DeLesseps May Be Prosecuted.
Paris, June 13.—There appears to be no doubt that DeLesseps will be prosecuted. His wife declares that the impression that the family has become enriched is without foundation. On the contrary she says the whole fortune has been invested in the Panama canal. DeLesseps is now ill and weak.

PARTICULARS OF THE FIRE.
The Burning of the Government Warehouse at Honolulu.
San Francisco, June 12.—The steamship Mariposa from Australia, via Honolulu, arrived today. It brings fuller particulars of the government warehouse fire at Honolulu, June 2. Several workmen had been soldering leaking kerosene tins in a shed a short distance from the warehouse, which was used solely for the storage of oils. An employe in moving the soldering to the furnace used a handful of waste taken from the floor of the shed which happened to be saturated with oil. This set fire to the shed and it spread to the warehouse, which was soon a raging mass of flames. The firemen were unable to get water from the plugs, and the explosion of a number of drums of gasoline, of which there were several hundred in the warehouse, drove them to a distance. The fact that the warehouse was constructed of brick and iron and little woodwork, and that there was scarcely any wind, saved that portion of the town from destruction. The greater part of the oil, of which there was 35,000 cases, of the value, at the Honolulu retail prices, of $300,000, was owned by the Standard Oil Company. The rest was divided among several holders. There was also about 2000 gallons of gasoline in the warehouse, a part of which was saved. The insurance loss is small.

TREATED LIKE SLAVES.
Esquimaux Boys the Victims of Extreme Neglect and Cruelty.
San Francisco, June 11.—E. P. Alexin, superintendent of a school which occupies the basement in the Græco-Russian church in this city, and his assistant, "Professor" Ligda, were arrested this forenoon on a charge to cruelty to children. Fourteen Esquimaux boys were rescued from the school, and according to statements made by Joseph Sevin, a priest of the Russian church, the boys have been the victims of extreme neglect and cruelty. The priest states that the boys were induced to come here from Alaska upon the representation that they would become priests, but that in reality they are slaves. He says that the superintendent has frequently been intoxicated, and that he and his assistant have beaten the boys brutally, shut them up in dark cells for a day at a time, and given them insufficient food and clothing. They have been taught nothing, and have rarely seen the sunlight. Several of the boys declare that Alexin has been guilty of atrocious practices with them. The boys show evidences of the ill treatment to which they have been subjected.

THE ENGLISH SCANDAL.
The Heir Apparent to England's Throne is Scored by the Press of the Kingdom.
London, June 11.—Outspoken newspaper comments upon the part the prince of Wales played in the baccarat scandal continue to be the sensation of the English and elsewhere. A newspaper reporter who was present near the prince of Wales at Ascot today at the race, telegraphed the prince was in a very sulky frame of mind, caused, it would appear, by the adverse newspaper criticism which has swept and is still sweeping over the heir apparent. A religious weekly paper, representing all Protestant denominations, says: "The throne rests upon the foundation of public opinion. Only a few more scandals like that of Tranby Croft would destroy the foundation, and Edward VIII. would never be crowned."

A British weekly remarks: "The resolutions are enough to sober up the strongest supporters of monarchy." A Vienna correspondent of the Times says the baccarat scandal has caused a sensation in army circles on the continent, especially in countries where the prince of Wales is honorary colonel of special regiments. The Globe this evening says both the army and navy feel keenly the stigma which is placed upon an honorable profession by the agreement entered into between a field marshal and a general to maintain secrecy in regard to gambling, and by "gambling with youngsters, one of them a subaltern."

CURES BY MIRACULE.
A Pennsylvania Priest Who Can Cure All the Ills of His Parish is Heir to a Faith.
Pittsburg, Pa., June 12.—The truly remarkable cure of all ailments the flesh is heir to effected by the Rev. Father Mollinger, at the shrine of St. Anthony on Troy hill, Allegheny, is attracting attention throughout the country. Over 1000 invalids from various parts of the country have arrived in this city since Monday, and they are coming by every train. Several of the number whose ailments were apparently beyond all human power to relieve, have already been restored to health or greatly relieved. Today Father Mollinger was obliged to remove from the sacristy of the little church to the more commodious school building adjoining. At one time over 2000 patients were waiting their turn to receive the venerable father's blessings and whatever remedies he should apply. Next Saturday is St. Anthony's day and preparations are in progress for the accommodation of the thousands who will be presented that day, on which the priest's power to heal is said to be extraordinarily great, because Anthony is the saint from whom he derives that power. Today two blind boys, born blind, aged 13 and 14 years, led by the mother and sister, sons of Mr. Culbertson, a wealthy farmer near Halifax, N. S., arrived from the Norton blind asylum at Halifax. This evening a large number of people, residents of Nashville, Tenn., arrived accompanied by friends and hastened to Troy hill. The scenes in and about the church are remarkable, and at least some of the cures effected are little short of miraculous. It was discovered today that Adolph Hepp, Father Mollinger's amanuensis and interpreter, together with his brothers, Frank and John, and Jacob Hook, have for several days been extorting fees from the afflicted, representing that they had great influence with the priest. One of the Hepp brothers said that by this plan they secured several hundred dollars a week. Father Mollinger makes no charge whatever for his services. His attention has been directed to the scandal caused by the actions of these young men, and it will be stopped and the participants made to suffer. It is stated this evening that Father Mollinger has been summoned to Rome by the pope. He leaves on Monday next. The purpose of the special call is not known, but the knowledge of his going has created consternation among his patients.

RUSHING IT IN.
English Manufacturers of Tinplate Making an Effort to Get Ahead of the New Tariff.
London, June 11.—The tinplate industry in England is in a state of feverish activity over the approach of July 1, the date on which the duty on the importation of this commodity into the United States under the provisions of the new tariff law will go into effect. Shipments from Swansea, Bristol and Liverpool for the United States have never before been so extensive as during the past fortnight, and they have been further accelerated this week. Some cargoes aggregated over 3000 tons of the metal, and one cargo was more than 4000 tons. The stock of tinplate in England has become much reduced and is expected to be well nigh exhausted in another week. The exports for the current year to the United States up to May 1, are valued at $2,947,538, against $2,326,667 for the same period in 1890, and about $2,600,000 in 1889. The resolutions passed by the tin-plate manufacturers of Wales to close work after July 1 will certainly be carried, notwithstanding that contracts for delivery during July and August were taken last week at the very good price of £13 6s per box for Bessemer plate. Quotations for immediate delivery for the same plate were from £14 6s to £15 2s.

AN OLD PIONEER GONE.
Mrs. Mary Booth Attempts to Kill Samuel Booth Over a Trivial Matter.
Cassville, Or., June 11.—Mrs. Mary Booth wife of Winfield Booth, living twelve miles south of here, yesterday fatally shot Samuel L. Booth, an old pioneer, aged 75. The trouble originated in a woman burning a heap of firewood that Booth had collected. They had some words about the matter, when Mrs. Booth drew a gun on the old man. He took refuge behind a door, through which the woman fired. The shot entered the left shoulder, coming out in front, and was pronounced fatal by a physician. A deputy sheriff has left for the scene.

Kansas Eight-Hour Law.
Topeka, Kan., June 11.—The law passed by the recent legislature, providing eight hours shall be a day's work for all employees of the state, will necessitate the closing of all state institutions unless special arrangements are made, as under the eight-hour rule it will be necessary largely to increase the employes, and the legislature made no such provision.
