COUNTY OFFICIALS. County Judge C. N. Thornbury, Sheriff D. L. Cates, Clerk B. Crossen, Treasurer Geo. Ruch, etc.

The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

DECORATION DAY.

Tomorrow is the day, when by common consent the nation garlands with flowers the graves of its heroic dead. Precious beyond earth's richest jewels, more fragrant than the roses we scatter upon the cold clay above them, sweeter than the music of earth's choicest minstrelsy is the memory of those who lived and died to make and keep us free.

WE MEAN BUSINESS.

We learn from the Goldendale Sentinel that the Columbia River Navigation Co., have given a mortgage on the New York Trust Co., for one million dollars, and that the bond has been filed with the county auditor at Goldendale.

THEY SHOULD RESIGN.

The spectacle of Dr. Briggs and Heber Newton holding on to membership, not to say official positions, in churches to whose teaching they are diametrically opposed is neither edifying to the public nor honorable to the gentlemen themselves.

A short time ago Dr. Bridgman, pastor of a Baptist church in New York city embraced views, on the nature of future punishment, at variance with those generally held by that denomination, when he quietly resigned despite the urgent entreaty of members of his church to remain.

ten-fold greater than that of a cowardly polemic who remains to distract and rend a church with whose teaching he has no sympathy.

The Goldendale Sentinel facetiously refers to a class of farmers who "farm with their mouth." They own no land, never plowed a furrow in their lives, know nothing of the art of tilling the soil, but are ever ready to give the farmer lots of advice as to what he should do and how he should vote.

An exchange calls attention to the fact that democratic papers all over the state are waging a vigorous warfare against protection principles as earnestly as if an election was at hand while it is well known that free trade is a question on which that party is by no means unanimous.

Our valuable little contemporary, The Dalles Chronicle, mistakes the attitude of the individual opinions of prelates anent the Sunday opening of the world's fair. The opinions expressed by the Catholic hierarchy are able and diversified, but in no way do they commit the church to any particular stand.

Baby is sick.—The woeful expression of a Des Moines teamster's countenance showed his deep anxiety was not entirely without cause, when he inquired of a druggist of the same city what was best to give a baby for a cold? It was not necessary for him to say more, his countenance showed that the pet of the family, if not the idol of his life was in distress.

Notice.

Having leased the Mount Hood hotel at Hood River, I would respectfully call the attention of the traveling public to the fact that the house is being thoroughly renovated and will be open for the reception of guests on or about May 1st, and I would most respectfully solicit a share of the public patronage.

Removal Notice.

J. H. Cross has removed his feed store to corner Second and Union streets. He desired to invite his patrons and friends to the new stand where he has increased facilities for doing business—he also desires to return his thanks to his customers and friends for their liberal patronage and hopes by fair dealing to merit a continuance of the same.

NOTICE.

R. E. French has for sale a number of improved ranches and unimproved lands in the Grass Valley neighborhood in Sherman county. They will be sold very cheap and on reasonable terms.

To the Public.

Notice is hereby given that all the barber shops of The Dalles will be closed in future on Sundays.

We are pleased to note the fact that The Dalles Chronicle under the able leadership of Brother Gourley is rapidly forcing its way to the front ranks of journalism and that its subscription list has a phenomenal increase.—Klickitat Leader.

HQTRS., JAMES W. NESMITH POST No. 32, DEPT. OREGON, G. A. R. THE DALLES, OR., May 25, 1891.

I. Comrades.—"Memorial day" with all that it suggests is at hand. Let us meet and publicly honor our dead; and while we garland their graves with flowers, let us renew our vows of loyalty to that flag and country for which they died.

II. The several committees detailed to decorate the graves in other cemeteries will report to the adjutant on or before 2 o'clock p. m. of that day.

III. After the memorial services have been performed the comrades will return to the hall and "break ranks."

IV. The comrades will reassemble at Post Hall at 7:30 p. m. and march to the Congregational church, where the memorial address will be delivered by comrade Rev. Geo. C. Hall, of Astoria.

V. The Third regiment O. N. G., and all civic societies and citizens are cordially invited to participate with us in the services of the day.

By command of Official. W. S. MYERS, Post Commander. J. C. MEINS, Post Adjutant.

Decoration Day Programme.

The procession on Decoration day will form at 2 p. m. sharp in the following order and move out to the G. A. R. cemetery in line as follows:

Battalion of 3d regiment, O. N. G., will form on Federal street with left resting on Third.

James W. Nesmith post will fall in at headquarters and march up Court street to Third, up Third to Federal and form on right of 3d regiment, right resting on Second street.

The James W. Nesmith, W. R. C., and other civic societies and citizens generally will form on Washington street with right resting on Second.

The 3d regiment will move down Federal street to Second, taking position as escort to James W. Nesmith post and marching down Second street.

The parade formed on Washington street will move out and join the line of march immediately in rear of G. A. R. post. The procession will continue down Second street to Court, up Court to Fourth, and out on Fourth to the G. A. R. cemetery.

Per order of committee. A. G. JOHNSON, Chairman.

Abbie Carrington. The personal compliments given Abbie Carrington, the Prima Donna, by the leading operatic managers, conductors and musicians are numerous. She appears tonight in the "Rose of Castile."

Below we give some selections of the many favorable notices she has received: The brilliancy of execution; the perfect intonation in recitative and cadence; the grace and evenness of action, is something remarkable in an artist so young in experience, and her costuming is a study in richness and appropriateness.

Col. F. H. Mapleson, Manager Her Majesty's Italian Opera. "The unparalleled success which attended her performance throughout the entire season of six months last year, led to her re-engagement by me long before the season terminated."—Max Stakosch.

"The most perfect rendition I have heard!"—"Shadow Song," from Dinorah."—Theodore Thomas. "The coming oratorio singer of America."—Dr. Länrosch.

"She stands without a rival in the field of oratorio work."—Maurice Strakosch. "Her voice is clear, full and fresh, with a wonderful compass and brill that is verily perfect."—P. S. Gilmore.

Cherry Stealing. Some of our citizens having cherry trees in their yards complain that bad boys are stripping their trees of cherries. The owners of the trees wish to give these boys fair warning that they will get into trouble if they persist in taking the cherries. The city marshal has been notified of the pilfering, and will take charge of any persons caught at it.

Why It Rained. A friend writes in from Boyd that they have had a fine rain at that place and attributes it to the fact that a Methodist camp-meeting has just started at Dufur.

Mr. Geo. B. Pulliam, wife and family, late from Missouri, who have been residing in Sherman county for a short time passed through the city today with the intention of locating in the Hood River valley. The Chronicle man spoke a good word for Hood River and bespeaks for Mr. Pulliam a cordial reception from its people.

Captain Fred Wilson of Portland, formerly in the employ of the O. R. & N. Co., on the Columbia river, is in the city.
