WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

THE DALLES, May 2, 1891. FAIR Weather forecast till 12 m., Monday; fair. Nearly stationary temperature.

The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. Robert Mays is in from the ranch. B. S. Huntington, Esq., returned this morning from a trip to Canyon City. We regret to learn that Mrs. M. Blasen and Mrs. Ralph Gibbons are quite ill. Mrs. C. C. Drew, who has been suffering for some time with the grippe, is convalescent. Mr. and Mrs. Davis, of Gilman, Grant county, are in the city and the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Smith French.

The friends of Mr. Earnst the chorister of the Congregational church will regret to learn that he lost his chest of tools by the planing mill fire.

Col. Bob. Ingersoll is seriously with la grippe in New York. He begins to think that place he talks so much of is not abolished yet.

We regret to hear that Stock Inspector Rice has suffered a relapse and is again quite feeble from the same old trouble, inflammatory rheumatism.

County Assessor Barnett is in the city. He has finished the country across the Deschutes and leaves tonight for Heppner to attend a convention of Eastern Oregon assessors.

Messrs. L. D. Ainsworth and Ed. Williams went down to Hood River yesterday taking with them their bicycles to have an outing in the embryo city of the mountains and returned last eve.

The bouquet of white flowers composed of the bridal wreath and other symbols of Hyman which will interest some one at the engine house is of significance and probably tomorrow, if not before, the revelation will be made.

Five irrigation companies were organized inside of two weeks at Pendleton. It will not be many years before that entire section is a vast garden, and the days when it would produce nothing but bunchgrass and sagebrush will be a memory only.

Miss Linnie Keeler arrived Saturday from California and is visiting her uncle, C. L. Phillips, and will, with her sister, open a first class dressmaking shop in the Shackelford building next door to John Booth.

There may be some real foundation for the rumor that work will soon be resumed on the extension of the Oregon Pacific railroad, and that no recess will be taken until the line has been completed to the Deschutes river in this county. At any rate we hope the rumor is well founded.—Prineville News.

George E. Moore, of Bake Oven comes in with the finest load of potatoes we have ever seen in any country. He raised them on his place and says it is the first load of farm products ever marketed here raised in that country. He thinks as soon as the railroad in contemplation is built that the products of that locality will be a big item of traffic to The Dalles.

A slight error was made in Saturday's CHRONICLE, whereby a meek and gentle animal of the horse persuasion, the property of Mr. J. P. McInerney, was blamed for doing something he never was known to be guilty of in his life, namely, kick a young lady. It was another horse altogether.

B. F. and L. C. Kelsy, of Kent, located in the grazing section of Sherman county, are in town. They are large sheep raisers and report fine success in their business the past season, having raised a lamb for every yew they have. They only lost through the winter 17 head out of 5,000. They report fine prospects for crops if the season should continue favorable.

Mr. S. B. Adams has just returned from a trip to Sherman county and gives very flattering reports of the crop prospects. He says that never in his thirty years' experience in this section of the country has he seen anything to equal it. Thousands upon thousands of acres of wheat has been put in and as far as the eye can reach, the fields stretch out in one green mass of beautiful verdure. The farmers are happy for they have never had so promising an outlook.

Harmon Lodge, No. 501, I. O. G. T., last Saturday evening installed the following officers: C. T., William Michell, Jr.; P. C. T., William Michell, Sr.; V. T., Miss Etta Story; C., D. Parish; S., Lyman Lee; A. S., Miss Grace Michell; F. S., J. F. Haworth; T., Miss Clara Story; J. T., Mrs. T. Rice; M., R. C. Fleck; D. M., Miss Lettie Johnston; I. G., Miss Nellie Michell; O. G., A. E. French. Miss Annie Thompson was elected organist and Edward Patterson chorister.

HOOD RIVER.

Some Observations on the Beautiful Village by the Chronicle Man.

The beautiful town of Hood River is now blooming out in all the charms of verdant foliage and fragrant blossom. On every hand are evidences of growth and material advancement. More property is changing hands at this point than in all the rest of Wasco county put together. Buildings of handsome architecture and substantial structure are everywhere in course of erection. Two new church buildings nearing completion are models of beauty and good taste. The Mount Hood Hotel is being entirely overhauled and its capacity increased by the addition of eleven new rooms. When the work is finished mine host George Herbert will have as fine a country hotel as can be found.

By the way George took possession of the hostelry on May eve. It is simply wonderful to see how natural he looks in an immaculate white apron and linen jacket. It is the same old George and yet not the same. He seems as handy at serving a dish of hash as he was in juggling an incorrigible or collecting a delinquent tax. We noticed that his apron was not of sufficient superficial area to quite cover his western extremities but learned that it was temporarily borrowed from his slim cook, while a new one is course of construction by a local architect. George is going to do well here just as sure as you live. We have ample proof that he has got a fine cook, and when it is said that Mrs. Herbert will superintend the rooms, it will not be necessary to add that cleanliness and comfort are assured. We predict that the Mount Hood Hotel will be a popular place of resort during the coming summer.

A kind word ought to be said to Robert Rand the outgoing landlord. No kinder or more obliging landlord ever ran a hotel. We have known him, with wonderful patience, to nurse guests through tedious and emerging sickness only to be repaid by the base ingratitude of an unsettled hotel bill. Under his management the house was remarkable for its quiet and orderly management, notwithstanding it was generally over crowded with guests. Mr. Rand and his family will still reside in Hood River where he has valuable and remunerative interests, and a host of warm and attached friends.

WILL RECEIVE THE PRESIDENT.

Mayor Moody Appoints a Committee to Take Action at Once.

At the council meeting on Saturday evening the mayor appointed the following committees to make arrangements for the reception of the presidential party to arrive in this city at 11:35 a. m. on next Thursday:

LADIES—Mrs. T. S. Lang, Mrs. N. B. Sinnott, Mrs. A. M. Williams, Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Mrs. Smith French, Mrs. Samuel Brooks, Mrs. Geo. Liebe, Mrs. Chas. Hilton, Mrs. J. Patterson.

GENTLEMEN—Messrs. D. M. French, Dr. Wm. Shackelford, R. F. Gibbons, J. A. Varney, H. M. Beall, Robt. Mays, J. P. McInerney, John Michell, Geo. Ruch. Communications have been addressed to all members of this committee, apprising them of their appointment and inviting them to meet at 7:30 this evening in the chamber of the board of trade.

Prof. Smith and the teachers of the public schools have discussed the subject of marching the children down to the station upon the arrival of the president and are willing to act in conjunction with any committees appointed. We would suggest that the schools be invited to participate.

Have Got Here.

A sensational drama of social life in early days, a poem of laughter and tears, rich in comedy and pathos, pure fun without vulgarity, the original and greatest play of its kind, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," carrying the Crystal Slipper quartette, two Marks, two Topsy, two donkeys, four bloodhounds, and six jubilee singers, will appear here Monday, May 4th on the beach back of the Umattilla House.

The city of Dayton is to have a new paper. O. E. Carter and Thornton Heskett have purchased a new plant and will immediately begin the publication of a new paper in Dayton. As yet they have not decided upon a name, but will probably christen it the Dayton Courier. Both are practical newspaper men, practical printers, and we wish them success in their venture.

The funeral services of the late Chas. Gilgard at the Episcopal church yesterday afternoon, was largely attended. After the impressive burial service of that church the remains were taken to the Sunset cemetery. The ceremonies there were exceedingly appropriate and the German singing society in respect to Mr. Gilgard's memory, who was a member of the club, sang a requiem from Goethe in good style and effect.

Inspector Dobson informs us that out of about thirty bands of sheep which he has inspected this spring, only six bands are afflicted with scab, and these are not very bad. None of the sheep so afflicted have lost any wool.—Prineville News.

Judge Bird is still in California. The latest information at hand regarding his health is not favorable. He is still very ill, and it is thought cannot possibly recover.—Prineville News.

Jack Anderson has already bought this season 17,000 head of mutton sheep for the Sound market.

"THE DEVOURING ELEMENT."

Loss of The Dalles Lumbering Co.'s Planing Mills by Fire.

The sleepers of our city were aroused at 3 o'clock Sunday morning by the alarm of fire, and turned out by the hundreds to wend their way up the bluffs, back of the electric light plant to where was seen the building of The Dalles Lumbering Co.'s planing mill in one solid sheet of flames. The whole structure was ablaze and the firemen who were promptly on hand could do nothing towards putting it out. In an indescribable short time the building was entirely consumed and proved a total loss. The machinery was all destroyed and apparently nothing can be saved. The total loss will be somewhere between twelve and fifteen thousand dollars. There was an insurance of three thousand dollars on the mill.

The planing mill is one of the necessities of The Dalles and we should be glad to be able to state that it would be rebuilt, but as yet no decision has been arrived at by the managers as to what will be done.

CROPS-WEATHER, BULLETIN, NO. 6.

For Week Ending Saturday, May 2, 1891.

OREGON WEATHER BUREAU, CENTRAL OFFICE, PORTLAND, OREGON. EASTERN OREGON WEATHER.

Showers occurred in fore part of week in most sections. On 23d snow and ice were experienced along and south of the Blue mountains. On the 24th, 25th and 26th frosts were general; no serious damage is reported from them. Cherries and wheat were slightly injured in a few places. The temperature continues cool but gradually rising. Not quite an average temperature prevails.

CROPS.

Fall and early spring wheat continues to be promising. Late sown spring wheat is not so good on account of lack of rain. More rain would prove of great benefit to the wheat crop. While the wheat prospect at present are of the best reports indicate that the promising conditions will not continue unless more rain falls. The fields are dusty and the lack of rain is already apparent. The grass is good. Stock are reported to be doing well.

Truth in the mind is only knowledge, but in the life it is power.
