MCKINLEY NOMINATED.

The Columbus Convention Nominates McKinley for Governor Amid the Wildest Enthusiasm.

Slavin Makes Kilrain Weary in Nine Rounds—Parnell to Pay $3,500 as Costs in the Divorce Suit.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 17.—The second day of the republican state convention opened with prayer, after which the report of the committee on credentials was presented and adopted. The committee on permanent organization reported the name of General Bushnell for permanent chairman. The convention nomination was then declared in order and ex-Governor Foraker rose to present the name of William McKinley for governor.

When he appeared the delegates fairly went wild with enthusiasm. He said: "In part this contest upon which we are about to enter is in some respects of unusual character. The contest involves more than the governorship of Ohio. It reaches into the national politics of the United States. A senator will depend upon its result. It will also determine whether Ohio is to go into the great national contest of 1892 at the head of republican or democratic column. (Applause.) We are proud of that conservative, patriotic man, General Harrison, who sits in the white house. (Applause) We are proud too of that brilliant, magnetic statesman who has taught law to Europe with respect to America, James G. Blaine." (Prolonged cheers with hat tossing and fan waving for over a minute.)

Foraker moved that the rules be suspended and McKinley be nominated by acclamation. The motion prevailed unanimously amid the wildest cheering and waving of hats. McKinley was then presented to the convention as the next governor of Ohio. McKinley made a stirring speech thanking the convention for the honor of the nomination. Senator Sherman was then called for and spoke in eulogy of the republican party and the McKinley bill.

The committee on resolutions then reported the platform which was adopted. Andrew L. Harris of Preble county, was nominated for lieutenant governor on the first ballot.

WILL OREGON BE THERE?
A Meeting Held to Devise Means for State Representation.
 PORTLAND, June 17.—About fifteen delegates from different counties of the state met at the chamber of commerce this morning to discuss the proposition to raise money for the purpose of collecting an exhibit of Oregon products to be sent to the world's fair at Chicago in 1893. Only six of the interior counties were represented, a majority of delegates being from Multnomah county. After discussing the matter for two hours, it was finally referred to the state board of commerce which was given power to devise means of raising the money.

Prisoners Killed by Escaping Gas.
 NEW YORK, June 17.—At Yonkers this morning all the prisoners in the cells at police headquarters were found unconscious. Gas had escaped during the night from a broken pipe and had overcome the prisoners. One of them recovered and escaped during the excitement. At least three will die.

The relief committee telegraphed to Governor Abbott and the quartermaster general asking them to loan the state tents for temporary shelter of the sufferers. Eugene Kelly, a stable man was arrested on the charge of starting the fire. The people threaten to lynch him.

AFTERMATH OF THE TRIAL.
 Lord Brooke Thoroughly Disgusted With His Wife's Behavior.

LONDON, June 15.—Everybody is talking of Lord and Lady Brooke. All gossip aside, the relations between the pair have been little more than formal for several months past, and they have not usually answered the invitations of royalty together. It is rumored that Lord Brooke has in his possession letters fully as interesting as those in the Marston case, written by the Prince of Wales and which calls for some clear definition between platonic affection and the seventh commandment. Lady Brooke has lately shown a desire to win back her husband, who will, in all probability, soon be the Earl of Warwick, and but for the bacchanal scandal she might have succeeded. That missed she at the usual run of the public. Centenary to the usual run of new inventions, the manufacturers have placed it on the market at a very reasonable figure—$22—the result being that the Edison Company has been unable to meet the demand for them.

Will Retain Her Fortune.
 Lady Cumming Does Not Share the Fate of Many American Girls.

LONDON, June 15.—A friend of Sir William Gordon Cumming has written to the United Press correspondent, saying that to remove possible misapprehension it was desirable to state that Sir William is entirely independent of any fortune his wife may bring him, and he is able to meet the cost of the recent trial without serious impairment of his estate. That Lady Cumming has not married a chateau en Espagne, and will, as customary among Americans and Britons retain entire control of her property, that Sir William's proposed visit to America will not be in connection with getting a portion of his wife's estate under his control, as he is under no such necessity, and that in the opinion of the writer, the loss of the society of the Prince of Wales will be amply repaid to Sir William by increased ability to live within his means.

Barrister First and Then Victoria.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—An interesting incident occurred on the steamer City of Rio de Janeiro during her last voyage from Hong Kong and Yokohama. Captain Ward of the steamer, and all the officers and crew, except Chinese sailors and firemen, are Americans. In addition to these there were twenty-four American passengers on board. The first Sunday out at divine services the captain's assistant read prayers, and when the blessing was invoked Queen Victoria's name was mentioned before that of the president of the United States. The American passengers, among who was Mrs. Dexter, sister of Secretary Blaine, were indignant at this and a number of them remonstrated with the captain for the proceeding. Captain Ward told them that he was the bishop of the ship and could have prayers read anyway he liked. Upon hearing this they threatened to make complaint against Ward on the arrival of the steamer at San Francisco. He immediately took water and the following Sunday Queen Victoria was left out of the invocation altogether.

Parnellite Lawye Tries Again.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Counselor Laine O'Neill, who within the last few days succeeded, on a petition to the New York supreme court, in behalf of the Parnellites, in temporarily restraining Eugene Kelly, a well-known banker, from sending any more of the $48,000 of the Irish funds in his name to the McCarthyites, is trying daunt by the temporary setback of Judge Bartlett's decision, with practical vacated the restraint. Lawyer O'Neill has this time secured a second motion upon which to rely now and a very interesting legal battle is confidently looked forward to as the combatants are now engaged on the quarters.

The Flying Machine Flies.

BURLINGTON, Ia., June 15.—The Burlington Air Ship company, with a capital of $10,000,000, with $1,000,000 paid, was organized and the papers of incorporation taken out in this city Saturday. This organization is the outcome of a ten day's conference between J. Pennington, the inventor of Pennington's air ship, and a number of Burlington capitalists. The proposition of the incorporators is to at once remove the business and construction plant from Mount Carmel and St. Louis to Burlington. The ship will carry forty passengers, and will attempt to fly from Burlington to New York. The incorporators are all reliable Burlington capitalists who seem to mean business. The expected initial flight will take place July 4th.

PLOTTING FOR HER OWN DEATH.

Fellow Passengers Overhear the Conversation and Report it to the Police.
 LONDON, June 15.—The Worthington magistracy has just dealt with a case which is believed to be without a precedent. Three ladies traveling in a pleasure coach overheard two other ladies discussing an unhappy love affair, in which one of them, Edith Spiller, had been engaged, and listened to an agreement which was finally made, that the despondent girl should commit suicide. The laudanum for the purpose was to be purchased by her confidant, whose name is Rose Bramer. The three listeners followed and watched the movements of the two friends and saw them purchase the laudanum. They then called the police and told what they had seen and heard. Miss Bramer and Miss Spiller were arrested and charged with conspiring to feloniously poison Edith Spiller. After a hearing the magistrate committed the prisoners for trial. Both the young women are of families very high in the social circles of Sussex county, and the case has excited a good deal of interest.

The Political Situation in Canada.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 15.—The political situation is still very mixed. Mr. Abbott said tonight that nothing had been done. A rumor is current outside however, that the old ministry will be practically retained to enable the government to pull through the session. It is understood Sir Hector Langevin and Sir Adolph Caron may resign after the session.

The Edison Electrical Fan.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Edison's latest production, an electrical fan for office ventilation, like all of Edison's inventions, has taken well with the general public. Contrary to the usual run of new inventions, the manufacturers have placed it on the market at a very reasonable figure—$22—the result being that the Edison Company has been unable to meet the demand for them.

Hottest Day of the Season.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Today is the hottest of the season. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer registered 97 3/4. Reports from many points in New England, where the thermometer ranged from 82 to 107, the latter point being reached at Providence, R. I. Vegetation is badly scorched in Connecticut. Reports from all parts of New York state indicate intense heat.

Council Did not Have the Power.

CHICAGO, June 15.—Last year the city council passed an ordinance requiring the street railway companies to heat the cars in cold weather. A test case was brought, which Judge McConnell decided today. He holds the ordinance is invalid on the ground that the council was not clothed with power to impose such a burden.

An Outrage.

THE DALLES, OR., June 17, 1891.
 EDITOR CHRONICLE—I ask space in your column to call attention to an inconvenience and what I consider an outrage that is being perpetrated on the traveling public by the officers on the passenger trains, in locking the doors of the coaches on the south side of the train as soon as they arrive in this city, in order to compel the passengers to get off on the north side. A passenger getting off here has to go around the train unless he wants to stop at the hotel on the north side, or else he has to remain till the train moves out of the way. A person wanting anything outside of hotel fare must do the same. This is of course a dangerous and inconvenient proceeding and may result disastrously to somebody in the near future. I don't think it possible that such things are done with the knowledge of the chief officers of the company and do not believe they would tolerate them if they knew the facts. I therefore make this public statement in order that the evil may be remedied.
 E. G. SPAHR.
