ECHOES OF THE TRIAL.

Its Revelations Will do Much to Imperial Monarchy in England. LONDON, June 10 .- Echoes of the baccarat scandal suit still fills the air. Solicitor General Sir Edward Clarke, is ill and thoroughly exhausted today. He entirely lost the use of his voice. The denunciation of the Prince of Wales by the newspaper press and especially by the tory press has caused a sensation throughout Great Britain, and it is freely asserted that the revelations made during the trial has done more to imperial monarchy than any event which has taken place for many years past in England.

The queen does not attempt to conceal the fact that she is angry with every one connected with the scandal and the effects of the royal displeasure may yet be felt in several quarters.

"CBEEDS CRUMBLING."

Paster of a St. Louis Christian Church Creates a Sensation.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 10.—This morning six young ministers of the Reformed Presbyterian church charged with heresy as saying, all the signs points to the dis-solution of orthodox creeds. Mr. Tyrell pointed out forcibly a discussion in re-gard to matters of belief and faith which has shaken the Protestant church, and were expelled from the church by the PORTLAND, Or., June 10 .- The repub- from this drew conclusions that creeds pear. ### A DESPERATE LOVER.

After Severely Wounding His Girl, He

Ends His Own Life. SACRAMENTO, June 8 .- John Enos Silva Perry shot pretty Mamie Frates and then himself this afternoon. The two were cousins and Perry was deeply in love with Miss Frates. She did not look with favor on his suit, and tried to avoid him. Perry waited about the house until he could find the girl alone and then entered the front door. He must have after. Miss Frates tried to drag herself ont into the yard after recovering con-sciousness, but the loss of blood was so great that she again swooned. The girl is dangerously wounded.

SCOURAGE OF THE FARMER.

Grasshoppers Traveling North From Milton, California.

Milton, Cal., June 8.—Grasshoppers are in this section for over eight miles north and south. So far they have done no damage to the wheat and barley crops, but have destroyed fruit and vegetables wherever they have been. At North Hill vineyard they have destroyed one-fifth of the vines also the climated force. fifth of the vines, also the olive and fruit trees. Saturday they reached Milton. Today there is not a bush or flower left in the cemetery. They are traveling northwest through the town, sweeping every green thing before them as they go.

Vallejo, Cal., June S.—Rear Admiral
A. E. K. Benham, who for two years past has had command of the Mare
Island navy yard, relinquished this important trust today in favor of Rear Admiral John Irwin, whom the navy department has uamed as his successor.
The two admirals are also as the successor. The two admirals are old and warm friends, and the exchange, though properly formal was not wholly devoid of sentiment. The transfer took place about noon, and the ceremony involved a full dress official exemption marine. a full-dress official reception, marine grand review and the firing of a salute of thirteen guns in honor of each of the admirals. Admiral Benham will probably be appointed to the command of a squadron, as Admiral Harmony, who has been named for the Asiatic squadron, will decline the honor and retire.

A Phenomenal Yield Predicted. Sr. Louis, June 8 .- August R. Schillborger, who represents one of the largest grain exporting houses of New York city, has just returned from an extended tour of the wheat fields at the North and Northwest in order to ascertain what the prospects of the coming crops were. His opinion is that the yield this year will be phenomenal.

Will Issue a Balance Sheet.

London, June 8.—The governor of the Bank of England will probably take the earliest opportunity to issue a balance sheet, showing the position of the Baring Bros.' affair, which at present is believed to be good. No call upon the guarantors is likely for a period. The trust scheme is by no means mature, but the guarantors are liable under the Fight Drawing to a Close.

Сиклао, June 8.—The fight for chief of the horticultural bureau, to which place S. Maxwell was appointed by Director General Davis, is drawing to a close and will be settled this week. The California state world's fair committee, headed by Irving M. Scott, arrived today and is working for Maxwell.

"I am sorry, Henry," said Uncle George, "that you exhibit so little pro-ficiency in orthography. That letter you wrote to Mr. Brown the other day had so many misspelled words that it set the
