EMPTY BOASTING.

The emperor of Germany, after the dreibund treaty, is reported to have said: "I am able to impart to you the joyful news that yesterday evening the dreibund was renewed for a further period of six years. Peace is thus assured for a long time." This would present a very fine prospect, so far as Europe is concerned, were it not for the well known fact that a hundred contingencies may arise at any time, any one of which might make war inevitable. In fact dispatches from Europe, of the same date inform us that it is the opinion of some that unless France and Russia soon reply to the treaty, by concluding a formal alliance, the central powers of Europe will become too confident, as to the impotency of their adversaries, to enable the latter to counteract their ambitious designs and they will, consequently, bring about events which will render a European war inevitable. So much for the boasted peace of the young emperor.

Mosier Items.

Mosier, July 3, '91.
EDITOR CHRONICLE: The fruit in this vicinity is looking fine and bids fair for a good crop.
The people are pretty well, and will soon be partaking of peaches and cream.
Mr. R. Sellinger, who came home from Bridal Veil a few weeks ago with broken limb, we are glad to say will be on foot soon again.
Dr. Barrett of Hood River called at Mosier to see friends.
Mr. Doughtie's family will take their leave of Mosier on Friday, the 3d inst., if nothing happens, for their new home in the valley.
The calico picnic will be postponed, as quite a number of the calicoes wished to celebrate the 4th in The Dalles. We shall have it in the near future. We wish all to come who want a good social time.
M. G.

The CHRONICLE notices with regret that Judge Thornbury is losing his grip at the fishing business. Dan Butler used to tell the wader that the judge could catch fish where the ground was only a little wet, but the record shows that Mr. Burgett, who is only an apprentice at the business, beat the judge by 74 fish. The CHRONICLE noticed today that the judge has an awfully red nose. Is it possible that there is any connection between a red nose and a decline of fishing ability? Do the waters of Trout Creek paint peoples' noses red?
Milton is going to have the only woolen mill in the inland empire. It wants besides, an electric light plant and a company of the O. N. G., a fruit cannery, an extension of its water system, a hose cart and hose, additional fire plugs, and a brand new plaster on the town in the form of a bonded debt.
The first Oregon peaches of the season to arrive in Portland got there last Tuesday. The Oregonian says they were very handsome and much finer than any received from California, so far. They were from Seufert Brothers.
The band boys have certainly the nicest quarters in the camp. Their situation on the extreme west enables them to protract the eating of their peck of dirt over a longer period than the rest who are exposed to all the dust of the camp.

Mr. C. B. Patterson, representing C. F. Weber & Co., proprietors of the Northwest school furniture company of Portland, is in the city, and will tour the county in the interests of that concern.

Our Third Regiment Band.

The music given by the third regiment brass band has been one of the pleasantest features of the entire encampment. The band has won high praise from all present. Their music has been good and the boys have been willing to play on any and all occasions. The members are all gentlemen and have won hosts of friends among those in attendance on the encampment. We give herewith the names of those who belong to the organization:

J. P. Fitzgerald, drum major; W. E. Garretson, first clarinet; John Hertz, second clarinet; J. P. Benton, chief musician lead cornet; S. D. Fisher, solo cornet; Henry Bills, second B flat; Joseph Studleman, first B flat; Charles Bunnell, chief trumpeter, E flat; Chris Paulsen, baritone; Wm. H. Stevens, tuba; Julius Fisher, first tenor; John M. Filloon, second tenor; A. N. Varney, solo alto; W. K. Corson, first alto; Henry Burehtorf, second alto; John Weigle, snare drummer; Ralph Rowland, bass drummer.

The Road to the Fair Grounds.

Our attention is called to the condition of the streets leading to the fair grounds that will be used so much tomorrow in passing to and from that place. A small portion of the way needs some work done on it very much. If our street commissioner would have a few hours' work done there this evening or in the morning it would be a great accommodation to those running conveyances to the fair grounds.

Liberty Car.

The children who are to ride in the liberty car on the fourth of July are expected to meet at the Sun office, on Court street, two doors from Harris' store, on that morning (Saturday) at 9 o'clock, where a committee of young ladies will be waiting, and see that they are properly arranged in the car.

Attention.

Fourth of July Committee extends a pressing invitation to all to take part in the procession of the plug uglies which will start at 1 p. m. headed by the brass band from Mr. Lochhead's feed yard at the east end of the city.

Parties have been cutting the supply pipes above the city between the flume and the reservoir, thus doing much damage. This must be stopped and a reward of $20 is hereby offered for evidence that will lead to the conviction of persons doing the same. By order of the Board of Directors.

E. B. DUFFIN.

Mr. John Caragher, a merchant at Caragher, Fulton Co., Ohio, says that St. Patrick's Pills are the best selling pills he handles. Notice.

The barber shops of this city will close on the Fourth, at 12 o'clock noon, and open on Sunday morning till 12 noon, for that day only.

LOST HIS REASON.

A Warden Miner Violently Insane on a Railroad Train—He Was Going to Europe.

St. PAUL, July 2.—Andrew Row, a wealthy miner and stock breeder, who owns vast property about Warden, Idaho, was taken from the east-bound train yesterday morning at 6 o'clock at Wasaca, Minn., in a violent state of insanity. He said he wanted to die, and asked Sheriff Reynolds what means he could propose to pursue in killing him. Mr. Row is on his way to Europe, and said he had arranged to visit a couple of brothers and a cousin at Norrisville, Eau Claire county, Wis. His tickets read to that point from Spokane Falls, Wash. He says he lost his reason one night when the train came to a sudden stop, and he thought it had left the track. On his person were found drafts on Idaho and Washington banks for $10,000, cash to the amount of $230, and a gold and a silver watch. His valise contained a note for $600, deeds to mining property and valuable specimens. He lost some on the road. Dispatches regarding his condition have been sent to his friends in Europe, Idaho and Wisconsin. In the meantime he is confined in the Wasaca county jail.

Gold is now worth, in Buenos Ayres, 2.78 per cent. premium.

Mr. and Mrs. George Young, of Bako Oven, are in the city.
