WASHINGTON, June 1 .- Bids for the WASHINGTON, June 1.—Bids for the construction of cruiser No. 13 were open-ed this morning. The department ad-vertisements did not make allowances for the difference in freight transporta-tion charges, and consequently the Un-ion Iron Works in this case could not hope to compete with the eastern firms. The Bath Maine Iron Works were the lowest bidders, ($2,690,000.) Scott's bid was $2,790,000, and Cramp & Sons $2,745,000.

"Alta California" Suspends Publication.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1 .- The Alta California will suspend publication with its issue tomorrow morning. The Alta is the oldest newspaper on the Pacific coast. It was established in 1849. In the editorial announcing its suspension tomorrow morning it declares that for some years the paper has been financially an unprofitable and losing venture and for this reason publication is suspended.

The Duty of the Church to the Poor. I do not hesitate to say that the development of the power of self help, self respect and self dependence can be and should be the work of the Christian church in all her branches. If Christianity cannot, to this extent, leaven the masses of the wage workers, it has failed. and, at least temporarily, must continue pretty Pittsburg girl, will have a dread of to fail. ### Trivialities.

It is not always easy in any sphere to discriminate between the trifling and the momentons. It is often a matter of com parison, and judgment and experience are needed in the selection. Trifles are things necessarily trifling because they are small. A kind look, a gentle warning, a cordial greeting, a slight service etimes despised as triffes, when in truth they are signs of a generous and "The report that the Union Pacific has a floating debt of $20,000,000 is a lie unqualified and unmitigated. Easier to Get Hats Than Dollars.

"Yep," said Pink Whiskers, the tramp. "I wish't I had as many dollars as it is easy to git hats. You see, a gang of us will lay down in the weeds alongside of the railroad a little way from the water tank. Jest as a passenger train is about to start off, after the engine is through takin' water, we' jump up and holler 'Howdy, colonel?' Then all the men in the cars stick their heads out uv the winders and we grab their hats an' slide Ov course this is in the south. In the west we say 'jedge' and in the east 'perfesser.' Anywhere else we sing out. 'Howdy, Mr. Smith?" - Greenburg Sparks.

The Newspaper.

The American journal has placed a girdle around the earth. It has brought the whole human family under one roof. The dreams, the hopes, the laughter, the tears, the achievements, the disasters of humanity, yes, the very gossip of the idle hour, the passing jest, the keen witticism, all are told through the press did constitute an interference with the millions of the human race, as if all sat at the one table and took their rolls and coffee together.-James W. King in Philadelphia Ledger.
