LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. Jones of the Wasco Observer gave this office a pleasant call today. A. C. Sanford, G. A. Brockman and B. V. Tapp, of Wapinitia, are in the city.

Chas. Fraley and Murdock McLeod, of Kingsley, gave us a pleasant call yesterday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cavanaugh of Latah, Wash., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Phil Willig of this city.

Two cars of sheep for Victoria and one of cattle for Portland were shipped from the stock yards this morning.

The regular meeting of the board of trade will be held this evening in the rooms of the board in the Vogt block.

The 5:15 p. m. west bound passenger will not arrive till 10:45, which is 5 hours and 30 minutes late.

The monthly meeting of the school directors which was to have been held last night was postponed till 7:30 this evening at the district clerk's office.

Persons intending to make application for the purchase of forfeited railroad lands should remember that the time for doing so will expire on June 13, 1891.

The wife of George McLeod, of Kingsley, presented her liege lord with a brand new daughter last Friday. Mother and child are doing well; father as well as could be expected.

Crops are looking excellent in the interior of the country. A large number of teams can be seen every day plowing. John A. Moore has 450 acres in wheat and he is certain to have a No. 1 crop this year.—Wasco Observer.

Mr. Lewis a buyer from Portland has bought 15,000 head of sheep from the Balwin sheep and land company at $3.00 a head, to be delivered on the 15th of May.

The ladies of the presidential reception committee request that all parties who have flags, large or small to loan would kindly leave them at the residence of Mrs. S. L. Brooks any time to-morrow.

From the Fossil Journal we learn that the house on the old home ranch of Senator Hilton on Pine Creek, Gilliam county, was destroyed by fire last Wednesday afternoon. The fire originated in a defective flue.

Bath Brothers from Stockton, California started this morning to drive 15,000 head of sheep to their own state, which they have purchased exclusively in this county. They bought 3000 spring lambs which are to be delivered in Reno the coming fall.

George W. Nesmith Post No. 32, G. A. R., have issued a circular to their officers and members to assemble at the court house Thursday morning at 10 o'clock to participate in the reception to President Harrison. All sojourning comrades are requested to join with the post on the occasion. It is hoped there will be a good turnout of the old veterans.

Last Saturday afternoon at the fair grounds a game of base ball was played by The Dalles City and the Academy clubs. Considering that it was the first time the City club had ever been together the play was very creditable as it was to both parties. At the close the game stood nine to nine, an even score. Another game will be played at the same place next Saturday afternoon sharp when a large attendance is expected.

Jack Scanlan, representing C. C. Tichenor & Co., the great importers of foreign and domestic woolsens and merchant tailors, Flood Building, San Francisco, is in The Dalles for a few days, with a full line of samples at amazingly low prices. Mr. Scanlan is stopping at the Umatilla House where he will be pleased to show his samples and take measurements and, as he is a practical cutter, a fit is guaranteed.

Over in the Bridge creek country some flock masters lost a few sheep during the early part of last month from what appeared to be a dietetic ailment. Mr. Dobson is of the opinion that they were incapable of digesting the feed they received at that time, so much so at any rate that they were unable to assimilate a sufficient amount of nutriment from it to maintain a healthy condition of the system and at the same time provide nourishment for their unborn offspring. As soon as the animals were grazed on young grass the trouble at once ceased. Only about 300 head in all died, and, as Mr. Dobson thinks, the trouble was due doubtless to a derangement of the digestive organs.—Prineville News.

"What is repentance?" asks a contemporary. As a rule, repentance is being sorry when it is too late to do any good.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

For God and Home and Native Land. EDITED BY THE DALLES W. C. T. UNION.

"WOULD YOU?"

Would you sell yourself for a drink, boys. A drink from the poisonous cup? For a taste of the gleaming wine, boys. Would you yield your manhood up?

Would you bind yourselves with a chain, boys. And rivet the fetters fast? Would you bolt your prison doors, boys. Preventing escape at last?

Would you wreck your health, boys. Those blessings God has given? Would you ruin your lives, boys. And blast your hopes of heaven?

Would you dig with your own hands your grave, boys. And willingly cast yourselves in? Would you die a besotted wretch, boys. In poverty, sorrow and sin?

Ah, no! a thousand times no, boys. You were born for a noble end. In you are our country's hopes, boys. Her honor the boys must defend.

Then join the great temperance band, boys. And pledge yourselves again. Stand firm as a rock on your pledge, boys. And fight till the foe is overcome.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held in the free reading room on Friday, the 1st of May, at 3:00 o'clock. Election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Smith French; Vice Presidents, Mrs. A. R. Roscoe, Mrs. Johns, Mrs. Donnell, Mrs. J. D. Lee and Miss Mary Frazier; Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. D. Doane; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Dan French; Treasurer, Mrs. Leslie Butler.

The work of the year has been pushed quietly, persistently and successfully. The membership has increased, the Union is growing in interest. The members are deeply interested in all the branches of work. The tenth national temperance convention will be held July 15, 1891, at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

In every aspect of this many-sided subject, especially its moral, political and educational bearings the drink problem is recognized as of first magnitude. And temperance sentiment receives a respectable recognition from all classes of society now. Possibly there is more opposition, but also there are more praying and working for the cause—more than ever before.

New perils and new phases of the question makes it necessary for the friends of the cause to take council together against this special agent of the devil. All work becomes more effective by the stimulus of personal contact and consultation with each other.

The World's W. C. T. U. petition is being circulated the wide world over. It is the plea of suffering, sobbing womanhood for the protection of her home and the salvation of her sons and daughters; it is a union of hearts until it will be said: "O woman, great is thy faith; be it unto thee as thou wilt."

A Good Bargain.

At a temperance meeting where several related their experiences, a humorous Irishman who spoke was acknowledged to be the chief speaker. He had a pair of fine new boots. Said he: "A week after I signed the pledge I met an old friend, and he says, 'Them's a fine pair of boots you have on.' 'They are,' says I, 'and by the same token 'twas the saloon-keeper who gave them to me.' 'That was generous of him,' says he. 'It was,' says I, 'but I made a bargain with him. He was to keep his drink and I was to keep my money. My money bought me these fine boots. I got the best of the bargain and I'm going to stick to it.'"

Boys, will you do the same? Will you keep your money, and invest in something else than drink?—[Youth's Temperance Banner.

Protection.

Ours is a famous country for protection. There is the tariff to protect industry, while the patent laws are a safeguard to invention. There are the land grants for railroads, subsidies for steamship companies, charters for corporations. In many of the states we have societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals, and in nearly all, laws for the protection of game. Busy with all these gentle, wise and patriotic measures, there is one place our brothers have forgotten adequately to protect, and that is—Home.—By Frances E. Willard.

The Woman's Appeal, lately addressed by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union through its president, Miss Frances Willard, to the brewers, distillers, dealers, and saloon-keepers was in the highest degree appropriate. The following is its closing paragraph: "Brothers, the end is near; the doom of the liquor traffic is sealed; the clock of God has struck the hour of the people's deliverance. You know this as well as we do; you confess it in your secret counsels. Will you not come with us in the great fight for a clear brain and a protected home? Will you not, of free choice, do that which must ere long be done under compulsion of the vast majority, which echoes the vox Dei? For this we earnestly ask, and for this we fervently pray."

Somewhere beneath the vaulted sky, Somewhere beneath the slumbering sod, While broods her numbers ere they fly, Pale Justice stoops her chastening rod. When wealth and power have had their hour, Comes, for the weak, the hour of God.

People living in this county have of late been talking of petitioning the next legislature to make an appropriation for putting in fish ladders at the Klickitat falls. They say if this was done salmon and other species of food fish would come up the streams in this valley in great numbers. Parties who have a knowledge of such matters claim that the appropriation would be light. This it seems would be at least one good turn which the legislature might do for Klickitat. It would be well to remember that Klickitat county is not along the Columbia river, but the river forms its boundary line.—Goldendale Sentinel.

HAIL TO THE CHIEF!

Full Programme of the Reception to the President.

The committee appointed to arrange for the reception of the presidential party met last evening in response to the mayor's notification. Robert Mays was elected chairman and appointed the following committees: On decorations; on the attendance of school children; on the attendance of the G. A. R., O. N. G. and kindred organizations.

The militia companies, the G. A. R. and the school children will assemble at the court house at 10:45 a. m. on Thursday, May 7th. After being formed in line by Colonel Houghton, in charge, they will proceed to Front street, opposite the Umatilla house. It is proposed to have the President formally received in the parlor of the Umatilla house by the mayor, common council and the reception committee and afterward he is to be invited to address the citizens from the balcony of the Umatilla house.

It is requested by the committee that all business houses be closed from 10 a. m. to 12 m. on Thursday. Committee on arrangements, H. M. BEALL, Chairman.

II. Company commanders will pay special attention to the appearance of their men and see that all are provided with white gloves, and present a credible appearance.

III. The field and staff and company commanders and drum major will report to the colonel at 10:15 o'clock. Field and staff mounted.

By Order, T. A. HOUGHTON, Colonel.

Table Talk.

The Irony of Fate.

Now in the world, as in a school. We see how fate may change and shift: The prize he sometimes with a fool. The rich not always to the swift. The strong may yield the good may fall. The rich man be a vulgar clown, The knave be lifted over all. The poor cast pitilessly down.—[Thackeray.

The Olympia Tribune thinks that it would be a good idea for the United States to compel all foreigners who have been in this country for six months without declaring their intention to become citizens, to get out.

The eccentric wall-street operator, Mrs. Hetty Green, who is popularly reputed to be worth something like $40,000,000, has a daughter now about 18 years old. There also a son, to whom, Mrs. Green declares, she will leave the bulk of her fortune.

None of the houses in which Talleyrand slept or lived when a resident of Philadelphia, are now standing. He kept a little shop and sold buttons. He was entirely deprived of any income from France while here, and it is well known that he was quite poor.

Chicago has a news society. It is called the Rational Dress Reform society. The members, who are prominent society ladies, aim to introduce new dress combinations, the rationality of which consists of brevity of skirt, duality of underdresses and shortness of upper drapery. None of the members have ventured to appear in public in the combination.

A newspaper is always printed in a rush. There is always something in it that should have been left out; something left out that should have gone in; it is at times too quick to judge, and often too quick to act; but with all its faults and shortcomings, there is more education in a bright, newsy paper than there is in a novel. You will find that the brightest boy on practical, sensible, everyday questions is the boy who prefers newspapers or novels.

When a man gets in trouble it often takes a round sum to square matters. Oregon has diverse resources which should be developed. The contented thief takes things philosophically, of course.
