The Daily

Four pages of six columns each, will be issued every evening, except Sunday, and will be delivered in the city, or sent by mail for the moderate sum of fifty cents a month.

Its Objects

Will be to advertise the essentials of the city, and adjacent country, to assist in developing our industries, in extending and opening up new channels for our trade, in securing an open river, and in helping THE DALLIES to take her proper position as the Leading City of Eastern Oregon.

The paper, both daily and weekly, will be independent in politics, and in its criticism of political matters, as in its handling of local affairs, it will be

Just, Fair and Impartial

We will endeavor to give all the local news, and we ask that your criticism of our object and course, be formed from the contents of the paper, and not from rash assertions of outside parties.

The Weekly

sent to any address for $1.50 per year. It will contain from four to six eight column pages, and we shall endeavor to make it the equal of the best. Ask your Postmaster for a copy, or address:

The DALLIES

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving little city.

Its Territory

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and pastoral country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The largest wool market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slopes of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here. The Dallies is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

Its Products

The salmon fisheries are the inset on the Columbia, and last year a revenue of $1,600,000, which will be passed in the hands of local interests.

The Dallies is the largest wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

Its Wealth

It is the richest city of its size on the coast, and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed! Its climate delightful! Its possibilities incalculable! Its resources unlimited! And on these corner stones it stands.
