THE IOWA DEMOCRATS.

They Hold a Convention and Declare Against Prohibition and Hedge on the Silver Question.

A Terrible Wind and Rain Storm in Illinois--Parnell to Wed Kitty-- A Monument to Beecher.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, June 24.—The democratic state convention assembled here this morning at 10 o'clock. The coming campaign will be decisive because it is conceded by both political parties that as Iowa goes in the next election so it will probably go in the presidential election of 1892.

Walter H. Butler, was chosen temporary chairman and made an eloquent address in which he eulogized Governor Boies. He said the work of the democratic party in Iowa will not be fully done until the prohibition force is swept from the code.

The platform leads off by endorsing Governor Boies and his administration. The anti-prohibition plank platform of 1890 is re-affirmed, and the party pledged to legislative enactment of the Australian ballot or ballot reform system. The McKinley tariff law is denounced and the principle of tariff for revenue only re-endorsed.

Upon the silver question there was a long dispute, but the committee finally decided to recede from the platform of a year ago and merely favor free coinage of silver upon a just relation, making it a full legal tender for all debts public and private.

INDIAN WAR CLAIMS.

Attorney-General Miller Says Claims of 1855 and 1856 Are Barred.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Attorney-General Miller has given his opinion that all claims for horses and other property lost in suppressing Indian hostilities in Oregon and Washington in 1855 and 1856, filed since June 30th, 1874, are barred under the provision act of March 3, 1873. $124,476,000 has been paid to survivors of the war of 1812, the Mexican war, and the war of the revolution.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Senator Squires, of Washington, has been summoned to the capitol and it is stated he has been tendered the position of minister to China. Senator Squires' friends say he will not give up his place in the senate for any foreign mission, but if the president wants him to recommend a good man, he will do so.

Towns were considerably damaged. Four persons were drowned at Cherokee and four at Correctionville. The railway depot at Calumet was blown down and much damage to town property was reported. Sutherland in Obrien county, a small station on the Northwestern railway five miles from Calumet is reported wiped out; over forty buildings were blown down. The wires are all down and it is impossible to obtain any accurate information except through the reports transmitted to the railroad officials and they (the reports, not the officials) are not always reliable.

Agents Not Arbitrators.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The department of state has been notified of the appointment by the British government of Sir George Baden Powell and Mr. Dawson as agents to visit Alaska and collect information respecting the seal fisheries. The statement coming from London that these men had been appointed arbiters is erroneous. The negotiations looking to the arbitration of the claims made by the United States, has not yet progressed to a point that would permit the appointment of arbiters, and in fact the nature of the arbitration itself has not yet been agreed upon. It may be that Powell and Dawson will hereafter serve as representatives of the British government upon the expert commission, which the two nations are bound to send to Alaska, but it is altogether improbable that they will be appointed arbiters, as their previous duties might be supposed to unfit them to act judicially in the matter where they formerly acted as partisan experts.

NO SIGN OF A STRAIN.

The Queen and the Prince of Wales Present at the Marriage Yesterday.

LONDON, June 22.—Today not only the Queen and Princess of Wales, but also Queen Victoria herself and the Duke and Duchess of Connaught were present at the marriage, in the Wellington barracks church, of Colonel William E. Montgomery, of the Scots guards, to Miss Alberta Ponsonby, daughter of General Sir Henry Frederick Ponsonby, keeper of the privy purse and private secretary to her majesty. The queen has the highest regard for Sir Henry and Lady Ponsonby, and took this way to testify her esteem. If there is any strain between her majesty and the Prince of Wales, it was not apparent on this occasion. On the contrary, the queen looked particularly happy and cordial, as if desirous to make all around her feel happy. Her majesty has also invested Mrs. Grimwood, with her own hands, with the order of the Red Cross for heroism at Manipur, where Mr. Grimwood was murdered.

Serious Trouble Threatened.

LOS ANGELES, June 22.—The assistant adjutant general today received the following dispatch from Lieutenant Brett, commanding the detachment in Kearns' canyon, Arizona, dated Arriba Village: "Came to Arriba to arrest several Arriba who had destroyed surveyors' marks and threatened to destroy the schools. When we entered the village we were confronted by about fifty hostiles, armed and stationed behind a barricade. They openly declared hostility to the government and a fight was barely averted. A strong force should be sent here with Hotchkiss guns, as I anticipate serious trouble if the hostiles are not summarily dealt with."

Intended for Grasshoppers.

RED BLUFF, Cal., June 22.—In the cow-poisoning case today, Dr. West is testing the contents of the stomach of a bull poisoned for arsenic. He is also testing the corn for Paris Green and arsenic poison. Many theories are advanced to explain the poisoning, but the impression of many is that the cows got accidentally among some poison put out to kill grasshoppers.

TEMPTING THE SEA.

A Couple of Venturesome Mariners Start on a Perilous Ocean Voyage.

BOSTON, June 22.—Many people went down to Crescent beach yesterday and saw Captain Lawler in the little cockle-shell Sea Serpent, and Captain Andrews in the other little cockleshell Natilla, start on their ocean race. The race was postponed from last Sunday because there were not enough people to witness the start. The boats were sent off from the main pier at 3 o'clock p. m. in the teeth of a strong easterly gale. They beat out of the bay, and by dark were well on their way to Land's End, the terminus of their perilous ocean race. The boats are fifteen feet long, and will have only their respective captain aboard. Of course each one looks for a victory. Captain Lawler has just completed the Sea Serpent. He has fitted her with everything to make his trip as comfortable as possible. He expects to make the trip in sixty days. There was considerable betting on the result of the race at the pier as the boats started. The general impression is that Andrew will win. He made a similar voyage a couple of years ago.

CHANGED THEIR MINDS.

Later advices state that Captain Lawler and Andrew returned to Crescent beach on account of heavy weather. They will make the trip later on.

IN HIS BROTHER'S FOOTSTEPS.

The Youngest Son of the Late Commodore Kittson Marries a Variety Actress.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 22.—The experience of Hercules Kittson, one of the elder sons of the millionaire, Commodore Kittson, in New York, is liable to be duplicated by that of the youngest member of the family. Alfred L. Kittson is the 18-year-old son, after whose majority the main provisions of the will can be settled. Alfred has been a difficult boy for the guardians to handle, and would not remain in college when sent Saturday, May 23, in company with Paul Lamontagne and two chorus girls, he was on a spree in the city, and in the evening took the train for Hudson, where Kittson was married to the eldest of the girls. Rev. M. H. Smith performed the ceremony. Kittson gave the name of William M. Fulton, and the girl that of Isabel Palmer. The party returned to St. Paul Sunday, and when young Kittson sobered up he repented. To friends he confessed the act and threatened to run away or commit suicide. He immediately left the city, and is now said to be in Helena, Mont., under the name of McIntosh. The girl's whereabouts cannot be ascertained.

An Interview With Wakely.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Jim Wakely, who was asked last night if he had received any word from John L. Sullivan, said that he had not, but expected that the reason was because the big fellow had left Santa Cruz, the place where his message was sent. He said: "I was a trifle angry when I sent the dispatch to Sullivan, but when I want a positive understanding, Sullivan can whip Slavin to a dead moral certainty, and it has come to a stage now when he must fight him or go back on his word. I am so confident that John is willing to fight Slavin that I will bet $1000 to $10 on it. I know Sullivan's courage too well to believe that such a thing as flunking out of a match at any stage of the game ever entered his head. Now that Slavin has sailed, I suppose we will have to wait until September to make the match, but that is time enough."

A VERDICT RENDERED.

It Was Turner Who Killed Barbara Waterhouse.

LEEDS, June 22.—The inquest into the murder of the little 5-year-old girl, Barbara Waterhouse whose mutilated body was found wrapped in a bundle near the town hall some time ago, has resulted in a verdict of death at the hands of Turner, the young workman who has been in custody on suspicion of having committed the crime. Mrs. Turner, the prisoner's mother, is found to have been an accessory to the fact, made known to her in concealing the crime and shielding her son as much as possible. There are many who believe at the trial it will be developed that Mrs. Turner knows more about the motive for the murder and the method of its commission than she has admitted.

SULLIVAN AND SLAVIN.

The Australian's Representative Fails to Cover the Champion's Deposit.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Representatives of Sullivan met today at the office of the Illustrated News, to see if the $1000 deposited by him would be covered by a representative of Slavin. They waited an hour without any result.

The 1000er Papers of Oregon.

East Portland Express. Allusions to the Oregon City Enterprize in Saturday's Express caused some comment as to what was the first paper printed on this coast. A gentleman in Washington county claims that the first was Father Griffin's Unionist. Reference to the files establish the fact that the Unionist was not started until 1848. The Oregon City Spectator came to light February 6th, 1846.

The Spectator lived several years. The Unionist lasted but a few months. Mr. Griffin has the complete file of his paper at his home, near Hillsboro, and the old Franklin press upon which it was printed, and the last page of the last form, just as the printer left it, for the gold mine excitement in California, are in the keeping of the state, at Salem. The Oregonian will celebrate its fortieth anniversary this year, by moving into one of the finest buildings on the coast.
