the globe in fifty-nine days. This time he is going to do it in fifty-five days, or, as he eloquently remarked, "bust his suspenders."

WHY HE GOES.

Mr. Train, at a lecture he delivered in the hall of the Grand opera house tonight, said: "I leave to escape the revolution. It will come within thirty days. I predicted the failure of the Baring Bros. I now prophesy the failure of Jay Gould. Look out everybody for national bankruptcy, war with Italy, pestilence, grippe, Jack the Ripper, famine, flood and fire; I escape it all!"

DARING TRAIN ROBBERY.

Trunks of Tourists on the Northern Pacific Broken Open and Ransacked. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 27.—A daring robbery on the Northern Pacific through passenger train, which arrived here from Portland last Thursday night, came to light today. The robbery was kept a secret, but the facts, nevertheless, came to the surface today at the West hotel where the Raymond excursion is stopping. There were twenty-six persons on the Tacoma last Sunday night. Stopping off at Spokane for one day, their baggage was checked through. St. Paul was reached Thursday night and Friday was spent in that city. During the day one or two trunks of the party were opened. Some small losses were discovered but were not regarded as serious. Saturday the excursionists came to Minneapolis. Here all the trunks were opened and notes compared. It was found that nearly every trunk had been ransacked by thieves. The Northern Pacific officials were at once communicated with, and W. H. Lion, who is in charge of the party, together with general passenger agent Fee, at once set to work to run down the thieves. In one of the first trunks opened, the tourist owning the trunk discovered a sheet of paper bearing the railway company's print, on which was written some instructions. The thieves carelessly allowed the slip of paper to drop into the trunk while rifling it. There was evidently more than one connected with the robbery, so the railway people think, for one man could not have gone through all the trunks. The loss by the robbery will be several thousands of dollars. Everything from California wines up to diamonds, clothes and jewelry, was abstracted. Some of the party are from eastern cities.

TALMAGE'S NEW TABERNACLE.

Fifty Thousand Dollars the Amount of the First Collections Made. NEW YORK, April 26.—Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage's new tabernacle was opened to his congregation and the public for the first time this morning. There were three important dedicatory services held during the day, and thousands of people crowded the big edifice at each one. The building is Romanesque in style of architecture. The interior of the church has two galleries, and seats 5500 persons. Up to date the total cost of the church is $410,000, and it will require $40,000 more to complete it. At this morning's service the dedicatory prayer was made by the Rev. Dr. Wendell Prime. Dr. Talmage then welcomed the congregation. Rev. Dr. Hamill, of Washington, delivered the dedicatory sermon. The collections during the day amounted to $50,000, which was called for to remove a mechanic's lien on the building of that amount. There still remains a debt on the church of $200,000.

AN INFURIATED ITALIAN.

A Girl's Reference to His Nationality Causes Two Murders. NEWARK, N. J., April 26.—While one Bulger, with three male and two female companions, were sitting on a stoop this morning, four Italians passed. One of the girls made a remark about the nationality of the Italians returned, and stabbed Bulger in the abdomen, nearly disemboweling him. The offending girl fled down the street, pursued by the infuriated Italian. He was fast overtaking her, when John Powers intercepted him. The Italian turned upon Powers and plunged the knife into his side. Both wounded men were taken to the hospital where Bulger died tonight. Powers has a slight chance of recovery. The murderer was arrested.

AN ELEVATED RAILROAD EPISODE.

She was a Normal college girl, and she decided to take the Sixth avenue elevated railroad up town. Being in haste, she carried her coin in her mouth, that she might lose no time at the ticket window. When she reached the ticket window she swallowed the coin and several people missed several trains while she coughed it up again. When her ticket was deposited she discovered herself to be on the down town side. She was in a hurry, and she gritted her teeth and ran down stairs. Then she got rattled, crossed Twenty-third street instead of crossing the avenue and, mounting, found herself where she had been before.

FINGER NAIL JEWELRY.

A San Francisco modeler of statuary has a set of shirt and cuff studs made of Chinese finger nails set in gold. He points with pride at his exclusive possessions, which are made of a Chinaman's finger nail which was four inches long when cut. The nail in the studs presents a shiny appearance and is susceptible to changes in the weather. Their owner claims that they were successfully used by him as a weather barometer when he first got them, but their usefulness in this direction had been lost through age.—San Francisco Letter.

ODDS IS THE DIFFERENCE.

When a subject of the king of Denmark is ailing he is bled from the arm. If this doesn't cure him he is laid on his face and two men walk up and down his spine. If this fails, his case is called incurable, and he is left to shift for himself as a very obstinate fellow.—Detroit Free Press.
