Should be Sentenced at Once.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—John Bardsley, ex-city treasurer, who several days ago pleaded guilty to embezzlement of public funds, was brought to the court for sentence today, but on motion of the district attorney sentence was suspended indefinitely.

The district attorney opened proceedings by stating that he wished to call some witnesses from whom the court could get information on which to pass sentence. An expert accountant testified that Bardsley in his two and a half years incumbency in office as city treasurer received $200,000 interest on public money; that Bardsley used $500,000 in speculation and had loaned $600,000 to one banking firm and $200,000 to another.

Bardsley also sold and converted to his own use $57,000 worth of government bonds which he held for the city; but this money was subsequently returned. The expert found that Bardsley's stock operations had cost him in the neighborhood of $100,000.

FROM THE CATTLE RANGES. Reports Received From the Grazing Districts of Montana Are Most Encouraging.

HELENA, MONT., June 21.—Secretary Pruitt, of the State Live Stock Association, has received reports from all of the grazing districts in this state. These reports are to the effect that the grass crop is much larger this year than it has been since 1886.

Taking advantage of this fact the cattlemen have bought thousands of Texas 2-year-olds and are driving them to the eastern counties of Montana. A large proportion of these purchases are now on the trails in Colorado, wending their way northward.

The cattle wintered unusually well in this state, and the calf crop has been very large. The weather has been so favorable that a high percentage of the youngsters were saved.

Cattlemen estimate that 200,000 head will be sent to the market from this state in the fall. The sheepmen are equally happy and the lamb crop is very large. Shearing has been in progress for about ten days. The fleeces are heavier than usual, and the wool is cleaner and of excellent grade.

WHAT WILL RUSSIA DO. Should France and Germany Again Go to War?

PARIS, June 21.—Comte De Montebello, who replaces De la Boulaye as French ambassador at St. Petersburg, will be specially charged to obtain definite information from the czar as to the action of Russia in the event of war between France and Germany.

Ribet, minister of foreign affairs, has charged that De la Boulaye's failure to get proposals for the alliance arose at the czar's anger at the fact that the overture was first submitted to DeGiers, the Russian minister of foreign affairs instead of him.

The czar ordered DeGiers to ignore the proposals for negotiations, and took the first occasion to snub De la Boulaye, who felt compelled to ask Ribet to relieve him from his duties.

The withdrawal of Baron Mohrenheim, the Russian ambassador at Paris, is imminent, as De la Boulaye acted on his advice. During the visit of the French squadron to Cronstadt, the czar will be personally approached on the subject of united action against the dreadnaught, which is rendered all the more necessary through the menacing of the commercial coalition between the countries parties to the same.

COULD SEE NO MORE CALLERS. Ex-Senator McDonald's Happy Death in Indianapolis Last Night.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 21.—Ex-Senator McDonald died at 11:35 tonight. This morning unfavorable symptoms reappeared and during the day the patient's condition continued to grow worse.

This afternoon Rev. Mr. Milburn was sent for and administered the sacrament. Then Mr. McDonald called his family and intimate friends about him and calmly gave directions for his funeral and the disposition of his personal affairs.

In the presence of all he said he wished to give testimony to his faith in God's saving grace. Then he grasped each by the hand and bade them goodbye, saying he could see no more callers.

Joseph Ewing McDonald was born in Butler county, Ohio, August 29, 1819. He was educated at Washburn college and Ashbury university. After leaving college he studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1844.

In 1845 he established himself at Crawfordsville, Ind. He was elected to congress as a democrat in 1849, and served in 1849-51. He was defeated in the next canvass. In 1856 he was elected attorney general and in 1864 was defeated by Oliver P. Morton for governor. He was elected United States senator in 1875, and served until 1881.

A Constable Holds Up a Train. PUEBLO, Colo., June 21.—A constable of the town of Eads in Kiowa county, held up the Missouri Pacific express for three hours last night.

The salary of an employe of the road had been withheld by a citizen of Eads, but the constable had neglected to seize, and the train was placed in the hands of the constable. When the express stopped at Eads last night the constable boarded the engine and served papers attaching the same. Nearly three hours were spent in telegraphing the superintendent of the road, who finally ordered the payment of the money. A postal inspector was on the delayed train and it is likely a suit will be brought against the constable for intercepting the mails.

THE CRIME CALENDAR.

Brutal Outrage to a Thirteen-Year-Old Minnesota Girl. DELANO, Minn., June 21.—The body of Annie Brunder, aged thirteen, was found a few rods from the railroad track between Montrose and Waverly last night.

She lived about a quarter of a mile from Montrose. She had been to school and was returning home Thursday evening when she was assaulted. Her parents, supposing that she had passed the night with friends, were not anxious about her until Friday evening, when they became alarmed and at once instituted a search.

When found, her hands were tied behind her, her feet tied together, and her apron tied tightly around her face. Suspicion points strongly toward John Masoue, a thirteen-year-old boy of Montrose, and if it is confirmed, he will probably never be tried by a jury.

American Prunes. NEW YORK, June 21.—E. Goodsell, a wholesale importer of California products said today:

"America will henceforth produce her own prunes, and French and Turkish growers will have to take a back seat. The annual consumption of this fruit in this country is about 100,000,000 pounds. Last year California produced about 17,000,000 pounds. Prunes can be raised in California for about 3 cents a pound and sold at a profit at 4 cents.

Turkey, in my opinion, could not probably produce them at 2 cents, which would be necessary in view of the tariff of 2 cents per pound. To this cost of transportation must be added. Moreover, the soil in Turkey and France is greatly exhausted, prunes having been raised there for over a century, while in California the trees have not been planted for more than twenty years.

Will Make a Bid for the Fight. SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—The directors of the California athletic club will hold a regular meeting tomorrow night, and an effort will be made to get a decisive answer from John L. Sullivan as to his intentions regarding Slavin.

If Sullivan says he will fight Slavin, the directors will undoubtedly make a bid for the battle to be fought in the California club, and will offer a purse sufficient to tempt even the champion.

It is Practically a Strike. CHICAGO, Ill., June 21.—Molders' Union, No. 209, held a meeting last night and decided that they would aid the architectural iron workers in their strike, by refusing to do any molding in the architectural line in the foundries.

This order goes into effect tomorrow, and practically orders a strike of 2000 members of the city who are engaged in that class of work.

The Chinese Highbinders. SAN JOSE, June 21.—The Chinese highbinders indulged in a riot in Chinatown early this morning. Ah Goon was shot and fatally wounded, and Ah Hai wounded in the foot.

Goon says several Chinese merchants hired the highbinders to kill him, and five attacked him with pistols. Two of the Chinese have been arrested and identified as some of the men who did the shooting.

Mrs. Croly and Her Work. Mrs. Croly, whose pen name is Jennie June, has long been a favorite with the reading public, is the president of the Women's Press club and the founder of it, for it was her call to the press women of New York that resulted in the organization of the present club.

Soros is also owes its birth to Mrs. Croly, in whose house it was organized, and she has written a history of it. At present Mrs. Croly is the editor of The Home Maker, into which the Women's Cycle, that was started by her a few years ago, has been merged, retaining, however, the name of Cycle department.

To this magazine Mrs. Croly now devotes the greater part of her time, but goes about to various cities and towns in the United States, whenever she is called upon, to speak of club life before women's clubs.

No woman perhaps has had more experience than she has had in this respect, and her love for all women and her interest in everything pertaining to them render her peculiarly well fitted for this work.

She does not sympathize with the universal suffrage movement for women, nor does she approve of it for men, but she thinks that certain classes of women should have a voice in the making of the laws, and she believes that the time will come when they will have it.

A thoroughly womanly woman, Mrs. Croly's slight figure and unwrinkled face make her look almost too young to be the mother of grown up children. She lives in a dainty flat uptown that is filled with books, pictures and bric-a-brac, making it the ideal literary woman's home.

Her Sunday evening receptions are crowded with bright men and women, and the young aspirant for journalistic and literary honors is always cordially welcomed by the genial hostess.—New York World.

A Queer Whim. An English nobleman a good many years ago took it into his head to live for several weeks on Mount Etna in the refuge 1,000 feet or so below the crater.

This worthy, but slightly cracked, gentleman endured his hard fare of biscuits and tinned meats well enough for a fortnight at a time. Every fifteenth day, however, he rode down the mountain to the nearest village, some twenty miles away, and revelled in all the savory dishes the innkeeper could put before him; after which business he returned to his mountain perch, hired "chickens" to "compare privation" with the "Year Round" and so forth.
