LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. J. P. Blake, of Vancouver, B. C. is visiting Mrs. Wm. Endersby, of Eight Mile. J. W. Hays of Grass Valley paid the CHRONICLE a pleasant visit Saturday last. Robt. Kelly, Emerson Williams, Leon Rondeau and wife, Ob. Russel, Murdoch K. McLeod, and Walter Clarke of Kingsley, were in town today. The druggists, doctors, Knights of Pythias and Masons have held meetings in Portland during the week and next week the pioneers will hold theirs. Mr. A. J. Anderson, of Chenoweth, brought the first lot of string beans and raspberries we have seen into the city this morning. From the Goldendale Courier we learn that the two companies of the Washington National Guards of Goldendale have voted to come to The Dalles on the Fourth. The East Oregonian gives a list of no less than sixteen new irrigation companies that have been formed in Umatilla county since the passage of the Riley bill. Rev. C. A. Huntington will occupy the pulpit at the Congregational church tomorrow morning. In the evening the Children's Day exercises will take the place of the regular service. J. B. Manley, of Wapinitia, Geo. Peterson, of Peggs, and J. E. Wing, of Tygh Valley, also Joseph Morsesey, of Grass Valley, and R. H. Wallace, of Rufus, are in the city. Married by Justice Dougherty at his office this morning Walter E. Clark to Lucinda Russel, both of Kingsley. The young couple have the best wishes of the editor of the CHRONICLE. Mrs. E. M. Wilson accompanied by her son Fred who has just graduated from the Whitman College at Walla Walla, returned from that city last night. The young gentleman came out of the college with high honors. We saw at Mr. L. Butler's today the first lot of string beans and raspberries of the season, which were grown by Mr. A. J. Anderson of Chenoweth. The Dalles is ahead yet in these products as well as all others. Mr. W. J. Roberts has just returned home from Boston, Mass., where he has put in three years in the school of Technology. Mr Roberts graduated at the head of the class of 1890, on which we congratulate him. The annual meeting of the State Teachers' association will commence its session at Eugene on the 30th and last over four days. Professor W. W. Smith of this city will read a paper on "The Sanitary Condition of our School Rooms." The editor of the CHRONICLE acknowledges the honor of an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the State Agricultural College to be held at Corvallis, June twenty-first to twenty-fourth. The Rev. J. A. Orchard informs us that the Advent Christians commenced last night a general annual conference and camp meeting, in a large tent at the head of Union street near the new reservoir. The meeting will hold over two Sundays, and a cordial invitation is extended to the public and to the Christians of other denominations. Services are held daily at 11 a. m. and 2.30 and 8 p. m. Our neighbor of the Sun found room this week to publish Rev. W. C. Curtis' remarks last Sunday at the funeral of the late Judge Bird. The CHRONICLE would have done the same had not its columns been overcrowded. The address has attracted much favorable comment. It is dawning upon the good people of The Dalles that in Rev. Mr. Curtis they have a minister of more than average attainments and ability. His sermons are bringing out many thinkers to listen to them. They are always full of thought and research and if printed—as they deserve to be—would attract so much attention to himself that the modest little pastor of the First Congregational church of The Dalles would be called to the pulpits of churches that pay salaries much higher than that which he now receives. Gradually Mr. Curtis' ability is becoming known and appreciated, and people who desire to hear sermons which would be listened to with pleasure if delivered in Chicago, New York or Boston, are dropping in from Sunday to Sunday to listen to him, and his congregations are steadily growing in numbers. The Congregational church has never been in so prosperous a condition as now and it is the ability of its pastor that has brought it about.

We Have the President.

The first annual convention of the Oregon Pharmaceutical association was held at Portland this week, beginning on the 11th. The convention was largely attended by druggists from all over Oregon. The members present recognized the abilities of our townsman, Mr. George C. Blakely, by electing that gentleman president of the association for the ensuing year. This is a handsome compliment to a deserving gentleman who is a credit to his profession and is always in the front rank of matters pertaining to drugs and medicines. That he made an excellent presiding officer is vouched for by the Portland papers, which speak highly of him. On Thursday evening the association gave a banquet at Arion hall, with President George C. Blakely as master of ceremonies, at which about one hundred gentlemen were present. The Evening Telegram speaks highly of Mr. Blakely's address of welcome on that occasion. We congratulate the Pharmaceutical association on its auspicious beginning and predict that the coming year, under the management of President Blakely, the association will become well established and started on the road toward a career of usefulness and prosperity. The Fossil Railroad Incorporated. Articles of incorporation of The Dalles, Dufur, and Silkstone Railroad Co. were filed this afternoon. The incorporators were R. H. Norton, T. A. Hudson, T. H. Johnston, Geo. A. Liebe, and E. B. Dufur. The capital stock is $100,000, the whole of which has been subscribed by the above named gentlemen and Leo W. Young, of Newburg, Oregon, capitalist, and Henry Bond, of Barrow-in-Froniers-England, coal-operator. There will be a meeting on Tuesday to elect officers and surveyors will be in the field again within ten days. Further developments in the immediate future. The above was handed us as we go to press. Our readers will understand it as the road from this city to the Fossil coal fields, via Dufur and Tygh Valley. Success to the new railroad! Drive Whist-Party. Mrs. Judd Fish gave a very pleasant drive whist party Thursday afternoon. The first prize was won by Mrs. T. Hudson and the booby by Mrs. H. Gehres. Those present were Mesdames C. N. Thornbury, N. B. Sinnott, J. B. Crossen, O. Kinersly, A. Magoon of Portland, L. E. Crowe, Fred Bardou, John Dexter, Fred Houghton, V. H. Brown of Spokane, A. Gehres, D. L. Bates, George Morgan, G. H. Wells of Portland, A. M. McLeod, H. Wilson, H. M. Beall, Chas. Hilton, Dr. Hollister. Advent Christian Camp-Meeting. The Adventists, (not seventh day) will hold their annual meeting in The Dalles this year. Their tents are pitched in the pines near the new city reservoir at the head of Union street. There will be preaching at the tent tonight at 8 p. m.; on Sunday at 11 a. m., 2:30 and 8 p. m., and at the same hours each day during the coming week, except Tuesday. The public are cordially invited to attend these meetings. Marshal Gibbons last night arrested Emil Hart, who is well known in this city as a thoroughly bad boy and who is no stranger to the clutches of the law. On the third inst. Hart broke into the room of Mike Heron at the Jackson House and stole therefrom a pocket book containing $5 in currency and a jack-knife. The knife was found on his person and the city has the prospect of being deprived of Mr. Hart's society for some time. As we go to press Hart is being examined before Justice Schutz. A very pleasant communication addressed to the editor of this journal, was laid on the table of our sanctum this morning, by the hand of Mr. C. L. Phillips. If its contents were not exactly suited to the pages of the CHRONICLE they were admirably adapted to the editor's stomach. It was a large envelope, full of delicious raspberries. Communications of a similar character are practically welcome at this office. They are right up our line. Messrs. Ed Riggs, J. P. FitzGerald, Ed. Williams, L. D. Ainsworth and James Wilson will start on a bicycle tour to Goldendale to-morrow morning. Messrs. FitzGerald and Biggs will go all the way by bicycle, the others will take a team to the top of the hill. There is some doubt among them as to whether the boys essaying to go all the way by bicycle will reach Goldendale or not. Remember the public primary tonight in the circuit court room of the county court house. Let every man who is interested in the good government of the city make it his duty to be there. Don't stay at home and afterwards growl that the meeting was stuffed. Let it be thoroughly representative of the best element of the city's population. A ball will be given at the Hendrix hall near Dufur on the night of July 3d. That date was agreed on so as not to interfere with the celebration at The Dalles. From Mr. Willis Hendrix, of Dufur, we learn that the rain on the Tygh Ridge yesterday wet down three inches in the solid road and filled up the rocky hollows of the road level; with mud.

REVIEW OF THE LOCAL MARKET

MERCHANDISE. The damp, cool weather of the past week has had a stimulating effect on all branches of business and our merchants feel quite satisfied over their footing. The stocks of merchandise on hand are complete in everything. In the dry goods line there is no change in prices and but few in styles. In the grocery and hardware trades there is no material change in prices to report. Sugars are still held firm although a decline is talked of which has no foundation for an immediate change. Coffee remains firm and will continue so for the season. In the produce market there is an abundance of strawberries, cherries, gooseberries, and currants. New potatoes are coming in freely and are taking the place of old, and selling at from three to four cents per pound. All other kinds of garden vegetables are plentiful at low rates. About the only thing that the market seems to be short of, is eggs, they find a ready sale at 18 to 20 cents per dozen, with an upward tendency. THE SALMON CATCH. The salmon catch is of too limited a character to report our dealers as being perfectly satisfied with the receipts. What are caught are of a larger size than usual; prices remain unchanged. WOOL SITUATION. The wool dead lock which has prevailed between the sellers and buyers has not materially changed since the report of a week ago. The holders seem immovable in their ideas and the buyers are equally as steadfast in their opinions. A gentleman who seems to comprehend the situation is of the opinion the back-bone will be broken in a few days as there are several new buyers in the field who are not influenced by a few inside sharpers who are endeavoring to control the market. Unless there is a yielding on the part of each, a determination is manifest to ship to other markets. Already the Wasco warehouse shipped during the past week 1000 bales and are expecting orders for other shipments. There has been a few sales made by some sellers on account of obligations, at prices ranging from 13 to 17 1/2 cents. The unsatisfactory condition of the wool market, brought about by the general disposition of wool growers throughout the wool districts, to hold for better prices has had a demoralizing effect on trade in local centers, and concessions will be urged by those who have made advances. As the outlook for a realization of expectations is not warrantable as the reports from abroad and the eastern markets indicate a decline of 5 to 7 1/2 per cent. on the better grades, and a heavier decline on unwashed and heavy wools. Prices are not notably lower, but manufactures claim that their wants are measurably supplied. The receipts in this city have been as large for the week past as formerly, and as great as for the same period last year. STAPLE GROCERIES.
