LOCAL BREVITIES.

Snipes & Kinnersly have had a new bill board erected near their store.

A. C. McDonald of Sherman county brought into town two wagon loads of fat hogs for Wood Brothers.

A special communication from Antelope informs us that the "spring fights" have already commenced in that burg.

All who are going on the excursion to Hood River tomorrow must be at the boat landing promptly at 7 o'clock a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Young have returned from Salem, whither they had gone to attend the funeral of their son-in-law, Mr. C. F. Durbin.

Forty head of horses were fed at the stockyards last night which were started this morning on their way to the Willamette Valley by way of the Barlow road.

There will be a meeting of fruit growers at the old court house, June 13th, at two o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a shipping association. All interested parties are requested to attend.

A contemporary says: "It has leaked out in the baccarat trial in London, that the Prince of Wales is a gambler." Leaked out! We should say so. Why it has leaked out, if anything.

The lawn party to be given by the Good Intent next Saturday evening will be on the M. E. parsonage lawn. Don't fail to sample the ice cream and cake and get your share of the social time.

We had the pleasure today of a hearty handshake from our old-time friend, M. J. Anderson of Antelope, better known in the literary world as "Keno," and in the legal world as the prosecuting attorney of the jack-knife judicial district.

The commencement exercises at the Congregational church tomorrow evening will begin at eight o'clock. The programme will comprise, in addition to the essays, both vocal and instrumental music. Doors open at 7:30. All are invited.

Hon. H. H. Dufur brought with him from the Colville country some very rich specimens of mineral quartz. He says the new lands just purchased from the Colville Indians is very rich in all the elements that go to make a great country—timber, grazing, agricultural, and mining lands, with vast coal fields of superior quality.

The Petaluma packing company expects this year to put up 1,000,000 cans of fruit. To show what such an institution does for a community we draw upon the columns of the Imprint. That paper says the cannery mentioned will this year pay out $85,000 for help and $80,000 for fruit. It will use 1000 barrels of sugar and $20,000 worth of cans.

A writer tells the Salem Journal that at Port Townsend the collapse is complete. A Seattle man was in Salem last Sunday who paid $1500 for property just outside Seattle last spring. "By fall he could get $7000 cash. Now he cannot sell for $500. It is thus nearly all over the Sound. It will take that region nearly ten years to get over the present reaction. Salem men think Washington papers would now be a good place to advertise the glowing realities of this valley."

A little sensation happened in the quiet town of Dufur evening before last. A lady lecturer had obtained the use of the Dufur M. E. Church, evidently through a misunderstanding on the part of the pastor, Rev. T. W. Atkinson, and proceeded to deliver a rousing rationalistic lecture. At the close and before the house had retired the pastor announced that the audience would transform itself into a prayer meeting and then called on the lady to make the opening prayer. It is needless to say she politely declined but the prayer-meeting went on, notwithstanding.

We really think an effort ought soon to be made to provide the O. N. G. with suitable camping grounds. Not less than 600 men are expected to go into camp and the presence of such a number would greatly contribute to the success of our Fourth of July celebrations. Three hundred dollars are asked for the rent of the only suitable grounds in this neighborhood and double this sum would willingly be contributed by other towns to secure the encampment. We are informed that this sum must be raised or the encampment will go elsewhere. We have no doubt that when the matter is fairly placed before the people of The Dalles the requisite sum will be raised without difficulty.

THE WASCO ACADEMY.

Its Annual Entertainment Given Last Night.

It is seldom that the people of The Dalles have the pleasure of listening to so rich a treat as was furnished last night in the opera house, by the students of the Wasco Independent academy. To say that it was a complete surprise and a crowning success is to put it very mildly. It was more than a success; it was a triumph and a revelation. It was sermon and opera, comedy and minstrelsy all in one. Some of the recitations, especially those of the little ones, equaled the best we have ever witnessed on any stage by old or young. We cannot make invidious comparisons where all tried to do their best, and we have not the heart to distinguish where all was so uniformly excellent. The charming selections were finely adapted to the performers and the vocal music gave evidence of successful training. "Only a Pansy Blossom" was a charming and original concept and the "Tambourine Drill" lays quietly in the shade the laurels of the O. N. G. As a gentleman said in our hearing, on leaving the building, "The militia boys may as well give up their guns to those young ladies." The audience was, we believe, the largest that ever met in the Vogt Grand and all were alike charmed and delighted. Prof. Ingalls has demonstrated that the people can be brought out and an entertainment began at an early hour in The Dalles if one has the pluck to carry it out, and he has the thanks of the community for so doing. Miss Lawrence is entitled to much credit for her painstaking efforts in bringing the pupils of the academy who participated in the entertainment to such a degree of proficiency. Miss Anne M. Lang was the pianist of the evening, and was indeed an acceptable one, her marches in particular being catchy and taking. Miss Maie Williams assisted the pupils in the singing and her sweet voice added much to the pleasure of the evening. Below we publish the programme in full:

Credit to Whom Credit is Due.

WASCO ACADEMY, June 10, 1891. EDITOR CHRONICLE: Permit me to express through your columns my appreciation of the very kind reception accorded the entertainment last evening. Personally I wish to express my thanks to all who aided in making it a success, but especially to Miss Mary F. Lawrence, our excellent preceptor, who had entire charge of the work, for her untiring efforts to provide an excellent entertainment. No words of mine are needed to show her that her labors were both successful and appreciated.

In behalf of the officers and pupils of the academy, I wish to return thanks to Miss Anne M. Lang for her invaluable assistance at the piano; to Miss Maie Williams and Miss Myrtle Michell, whose beautiful voices were of great value in the choruses; to Miss Aimee Newman, as accompanist in the duet; to Mr. N. Wheelton, who was in charge of the ushering, and to his able assistants Messrs. John Booth, Norman Wilson, Lewis Ainsworth, Hayward Riddell, Ray Davis and Gilbert Phelps; lastly to the CHRONICLE for the use of its columns so freely extended at all times.

It is also due Miss Margaret A. Keys, whose number was omitted from the programme; to state that she was thoroughly prepared and that the omission was due solely to a feeling that the exercises might be too long.

Yours truly, W. C. INGALLS, Principal.

Public School Excursion.

It has been decided to give the long-talked-of public school excursion to Hood River, on Thursday of this week instead of Friday as was at first contemplated. Pupils and parents are requested to be at the boat landing promptly at seven o'clock tomorrow morning and should be prepared with the exact change—25 cents for children and 50 cents for adults.

It is a curious thing that while very few people really die of love an infinite number are always dead in love.

KNIGHT J. H. BIRD.

Resolutions Passed by Friendship Lodge No. 9 K. of P.

To the C. Y. C. officers and members of Friendship Lodge No. 9 K. of P. WHEREAS, it has pleased the Supreme Chancellor of the universe to admit Knight J. H. Bird to the eternal Castle Hall, and that his voice will be heard no more in our council room; therefore it is Resolved, that in the death of Knight J. H. Bird, a past chancellor, Friendship Lodge has lost a worthy Pythian knight and its members a worthy friend and brother.

Resolved, that Death has robbed us of a worthy example of Pythian virtues, and, while living, we loved and respected him, and now, being dead, we will ever keep fresh and green the remembrance of his many excellencies of character; that though he lies silent in the tomb, the evening of his chivalric life will always have a stimulus upon our life and actions, aiming to imitate his integrity of purpose, honesty in dealings, and charity and benevolence toward the erring and distressed.

Resolved, that we hereby tender his mother sisters and brothers our heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement; and that to honor his memory the charter of this lodge and the frame, containing the pictures of past chancellors, be draped in mourning. And it is further Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, spread upon the minutes of this lodge and be published in each of the city papers.

Baby is sick.—The woeful expression of a Des Moines teamster's countenance showed his deep anxiety was not entirely without cause, when he inquired of a druggist of the same city what was best to give a baby for a cold? It was not necessary for him to say more, his countenance showed that the pet of the family, if not the idol of his life was in distress. "We give our baby Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," was the druggist's answer. "I don't like to give the baby such strong medicine," said the teamster. You know John Oleson, of the Watters-Talbot Printing Co., don't you? inquired the druggist. "His baby, when eighteen months old, got hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and drank the whole of it. Of course it made the baby vomit very freely but did not injure it in the least, and what is more, it cured the baby's cold. The teamster already knew the value of the Remedy, having used it himself, and was now satisfied that there was no danger in giving it even to a baby. For sale by Snipes & Kinnersly.
