LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brickle, of Victoria, are in the city on a visit.

The thermometer stood 85 degrees in the shade at 1:30 o'clock today.

Lawn social at the grounds of the Congregational church this evening.

Joseph Mayhew, John Carey and G. W. Henderson of Kingsley are in the city.

The gratifying of one's passion for revenge is often very poor pay for the labor involved.

Senator Dolph and family are announced to leave Washington for Portland on the 25th inst.

What do the critics mean now by McKinley prices? Do they refer to the high prices farmers are getting for their products?—Capital Journal.

Mr. J. F. Atwell, of the Cascade Locks and Hon. M. P. Isenberg, of Hood River, give this office a pleasant call today.

Mrs. J. Doharty says she can beat C. L. Phillips on chickens, as she has over 150 little ones. Mr. Phillips will have to set another hen.

Dr. C. S. Shaddis and attorney C. A. Rideout, from Texarkana, Ark., both colored, passed through this city Wednesday last, on their way to the Sound cities. They are looking for a favorable place to locate.

All hands employed to work on the portage at the Cascades will be hired by the foremen of each department of the work. The superintendent of construction informs us that all applications for work must be made to them.

What will the Portland corporation crowd do to head off the $60,000 state portage railway at the Dalles, with the governor behind it?—Salem Capital Journal.

Do? It will not be necessary for Portland to do anything as long as the Union Pacific road owns Major Handbury.

F. C. Sexton, of Kingsley, brought in to town yesterday three head of fine young graded Percheron mares, which he intends taking to the valley for sale, today. He expects to get an average of $200 each for them. Last fall Mr. Sexton sold a sucking colt of the same stock for $150. It pays to raise horses of that kind, and pays well.

Our old friend P. M. Kistner, late of Wanic, has started a boarding house known as the Grange hotel in Mrs. Wingate's building on Third street next door west of the old Grimes feed stable. Mr. Kistner will furnish his patrons with a good, wholesome, well cooked, old fashioned meal for the low price of 25 cents. We bespeak for him a liberal share of the public patronage.

At the meeting of committees on the Fourth of July celebration held last night, very little was done that is worth relating. The grounds have been secured for the sham battle and the celebration is of course an assured fact, but the absence of members of committees holding important positions caused very little progress to be made. The meeting adjourned to next Monday evening.

A valued correspondent writes from Hood River: "Decoration day will be observed here. The procession will form in the streets as follows: G. A. R. post, Sons of Veterans, W. R. C., company D, Third regiment, O. N. G. and citizens and schools. They will march to the Smith school house, where speeches will be made by M. P. Isenberg, C. J. Hayes, C. L. Gilbert and others. A picnic dinner will be served after which there will be military exercises by company D, singing by the different schools, declamations, etc."

We find the following item in one of our exchanges: "A farmer near town has been in the habit of running accounts during the year, and paying in the fall with the proceeds of the dairy, when he counted himself lucky if he made both ends meet. He resolved to try a new plan, for one year at least. Accordingly he hired a sum of money at the legal rate of interest and began purchasing for cash, with the result that in the fall he found he had money enough to pay the borrowed capital, and a nice little balance of $200 to place on interest. Since then he runs no accounts. Cash will always discount credit."

REVIEW OF THE LOCAL MARKET.

The local trade of the city has been an average one for the week and business from the outside has been much improved by the movement of wool, which has come in more freely from the sheep ranges. The warehouses are beginning to fill up quite briskly with this staple, but the uncertainty of the markets has not given any assurance of speedy sales at prices which owners ask. There are only three buyers in the city and consequently there is no competition and but very few transactions.

In the produce market prices are downward, green peas are in good supply and dealers are paying 6 to 7 cents per pound. Strawberries are quite plentiful and in a few days prices will be down to zero, as the favorable season for these luxuries is excellent and the product will be very large.

The wheat market is very active at former prices, and the farmers are letting all their surplus wheat, which they have been holding over, go. The Wasco warehouse is receiving from 400 to 600 bushels daily, which they are paying 80 cents per bushel for.

The Dalles wheat market is steady at 80 cents per bushel.

OATS—The oat market is in good supply with more frequent offerings at quotations. We quote, extra clean $1.50 per cental and inferior $1.35 per cental.

BARLEY—The barley supply is very short and the demand is increasing with an advance in price. Quote $1.15@1.18 per cental sacked.

FLOUR—Best brands $4.25@4.75 per barrel; extra brands $5.75@6.25.

MILLSTUFFS—The supply is in excess of demand. We quote bran and shorts $17.00 per ton. Shorts and middlings $20.00@22.50 per ton.

HAY—Timothy hay is in good supply at quotations $17.00@18.00. Wheat hay is very scarce and is in good demand at an advance. Good hay would bring $16.50 per ton.

POTATOES—Good potatoes are in better demand and are rather short of supply at .75@1.00 per 100lb.

BUTTER—Is in better supply. Quote A 1.35@1.40 cents per roll which is coming in more freely and the demand is well supplied.

EGGS—The market is better with a moderate supply coming in at quotations. We quote 15 cents per dozen.

POULTRY—Is very scarce and sells freely. We quote, average fowls $3.00@3.50 per dozen, common $2.50@3.00 per dozen. Spring $2.50@3.25.

HIDES—Prime dry hides are quoted at .04@.05 per pound. Culls .02 1/2@.03 1/2. Green .02 1/2@.03. Salt .03 1/2@.04. Sheep pelts butcher's extra .85@1.35, ordinary .50@.75 each.

WOOL—The market is not established yet. Wool is nominally quoted at .12 1/2@.18 per lb., with no buyers.

BEEF—Beef on foot clean and prime .02 1/2, ordinary .02 1/4.

MUTTON—Wethers are scarce, that is to say No. 1. Extra choice sell at $3.25; common $3.00 without fleece.

HOGS—Live heavy, .04 1/2@.05. Dressed .06 1/2@.07. Bacon and hams sell in the market at .09 1/2@.10 cents in round lots.

LARD 5lb .11@10 1/2; 10lb .10 1/2; 10 1/2@.08 1/2 c per pound.

Stock cattle are quoted at $9.00@10.00 per head for yearlings and $14.00@18.00 for 2-year-olds.

Stock sheep are not on the market, although we hear of $2.50 per head being offered after the shearing or $3.50 per head with fleece.

Fresh milk cows are quoted from $25.00@50.00 each, with a very limited offering.

LUMBER—Rough lumber $12.00 per M. Portland flooring No. 1, $30.00 per M. Portland rustic finish $30.00 per M. No. 1 cedar shingles $3.00 per M. Lath $3.50 per M. Lime $2.50 per bbl.

A Novel Fish Wheel.

Haworth & Thurman have stopped fishing for suckers and are going fishing for salmon in the raging Columbia. They are building two flat boats eight feet wide by thirty long which will be placed side by side five feet apart on the principle of a catamaran. The boats will not be caulked at all but will be of thin plank and the entire bottom covered with sealed five gallon oil cans laid side by side. This will be the weight sustaining power, and as each can will hold up forty-five pounds it will be seen that it will require some considerable weight to put three hundred or more cans under water. The outfit will be light and can be run anywhere on a heavy dew. Between the two boats will be placed a fish wheel five feet in width, and the owners will run the concern anywhere that there are indications of salmon. The expense of the whole outfit will not exceed a couple of hundred dollars and any good day's fishing will net that amount. The genial Sam will furnish the motive power for a good strong blow will send it well up stream against such a current as is running now.

We regret to record the illness of Mrs. Isaac Joles, from heart trouble. She was taken suddenly ill yesterday morning and still continues suffering and restless. Her husband, who was absent, was telegraphed for yesterday and returned home at 5 o'clock this morning. We sincerely desire her speedy recovery.

Later.—We are requested to state that owing to the critical condition of Mrs. Joles, at this writing, the doctor has forbidden any one to see her except the members of the family. The friends of Mrs. Joles will kindly govern themselves accordingly.

HOOD RIVER.

There are few prettier localities in the world for a town site than that of Hood River in this county. It is charmingly situated on the south bank of the Columbia which it overlooks. As a place to enjoy quiet and rest during the heated term, under the shade of its ample foliage, or breathe its health-giving air by the banks of its beautiful streams, it has few equals and no superiors, anywhere. There is all the charm which scenery can impart allied to the healthiest climate in the world. A very superior class of highly cultivated people reside there.

All the advantages of educational and religious institutions are present. There are two very tasteful church buildings in the town and two others about three distant. The fraternal and other societies are represented by a lodge of K. of P., a G. A. R. post and Woman's Relief Corps, one grange and two alliances. There are four general stores, one furniture store, one hotel, two restaurants, two livery stables, two real estate offices, one shoemaker shop and two blacksmith shops. The professional corps is represented by three physicians, two attorneys and one doctor of dental surgery. A very lively little weekly full of bright sayings and local happenings is published by Mr. J. H. Cradlebaugh and facetiously but inappropriately called the Glacier. There is a fine graded school in the town and six common schools in the valley. The population of the valley is estimated at 1400 souls. A large number of persons from Portland and other places own property in the valley or have summer residences there. Cloud Cap Inn, at the base of Mount Hood, away up in the region of eternal snow and a favorite resort for summer tourists, is less than a day's journey from the town. There is no better trout fishing anywhere than can be found at a reasonable distance. It is never very hot there and the nights are always deliciously cool. Take it for all in all the world has few more charming spots than Hood River and the valley called by that name.

A Pleasant Party.

Last evening a party of our favored young people were invited to the home of Miss Williams to spend a few hours angling. The handsome parlors were decorated with masses of roses, and the guests gaily sported with the little fishes which, unlike ordinary chubs and suckers, were valued only as they were numbered high or low. The hours flew by, and the fascination of the sport increased until a halt was called, and the successful anglers were awarded the prizes. Miss Lena Wentz and Mr. C. E. Wilson carried off the first prize, and Miss Fitzgerald and Mr. S. Campbell the "booby" prize. After refreshments were served, dancing was entered upon and shortly after 12 o'clock the party broke up, all having had a delightful time. There were present:—Misses Ursula Ruch, Minnie Michell, Louise Ruch, Matilda Hollister, Gertrude Meyers, Lizzie Fitzgerald, Virginia Marden, Rose Michell, Annette Michell, Lena Wentz, Mrs. Hilton, and Messrs. L. D. Ainsworth, C. E. Wilson, I. N. Campbell, S. Campbell, H. Ernest, N. C. Wilson, Carl Godfrey, Jos. Fitzgerald, H. Lonsdale, and F. Falkner.

Baby is sick.—The woeful expression of a Des Moines teamster's countenance showed his deep anxiety was not entirely without cause, when he inquired of a druggist of the same city what was best to give a baby for a cold? It was not necessary for him to say more, his countenance showed that the pet of the family, if not the idol of his life was in distress. "We give our baby Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," was the druggist's answer. "I don't like to give the baby such strong medicine," said the teamster. You know John Oleson, of the Waters-Talbot Printing Co. don't you? Inquired the druggist. "His baby, when eighteen months old, got hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and drank the whole of it. Of course it made the baby vomit very freely but did not injure it in the least, and what is more, it cured the baby's cold. The teamster already knew the value of the Remedy, having used it himself, and was now satisfied that there was no danger in giving it even to a baby. For sale by Snipes & Kinersley.
