PORTLAND'S ELECTION.

Strong Prospect that "Boss Lotan" Has Been Downed and that Consolidation Has Carried.

A Lively Fire at Huntington in this State---Sir John's Condition No Better---Blaine Goes to Maine.

PORTLAND, June 1.—An election is being held here today for the purpose of determining whether the three municipalities of Portland, East Portland and Albina, shall be consolidated into one city or not. A strong fight is being made both by consolidationists and anti-consolidationists. The polls do not close till six o'clock and the result will not be known till late tonight.

An unusual heavy vote was polled during the forenoon. The indications at noon were that consolidation will carry. Three arrests have been made, two for selling liquor and one for illegal voting.

Reports from East Portland and Albina indicates that consolidation will also have a majority in each city.

It is reported that the anti-consolidationists are concentrating their strength in East Portland this afternoon, having given up the fight in Portland.

At 2:30 this afternoon the indications are that consolidation will carry in Portland and East Portland by good majorities, also that the vote in Albina is favorable to consolidation.

A HUNTINGTON BLAZE.

A Fire Today Does Ten Thousand Dollars Damage.

PORTLAND, June 1.—A special from Huntington, Oregon, to the Evening Telegram says that shortly after noon today a fire started in the barn of Isenhoffer & Cropper, butchers, consuming the barn and meat market, the Chinese store of Chung Lon, the dwelling house of Geo. Dunlap, and the New Commercial hotel. Three head of horses belonging to Isenhoffer & Cropper were burnt. The total loss is estimated at $10,000. There is some insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The Great Scandal Case on Trial.

LONDON, June 1.—The famous Baccarat scandal trial, otherwise the action of Sir William Gordon Cummings against Mr. and Mrs. Lycett Green, Mrs. Authur Wilson and Berkelay Lavett for slander was commenced before Lord Chief Justice Coleridge today.

After the Prince of Wales had entered the court room the jury was sworn and the case was opened.

The United States Wants a Coaling Station.

CHICAGO, June 1.—A dispatch from Washington says that an offer be made to lease Pt. Santa Barbara for a coaling station and in case of acceptance by the Dominion Republic possession, will be taken at once and congress will be asked to appropriate the necessary sums to erect a dry dock, coaling wharves and fortifications.

Canada Needing Rain.

TOEONTO, June 1.—Reports from the various parts of the country state that crops are suffering greatly from the long continued drought. If rain does not fall within a week, the consequences, it is said will be serious.

HAS A HARD TASK.

Sir John's Organ Discusses the Work of His Possible Successor.

TORONTO, June 1.—Discussing the question what will follow in the event of Sir John MacDonald's death, the Globe, the principal organ of the liberal party, says: "Hints which have been thrown out about coalation are out of the question. The liberals would not coalesce except upon a clear understanding that the national policy should be abandoned in favor of free trade with the United States. Whoever Sir John's successor may be the task before him is one extraordinarily difficult. The liberals are prepared for putting public consolidation first, to do everything that is fair and reasonable, but they cannot be expected to condone things which they have condemned or to support a fiscal policy which they know to be wrong."

Who Will Handle the Money.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Richard G. Oellers the choice of county commissioners and city council for city treasurer to succeed Bardsley, took possession of the city treasury this morning. The qnestion as to whether Oellers or Wright appointed by George Pattison has the right to fill the vacancy, will be brought before the court today. A decision is expected by the supreme court by next Saturday.

HIS CAREER CUT SHORT.

Downfall of a Young Man With Very Expensive Tastes.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A remarkable career of crime ends today with the sending of David Waldo Pierce to Sing Sing, sentenced to hard labor for three years for stealing a diamond scarfpin valued at $250. Pierce is good looking, well educated, 19 years old, and from an excellent Boston family. Enough indictments are hanging over him to keep him in jail the rest of his natural life. He came here, entered a course of wild dissipation with rich young men, and soon acquired expensive tastes. He then began a system of petty swindles to keep up with "the fellows." About one month ago he was arrested by the police as wanted by a man to whom he sold a valuable ring for a large amount, and by a young woman from whom he stole a valuable scarfpin. He pleaded guilty to the latter charge and was sentenced as told above. Among other exploits, he married a young girl, and deserted her the next day after stealing her savings.

Movements of the Charleston.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—No advices from the Charleston were received at the navy department today, and she is probably still at Callao coaling. No information can be obtained at the department as to what instructions have been sent her, but the opinion is that she has received orders to discontinue her efforts to capture the Itata, and it is believed that an arrangement for the peaceful surrender of the Itata has been made, and that she will be turned over to this government for trial. The Charleston should finish coaling today, and if her machinery is in order, proceed on her voyage, but to what point cannot be learned here. Some think she will proceed to Iquique, while others express the opinion that she will return to San Francisco and be held in readiness for duty in Behring sea, should her services be required there.

Crops in California.

SACRAMENTO, May 30.—The crop report by the State Agricultural Society says: Northern California hay, strawberries and cherries were slightly damaged by rain but the benefit to grain more than offsets the damage to hay that was down and fruits that were ripe. Southern California fruit trees show up better than several weeks ago, especially apricots and peaches, but the ripening of fruits is still retarded by the cool cloudy weather. Warmth and sunshine are needed to more rapidly advance fruit ripening. Grapes are beginning to bloom.

Sad Day at Johnstown.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., May 30.—The day here was doubly sad, being observed both in honor of dead soldiers and in mourning for the thousands of lost in the flood of two years ago tomorrow. Many newspapers correspondents were here. They formed a general flood association, and next year a memorial service and dinner will be held in Pittsburg.

The Countess Must Act.

LONDON, May 30.—In an interview today Mr. Harris, manager, said Belle Billon, who married Viscount Dunlo, and who, by the death yesterday of the Earl of Clancarty, became Countess Clancarty, is under contract with him to play for a year. The terms of the contract, Harris declares, will be enforced. If Belle Billon breaks the contract she will have to pay a heavy forfeit.

The May Debt Statement.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—The May debt statement, to be issued Monday, will show an apparent increase, of $250,000 in the debt since the 1st inst. This is due to the fact that the disbursements during the month have been unusually large, leaving less money in the treasury May 29, by about the amount stated available for the payment of the debt.

Anarchy Among Cannibals.

MARSEILLS, May 30.—The steamer from New Hebrides Islands in the South Pacific, brings advices to the effect that a state of anarchy prevails there. Numerous conflicts have occurred, in which 600 natives were killed. In each case the bodies of the dead were eaten by the victors.

HARRISON FOR PRESIDENT.

Senator Mitchell Thinks he Will be Renominated--Blaine Out of the Race.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, who is in the city, when asked, "Do you think that President Harrison will be renominated?" declined at first to say. In response to the question, "Is Mr. Blaine out of the race, and is he as sick as reported?" he said:

The reports of Mr. Blaine's illness are undoubtedly exaggerated. I saw him near the White house just before he left for New York. He was pleasant and genial, as he always is, but his face had a peculiar ashen color and wearied look which undoubtedly came from hard work. He is sick, but he has no mortal malady. I am convinced of that just as I am satisfied that he has no presidential aspirations. He has given them up. There is practically nothing to stop the president's nomination. To be candid, under these circumstances, I think that he will be the man. I agree with the opinion of Senator Ingalls, expressed in his letter to the republican editors of Kansas, that Harrison will again be the standard bearer. Who the democrats will nominate I am not in a position to express a sound opinion upon, but it looks like Cleveland.

When asked what figure the third party movement, the farmers' alliance, would cut in the campaign, the senator remarked:

From a republican standpoint it is a menace to success. There is danger that they may carry Nebraska, Kansas and perhaps one other western state heretofore republican, and possibly one Southern state, which, of course, would throw the election into the house. I have no faith, however, that any Southern state will go for the alliance electors.

A Letter From Our Mary.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Mary Anderson De Navarro writes to a friend in this city denying the report published recently to the effect that she is in abject misery, etc. The letter concludes as follows:

"We have taken a delightful house here in Kent, where we expect to live for a long time to come. I am also happy in thinking I am done forever with the glare and duplicity of the stage life."

Short Sarift.

One of the leading banking firms in Paris, on the recommendation of a London correspondent, engaged an English clerk of the name of Stephenson. For about three years the man's punctuality was altogether unprecedented. He came to his work at 9 in the morning and did not leave the office before the last stroke of 5. He was not a man, he was a clock. Besides, during the whole time he never asked for a holiday. One fine morning, however, to the great surprise of his superior, Stephenson blushingly craved permission to absent himself for an hour on the following day.

Next day at 12 he left the office. It was observed that a carriage stood waiting for him at the door. At 1 o'clock he drove up again in the same carriage and resumed his calculations as cool and self possessed as if nothing had happened. This short absence puzzled the brains of all the employes in the bank. The principal himself, eager to obtain the solution of the enigma, invited this paragon of clerks to dinner. Between two glasses of Chambertin the banker said, "You will not think me indiscreet if I ask you what you did with yourself in that hour's leave of absence you applied for last Tuesday?"

"Oh! dear no!" replied Stephenson, "I went and got married!"—Messager Boiteux.

Insulted by a Woman.

"Oh, yes, I'll remember Detroit; no fear about that," said sweet voiced Dora Wiley as she rocked to and fro in an easy chair in the Russell House. "I shall remember it as the first place in which I was really insulted, and by a woman too."

"How and when did all this happen?" asked the reporter.

"One night this week," continued Miss Wiley in reply. "A woman sat in one of the boxes with her back to the stage. One could bear that sort of thing for a little while, but when an auditor turns his or her back squarely on you for a whole evening you cannot drive from your mind the impression that an insult is intended. Well, that was the feeling that came to mind as scene after scene of the play went by, and still that woman sat there.

"I became so annoyed—exasperated, I might say—that I could hardly sing at all. It affected others on the stage the same, but perhaps to a less extent. The legitimate result, of course, was to take our minds off our work to a certain extent, and to a measure the audience suffered by the acts of that one woman, although, perhaps, they may not have noticed it."—Detroit Journal.

What an "Inch" of Rain Means.

Few people can form a definite idea of what is involved in the expression, "An inch of rain." It may aid such to follow this curious calculation: An acre is equal to 6,272,640 square inches; an inch deep of water on this area will be as many cubic inches of water, which, at 227 to the gallon, is 22,000 gallons. This immense quantity of water will weigh 220,000 pounds, or 100 tons. One-hundredth of an inch (0.01) alone is equal to one ton of water to the acre.—St. Louis Republic.

An Appropriate Costume.

"What was the idea of dressing the little page at the Revere wedding like a desperado?"

"Oh, he was to hold up the train, you know!"—Puck.
