WILLIAM HENRY GLADSTONE.

The Eldest Son of the Great English Statesman Dies in London.

LONDON, July 4.—William Henry Gladstone, the eldest son of the great English statesman, died this morning. For some time past he has been suffering from brain disease and paralysis of the right side. The physicians Thursday last removed a tumor which has been pressing upon his brain. The patient, however, sank rapidly. The elder Mr. Gladstone was desirous of leaving Lowestoft for London so soon as he heard of the danger which threatened his son, but the physician in attendance prevailed upon him to stay at the seaside. Dispatches were exchanged throughout the night between Gladstone and his family and at 3 o'clock this morning the elder Gladstone left Lowestoft for London, being summoned by the intelligence that the worst might be expected. Unhappily Mr. Gladstone reached the city too late to be present at his son's death. The old gentleman's grief upon reaching the death chamber was really terrible in its intensity; so much so that, combined with his enfeebled health and advanced years, his relatives and friends feel anxious as to the result.

Mr. Gladstone was born at Hawarden, Flintshire, in 1840. He was educated at Christ church, Oxford, entered parliament in 1865, representing Chester; sat for Whitley from 1868 to 1880, and subsequently represented East Worcestershire. He was lord of the treasury from 1869 to 1874 and deputy lieutenant and justice of the peace for Flintshire at the time of his death. Of recent years he had lived practically in retirement.

THE UNCROWNED KING.

Parnell and His Wife Will Visit America in August.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The four Parnellite delegates to this country, James G. O'Kelly, William Redmond, John O'Connor and Henry Harrison, had a bitter quarrel last week, and hence the sudden departure of Mr. Henderson for his native land. Before he left, he and Redmond and O'Connor roundly denounced O'Kelly, and he bore away with him a sealed packet containing their opinions of the man in whose charge they were sent to enlist sympathy for the uncrowned king in his evil days. O'Kelly's alliance with the John Davoy party caused the trouble, the other delegates claiming that this connection was the reason for their failure everywhere they went. Mr. and Mrs. Parnell will leave England about the middle of August for this country. They will remain here till after the Baltimore convention, which Mr. Parnell will attend. This convention, it is believed, will proclaim Mr. Parnell leader, and what is done here in regard to him will be followed by the Irish at home, no matter how he may be opposed—clerically or otherwise.

FIRES IN CALIFORNIA.

Nearly All Under Control Around Mount Tamalpais.

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., July 2.—This morning Mount Tamalpais loomed up with its normal appearance. The air seemed to be clear and free from smoke. The fire in the vicinity of Ross valley and Tamalpais station has been extinguished, and most of the tired fire fighters have come to town. William Elliott, foreman for the San Rafael water company, has just returned from work at Lagunitas, and reports the fire out on all sides of the mountain except above the large reservoir, where it is burning in the direction of the summit. Mr. Elliott states that before evening the fire will have spent itself, as there is only a piece of a few hundred acres in that vicinity. Reports from the Gore Madras and Mill valley state that the fire is completely under control, and no further damage can be done. It is estimated that the path of the fire covers about 8000 acres.

Governor Hill's Oration.

GENEVA, N. Y., July 4.—Governor Hill delivered an oration here today. In the course of his remarks he said: "What the country needs today is a return to the simple ways of our fathers. We should not ask to make the government stronger, but purer. We should have a just, sound and stable currency adequate for the interests of the country. The masses of the people have no interests in common with the few, who may desire to see the country suffering under the paralysis of hard times, and have money scarce and confined to a single standard."

Quite a Family Record.

GAINESVILLE, Texas, July 4.—In the tribal circuit court of Chickasaw Nation, at Tishomingo, Smith Paul, aged 80 years, his son Sam Paul, aged 46, and the latter's son Joe Paul, aged 20, all prominent Chickasaw Indians, were each granted a divorce from his wife. The woman from whom the grandiose Paul was divorced is said to have been his sixth wife. The one from whom Sam severed himself was his third, while the young man Joe was separated from his first wife. The women are all white.

Accidents at a Sham Battle.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 4.—Fifty thousand people witnessed the sham battle here today. A signal rocket struck Besiege Cronin, aged seven years, on the forehead, killing her almost instantly. Her sister, standing by her, was terribly burned, and Katie Fleming, aged fourteen years, had her left eye blown out. Mrs. Eliza Boswell, of Coalbury, was badly injured by a rocket, and Dr. Jones, a veterinary surgeon, was accidentally shot in the side. He will recover. John Rex received a bad cut from a rocket stick.
