WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

THE DALLES, June 27, 1891. FAIR. Weather forecast till 12 m. Monday; fair. Slightly warmer.

The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Rev. O. D. Taylor and wife returned from the east where they have been for the past four months.

Messrs. G. V. and Mitchell Bolton took a run down to Portland last night, and will return home tomorrow.

Mr. Enfield Farris, of Wapinitia, and his sister went up the road today to be present at the funeral of Mrs. Farris at Yakima.

Louis Paquet went to Portland last night to hurry up the machinery for the "Regulator." He will be back here tomorrow night.

George Miller has returned from Klickitat. He says that the yield in that valley will exceed that of last year by as much again.

Miss Iva Brooks of The Dalles who has just graduated from the Wasco Independent Academy is visiting at the home of her uncle E. C. Pentland.

Lieutenant Norton lost his 3d regiment saddle blanket today. Any person finding the same will please leave it at A. M. Williams & Co.'s store.

Colonel and Mrs. Sinnott are expecting their son, Roger B., home within a few days to spend his vacation. He is attending the Sorren hall school at Notre Dame, Indiana.

Every member of the Fossil base ball nine is also a member of Co. E, and with one exception the nine will attend the encampment at The Dalles. What is the matter with giving The Dalles boys a game, or any other club represented at the encampment?

Judd Fish loaded a wagon with tinware today for the use of the cooks at the encampment grounds. It looked as if it might take four horses to haul it. Evidently the boys are going to live well while there.

The people of The Dalles purpose having a celebration there on a grand scale on the Fourth of July. Fire works, a sham battle, athletic sports and band music will form the leading attractions. Visitors to The Dalles on that day may expect a treat.—Wasco Observer.

Rev. Jno. W. Scott the father of Mrs. President Harrison is now visiting his son Hon. Jno. N. Scott of Port Townsend, Wash. Mr. Scott is now in his 92d year, having been born in Beaver county Pennsylvania, on the 22d of January, 1800.

Antelope is to have a grand celebration on the 4th of July, which will include: reading of the Declaration of Independence, speaking, vocal and instrumental music, a barbecue, horse races and foot races for prizes, etc. Friday evening there will be a grand ball and banquet. The committee of arrangements consists of A. R. Russell, N. A. Anderson and W. Bolton. The celebration will be a good one, for they never do things by halves over there.—Fossil Journal.

The ladies of the M. E. church of this city will give a Fourth of July dinner at 170 Second street next door to Crandall & Burgetts. It will be genuine home cooking such as the good Methodist sisters know how to do, and while some of it will be French, it will do pretty well for the average American to partake of. Meals will be served at 25 cents.

The Portland Telegram is the authority for the statement that Washington's exhibit to the world's fair will be carried to Chicago free of charge. The Northern Pacific is going to do the work and it is believed that it will be a saving to the state of $20,000 which can be spent on increasing the extent of the exhibit. How much will the Union Pacific do for Oregon in the same line?

The general order of exercises at the encampment will be substantially as follows: Guard mount, 8:30 a. m.; general assembly, 9:45 a. m.; mess call, 12:00 noon; battalion drill, 1:15 p. m.; dress parade, 5:00. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday 3:00 to 5:30 p. m. base ball and athletic sports; Thursday between 3:00 and 5:30 p. m. competitive drill.

Hon. E. B. Dufur has a card in the paper today offering a reward of 50 cents to any person who will impound cattle found on his place between 8 p. m. and 7 a. m. Cattle broke into his grounds last night and destroyed all his roses and did a lot of other damage and patience has ceased to be a virtue with him. There is a lot of breachy cattle around the city that keep breaking into the well kept gardens of our residents and something should be done to stop it. It is rather expensive feeding cows on clover, roses and pansies, and no matter how much fun it may be for cattle, people who have nice yards don't like to furnish that kind of food for milch cows belonging to their neighbors.

Quite a number of tourists are stopping off the trains now.

Mr. and Mrs. Keys and Miss Bessie Paul of Waldron are expected shortly on a visit to this city.

E. H. Peck, M. D., of Cleveland, Ohio, is on a visit to The Dalles, a guest of Rev. O. D. Taylor.

W. Lair Hill has arrived from Seattle and will deliver the eulogy at the late Mr. Atwater's funeral.

Mr. J. S. Wenzler, of La Grande, accompanied by his wife will be down tonight. Mr. W. is one of the military boys and will attend the encampment.

The general public don't take much stock in the excursion trains to be run to the encampment by the U. P. next week. Passengers who are unfortunate enough to go on the trains will find they have a good half mile to walk after they get off the train, and while they are walking they might just as well go afoot from The Dalles. There will be a number of teams belonging to our citizens running between this city and the encampment ground, and they should be patronized in preference to the railroad.

How the Boys Will Come.

Co. E will start in four wagons on Friday morning at 7 o'clock. Capt. Wilcox wrote to Capt. Gaffney proposing that the Fossil boys go as far as Condon Friday and camp there over night, and then start on Saturday morning with the Condon boys, who propose making the trip to Arlington the same day, but Co. E preferred to go as far as practicable the first day, and more evenly divide the two days' journey. They will probably camp at Clem Friday night, and reach Arlington in time to rest there some time before taking Saturday's midnight train for The Dalles. Every man must provide his own rations to Arlington, but we think from a perusal of the orders that the price of the same will be refunded by the state. If not, it is an imposition, and will be denounced as such. Between here and Arlington four meals will be required.

H. Co., 3d Reg. O. N. G. will leave Condon Saturday morning, June 27, and will take the midnight train of that day at Arlington for The Dalles, where they will join their regiment in a six days' camp of instructions.

Jarbeau on Tights.

Miss Jarbeau discoursed interestingly upon tights. "I don't suppose I shall ever again wear 'full' tights—that's what we call out-and-out tights, you know—though I've made some of my best hits in them. When a woman once gets in the way of wearing tights she can't help longing to keep on acting in them. You can't imagine the glorious exhilaration of being in tights, with no skirts to get in one's way to occupy one's mind. But there's one thing I won't do or allow any woman in my company to do, and that is, appear in tights and a décolleté bodice at the same time. * * * Yes, it's true, this I trained those kids in 'Strlight' myself. The secret of keeping them in control on the stage is in feeling them there. Curious fact about kids, isn't it? Oh, I suppose I can do a little of everything. I've supported Mojeska, you know, and played Shakespeare. I have some confidence in my imitative faculties. I can usually catch on to an actress' or singer's style and voice sufficiently to reproduce them, after seeing her two or three times."—Ex.

Congregational Church Service Tomorrow. The pastor Rev. W. C. Curtis will preach at the regular morning service. Sunday School at 12:20. In the evening the pastor will lecture before the young people's society of Christian Endeavor, the subject being "Deliving Wisdom and how he got it."

To the Encampment. Commencing tomorrow and continuing during the encampment, Mr. C. L. Richmond will run his four-horse wagonette to and from the encampment, leaving the Opera restaurant at 7 and 10 a. m., and 2 and 5 p. m. All orders for calls should be left at the restaurant. Fare for the round trip, fifty cents.

HO! THERE!

I will give 50 cents for each cow impounded between the hours of 8 o'clock p. m. and 7:30 o'clock a. m., found at large about my premises. Put them in bags, bring marshal's certificate and get your money. E. B. DUFUR.

"Would Contend for Homer's Birthplace." Robert Mays has been elected mayor of The Dalles. In the early days of Oregon he was a resident of Long Tom precinct, this county. Many of his relatives still reside in old Lane.—Eugene Guard.

Money to Loan. $100 to $500 to loan on short time. BAYARD & CO.

It will be advisable for the military boys to assemble in town next Thursday evening, in order to get an early start in the morning. Those who live out of town can sleep overnight in the armory.—Fossil Journal.

REVIEW OF THE LOCAL MARKET

The week's business has had an increased activity over the preceding one. The large number of wool-owners and the appearance on the streets of people from the interior, preparatory to the approaching harvest, has made an improvement in our trade center and large quantities of merchandise have been sold to consumers. Prices have been maintained in all lines save a decline of one-half a cent on coffee which shows a weakening tendency since last report.

WOOL SITUATION.

The wool market has been quite active during the week and more movement is noticed than at any other time during the season, partly for the reason that there have been more buyers and a yielding tendency on the part of sellers, who have held for extreme prices for their clip. While there is a disposition by large wool growers to hold, their are those of smaller pretensions, who are selling, as their financial condition does not warrant them in refusing to sell; and such are letting their wool go at fair rates, which range from 13 to 17 cents, according to shrinkage. We are reliably informed that some wool growers of the southern portion of Eastern Oregon are hauling their wool over the mountains to the Willamette towns and selling it as valley wool, realizing valley prices, the buyers seeing no difference in quality or staple, between this and valley wools. If this is the case, why is there a distinction between Eastern Oregon and valley wools? Certainly Eastern Oregon grades are as high or higher than Willamette valley grades.

In the produce market there is not much to report save it is well supplied with all kinds of fruits and vegetables and prices are less firm. Strawberries are sold in the city at 6 to 8 cents per box. Cherries are at their best and sell at 5 to 8 cents per pound. Raspberries and all other kinds of small fruits are in light demand. Turnips, onions, carrots, peas, string beans and beets are in over supply. New potatoes have taken the place of old and are selling from 1 to 2 cents per pound.

MISCELLANEOUS MARKET.

The market is feeling the scarcity of eggs, and some dealers are paying 22 cents per dozen in cash and 25 cents in trade. Good, fresh, ranch butter is in less supply with an upward tendency. Some dealers talk of an advance in price but as yet none has been made since last quotations. The market is still quite well supplied with poultry at former prices—$2.50@3.25.

The outlook for future prices of wheat is the most encouraging to our farmers. Already 75 cents per bushel is spoken of as the opening of the new market.

The Dalles wheat market is steady at 80 cents per bushel.

FLOUR—Local brands, $4.25 wholesale and $4.50@4.75 retail; extra, $5.50@6.00 per bbl.

MILLSTUFFS—The supply is in excess of demand. We quote bran and shorts $17.00 per ton. Retail $1.00 per 100 lbs. Shorts and middlings, $20.00@22.50 per ton.

HAY—Timothy hay is in good supply at quotations $17.00@18.00. New wheat hay is in market at $10.00 per ton loose, and 13.50 per ton baled. New wild hay is nominally quoted at $15.00 per ton.

POTATOES—New potatoes 1@2 cents per lb.
