The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Wasco warehouse is now receiving from 500 to 600 bushels of wheat a day. The price remains at 80 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood Gilman and Mrs. Cheney, of Gilliam county, are in the city and the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Smith French.

W. A. Obarr of Lower Fifteen Mile died yesterday morning of heart disease, a malady with which he had been threatened for some time.

The Fourth of July committees are requested to meet tomorrow (Thursday) night at the board of trade rooms at 9 o'clock.

The wreck of a freight train of twenty cars occurred Monday morning last at Shoshone, Idaho. The cause, as near as we could learn, was a defective bridge.

The measles are having quite a run at Dufur, there being a large number of adults as well as children afflicted with that disease.

A service of foreign missions will be held by Rev. A. Krause, of Tacoma, Wednesday, May 20th, at 8 o'clock p. m. in the German Lutheran parsonage on Ninth street.

The house and contents of John Koontz, who lives on the north side of the state road near the ranch of Peter Ruffner, were completely destroyed by fire at about 8 o'clock last evening.

Day before yesterday the Oregonian quoted the prices of Hood River strawberries at 25 cents a box, while California berries were selling at 15 cents.

Crook county has lately been producing a bountiful crop of criminals and lunatics. Sheriff Booth left here for Salem last Sunday night with two crazy men.

Isaac Jones went off "fishing" last Saturday and returned Sunday night, bringing with him a specimen of gold-bearing quartz. All who have seen it pronounce it to be the richest they have seen for many a day.

F. A. Sufer met with a painful accident yesterday at the fishery which will lay him up for a week or two at least. On jumping from a small elevation to a board floor his left foot landed on the point of an eightpenny nail that projected so far that it ran right through his foot from sole to upper.

Mr. J. F. Venner has on exhibition at the store of Fish & Bardon one of the simplest devices in the way of a churn we have seen for a long time. The power is obtained by a small balance wheel and crank which gives the dash a rotary movement, thus doing away with all splashing of the cream.

Now is the time when the youngsters enjoy a game of marbles out in the warm evening air on our clean streets, under the shining of the electric lamp. Such a game was witnessed last evening by a CHRONICLE reporter, in front of the Joles Brothers' store, and it was enjoyed immensely by a crowd of onlookers.

The great medium and magnetic healer will be here for a short time only. Don't fail to make her a call. Room 31, Jackson House, Second street.

THANKS TO ALL.

Resolutions Passed by the Farmers' Institute at Wasco. WASCO, Oregon, May 15, 1891.

Resolved, That the thanks of this institute be tendered. First—To the good people of Wasco and vicinity, for their kind and generous hospitality in opening to us their homes and in ministering so acceptably to our comfort and pleasure.

Second—To Profs. French and Letcher for their invaluable services in giving us the benefit of their knowledge and of their scientific researches on the different subjects that come before the institute.

Third—To the representatives of the county press who have done so much to make this institute a success, and by publishing its proceedings and discussions have increased its usefulness so largely.

Fourth—To the Wasco band and members of the choir who have added so much pleasure and interest to our meeting by their sweet and charming music.

Fifth—To all who by their attendance, attention and interest have made our institute the grand success it has been.

Sixth—To the sisters and matrons who have shown us such kindness in attending to the wants of the inner man by the bountiful spread of the richest and choicest of viands that were fit for a king.

Seventh—Resolved, that the thanks of this institute be tendered Bros. Medler and Pike, our president and secretary.

Eighth—Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent by our secretary to the papers of Wasco and Sherman counties for publication and also a copy to Profs. French and Letcher.

JOHN MEDLER, President. FRANK PIKE, Secretary.

Bring out That Pick. The railroad commission, it is said, spent two days examining the road between this city and Portland.

Men are but grown-up children. Plato's reasoning with regard to instructing children applies with full force to adults. That which a man is forced to read never makes any lasting impression on his mind.

A Great Mine Shut Down. The greatest silver and copper mining camp on earth, Butte, Mont., has not been dull for years.

A Dalles Boy in the East. An exchange from the east brings the following letter from a young man who emigrated from that section a year or so ago and has cast his lot with the good people of The Dalles.

A letter received from Commodore Shorty, dated The Dalles, Oregon, says: "This will be a busy week for me, for we will have the right, real simple-pure Uncle Tom's Cabin company Monday evening. It shows in a tent. What a chance for a small boy! Then on Thursday I have to meet the president.

As fine a lot of strawberries as we have ever seen is now on sale at the store of Barnett & Rice. They were grown on the ranch of Mr. Cushing.
