WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

THE DALLES, May 1, 1891. FAIR Weather forecast till 12 m., Saturday: fair. Warmer.

The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Social at the Congregational church to-night. Experimental free delivery will be established today at Roseburg, Oregon.

This is the warmest day of the season. The temperature reached 76 degrees.

Hon. M. A. Moody has returned from Dayville where he has been on business.

There are 5,130 Epworth League Chapters in the United States. Oregon has 22 of them.

Jas. L. Easton filed his intentions to become an American citizen today at the clerk's office.

It is said the Farmers' Alliance and prohibition will cut quite a figure in town politics this year.

Assessor Guild, of Union county, has recently discovered over 80,000 acres of land that have heretofore escaped taxation.

We extend our congratulations to Mr. W. L. Bradshaw in his good fortune of the appointment of judge for this judicial district.

Mr. Charles Gilgard died at his residence in this city last night of consumption after a lingering illness of five months.

Judge W. L. Bradshaw leaves on the stage tomorrow morning for Prineville to hold court in that county. Judge Bradshaw will wear the official ermine with becoming dignity.

Two cars of beef cattle were fed at the Saltmarsh & Co. stock yards this morning. They were brought from Shoshone Idaho and are destined for the Sound markets.

Mr. A. Wintermier, of Burns, Harney county, formerly an old time citizen of The Dalles, having resided here since 1858 until about two years ago, is in the city visiting friends.

Mr. Chas. L. Schmidt is buying all the wheat he can get to fill an engagement and paying 75 cents per bushel. Yesterday 600 bushels were delivered at the Wasco warehouse for him.

The city baseball club will play a game with the Academy club tomorrow at the fair grounds at 2:00 o'clock p. m. This is the first of the season and the boys will be out sharp.

The Wasco warehouse received yesterday forty-six sacks of wool from James S. Wall, Esq. of Canyon City. It is very nice, fine fiber and clean and is a fair sample of the John Day valley wool, and always brings the top price in this market.

On Saturday last a horse, owner unknown, was wandering about in the neighborhood of the Gibson ranch with a log chain attached to him and started to run down hill towards the John Day, when he stood on the chain, fell and broke his neck. The owner can have the log chain by calling at the Monkland postoffice.—Observer.

Mike Diamond is moving a house on Third street near the Catholic church, rumor says, to make room for the new church edifice to be erected soon. We are glad to see this step taken as that society is in need of a larger place of worship and one that is in keeping with their growth.

The water commission has the fence nearly completed around the new reservoir. We are reliably informed that the entire work of constructing and completing the reservoir, together with trenching and also the cost of the cast iron pipe laid on and in the ground ready for use did not cost the city to exceed $29,000. This is much less than is generally understood.

A quiet wedding took place this afternoon in Hood River at the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Blowers. The high contracting parties were Mr. Charles Early, foreman of the Oregon Lumber Company's Mills and Miss Edith Blowers. The young couple have the hearty good wishes of all, who know them for a long, happy and prosperous life.

The Uncle Tom's Cabin company that is to be here Monday night, May 4, is reported to be the strongest company on the road. They played at Los Angeles a few weeks ago and the Telegram, the evening paper of that city, speaks very highly of the performance. It was particularly loud in its praise of the scene where Eliza crosses the river on the ice. The Telegram is a very conservative paper, and when it says anything complimentary of a performance it usually deserves it.

REVIEW OF THE LOCAL MARKET.

Business in mercantile lines has an improved appearance, and a better feeling exists among our merchants. Fresh supplies of goods have replenished the depleted stocks, and more activity is noticed with dealers than a week ago.

The local market is very firm, especially on provisions. Canned and smoked meats are high and firm, and will continue to advance. There is no change in the price of fresh meats, but that there will soon be an upward tendency is evidenced by the rapidly diminishing supply. When prices begin to advance, which will be before the end of the week, they will necessarily continue on the rise until the 1st of June, when grass-fed beef can be brought in off the ranges. Eggs are decidedly weaker. The ruling price yesterday still seemed to be 17c though many dealers were selling for 16c. The large amount of eggs shipped from the East to the Sound by reason of discrimination in railroad rates, has partially shut out the Oregon article, and shippers have to depend upon the home markets.

There is a fresh movement of wheat in the market. Farmers who have held on to their grain are realizing better prices than those that sold last season. The Wasco warehouse is buying, and 75 cents per bushel is being paid. The Diamond Mills are in the field buying all they can get at the price above named. There are strong indications for better prices for 1891 wheat, owing to various causes which are telling on the markets at home and abroad.—The Oregonian furnishes the following in relation to wheat and the outlook.

The prospect of a foreign wheat shortage has caused a sharp advance in cereals this month. May wheat rose nearly 8 cents, and corn nearly 5 cents a bushel, in both New York and Chicago. This rapid advance recalls September, 1889, when falling crops abroad forced up the price of American grain. Since 1882, when prices fell, they have remained low, and the European supply from other countries has increased relative to our own. In quantity, our exports of cereals have been one-half to two-thirds what they were in the years 1879-80, and the ruling price has been two-thirds what it was then. The weather has been favorable in our winter wheat belt for the maturity of the crop, and a large acreage of spring wheat has been sown under the stimulus of high prices. Our domestic wheat crop promises to be large. There are very general and unanimous reports of crop failures in France, Germany and England, and an active and strong demand from abroad for wheat for early delivery. If this situation is maintained, we shall have a large wheat surplus for sale abroad at high prices, which means prosperity to all classes of trade.

Wool has begun to move, and already several lots have been received at the warehouse, while there is a prospective large clip, and a very fine staple. Our buyers seem to be quite disappointed in the appearance of that already delivered. Owing to absence of rain on the grazing districts, the flocks have gathered an unusual amount of dust and dirt, which they say renders it less marketable and consequently prices will rule lower accordingly. This will be a disappointment to our sheep men and the only remedy for this misfortune is the establishment of cleansing or scouring work in this city which would be able to put the wool on the market clean, and thus save to the owner 50 per cent, or save paying freight on at least 2,000,000 pounds of dirt by so doing.

The Dalles wheat market is firmer at 75 cents per bushel with a better future. OATS—The oat market is in better supply with liberal offerings at quotations. We quote, extra clean $1.50 per cental and inferior $1.35 per cental.

BARLEY—There is nothing doing in barley. Quote $1.10 per cental sacked.

FLOUR—Best brands $4.00@4.20 per barrel; extra brands $5.50@6.00.

MILLSTUFFS—The supply is quite sufficient for the demand. We quote bran and shorts $20.00 per ton. Shorts and middlings $22.50@24.00 per ton.

HAY—Timothy is quoted $17.00@18.00. Wheat hay is limited in supply and has an upward tendency. Quote, $12.50@13.00 per ton.

POTATOES—Are coming in freely and are down in price as the demand is lessened by the increasing supply. Quote for table use .65@.75 per 100 lb.

BUTTER—Is in better supply. Quote A 1.50 cents per roll which is coming in more freely and the demand is well supplied.

EGGS—The market is weak with a good supply coming in at quotations. We quote 12@14 cents per dozen.

POULTRY—Is very scarce and sells freely. We quote, average fowls $4.50 per dozen, common $3.00@3.50 per dozen.

HIDES—Prime dry hides are quoted at .04@.05 per pound. Culls .02½@.03½. Green .02. Salt .03. Sheep pelts butcher's extra .75@1.00, ordinary .50@.75 each.

WOOL—The market is not established yet. Wool is nominally quoted at .14@.17 per lb.

BEEF—Beef on foot clean and prime .03½, ordinary .02½.

MUTTON—Wethers are scarce, that is to say No. 1. Extra choice sell at $4.50; common $3.50@4.00 per head.

HOGS—Live heavy, .04½. Medium weight .04, dressed .05½@.06.

BACON and hams sell in the market at .09½@.10 cents in round lots.

Lard 5 lb .11@10½; 10 lb .10½; 14 lb .08@.08½c per pound. Stock cattle are quoted at $9.00@10.00

Long Ward offers for sale one of the best farms of its size in Sherman county. It consists of 240 acres of deeded land at Erskenville. There is a never-failing spring of living water, capable of watering five hundred head of stock daily. The house, which is a large stone building with ten rooms attached alone cost $1700. A blacksmith shop and other buildings and the whole surrounded by a good wire fence. Will be sold cheap and on easy terms. Apply by letter or otherwise to the editor of the Chronicle or to the owner, W. L. Ward, Boyd, Wasco county, Oregon.

He wants it known.—Mr. J. H. Straub, a well known German citizen of Fort Madison, Iowa, was terribly afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism when Mr. J. F. Salmon, a prominent druggist there, advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One bottle of it cured him. His case was a very severe one. He suffered a great deal and now wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured him. 50 cent bottles for sale by Snipes Kinersly.

OUR NEW JUDGE.

A Short History of the Able Gentleman who was Today Appointed.

Mr. W. L. Bradshaw, of this city, who has just been appointed judge of the seventh judicial district to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Bird, is a man of splendid honesty and integrity and excellent legal ability. He was born in Putnam county, Mo., on the 28th day of September, 1858, and is therefore in his 33d year. In 1865 he came to Oregon, across the plains, and has ever since been a resident of this state.

After attending college at Corvallis, for about two years, he entered the St. Louis Law school, where he graduated in the class of 1881. He was admitted to the bar of this state in the same year and commenced the practice of law at Lafayette, in Yamhill county, going into partnership with his father Col. E. C. Bradshaw, who afterwards practiced law in this city for a number of years.

When his father died, in the fall of 1888, Mr. Bradshaw came up here to settle his affairs, and was so pleased with the city and country that he decided to locate in The Dalles, which he did in January, 1889, forming a partnership with Mr. J. L. Story, with whom he has continued the practice of his profession up to the present time.

Since locating here he has enjoyed a good and remunerative practice, and has established himself in the good will and kind regards of the people of this city and county, as is shown by the strong recommendations that were sent down to governor Penney in his behalf.

He will undoubtedly make a satisfactory judge and reflect credit upon the administration making his appointment.

Notice to tax payers. All state and county taxes, become delinquent April 1st. Taxpayers are hereby requested to pay the same before that date in order to avoid going on the delinquent list. The county court has ordered the sale of all property in which the taxes have not been paid. Please call and settle before the time mentioned and save costs. D. L. CATES, Sheriff of Wasco County.

NOTICE. R. E. French has for sale a number of improved ranches and unimproved lands in the Grass Valley neighborhood in Sherman county. They will be sold very cheap and on reasonable terms.
