THE MURDERED SAILOR

Continuation of the Coroner's Inquest at San Diego--- The Men that Killed Him Barely Escape Lynching.

Presidential Appointments --- Manitoba Crop. Reports--- U. P. Statement Shows a Falling Off.

San Diago, Cal., July 16 .- An inquest remains of the sailor of the Charteston killed on Tuesday. Evidence developes that the officers who claimed to be U. S. deputy marshals were not deputized by marshal Gard and therefore had no authority to arrest the sailors.

At the inquest this morning the evidence was even stronger than yesterday that the attack of the officers was criminally brutal. It was developed this morning that a well arranged plan to lynch the deputy marshals hang fire last night. Sixty citizens fully armed were up until 2 o'clock this morning debating whether or not the prisoners should be lynched. Better counsel prevailed and it was at last decided to await the result of the inquest. There is an apparent superior court room.

New Armor Plates Resist Fire From a Six-Pound Hotebkiss Rifle.

WASHINGTON, July 14.-Further tests of American armor plate were made at the Anapolis proving grounds last Saturday, with gratifying results. Two three-inch all-steel plates were prepared by Carnegie with surfaces treated by the new Harvey process; to give the process a complete test under befter conditions than heretofore realized. The plates were made with less carbon in plates were made with less carbon in their composition than the three plates tested some months ago. The official report is not yet received, but the officers present say the plates satisfactorily resisted fire from a six-pound Hotch-kiss riffe, a severe test.

Silver Decline Predicted, New York, July 14.—A silver broker is quoted: 'I look for some decline in the price, because the government is absorbing its allotment for the month so sorbing its allotment for the month so rapidly. At the present rate, the buying limit for the month will be filled in time to permit some accumulation of stocks. London is not buying much, except when the drives here enable somebody to pick up a lot of stock under the London party. Next month there should be some London buying,"

Officers Believe that Young Men From the Country Make the best

Soldiers. WASHINGTON, July 14 .- For the past ear the authorities have been attempting to improve the quality of recruits in the regular army, so as to lessen the per-centage of desertion, which was growing alarmingly. Extra endeavors were made to secure young men who sought the army as a profession rather than a appointed Marvin D. Gladstone's Great Sorrow.

LONDON, July 14 .- Mr. Gladstone in a letter a few days ago intimated that he would be unable to attend a liberal meeting, says: "We, in our affliction, are deeply sensible of the mercies of God. He gave us for fifty years a most CHICAGO, July 14.—Robert G. Ingersoll in speaking of likely candidates for president on the republican ticket said of McKinley: "He is the very man if he wins the coming election in Ohio. If he carries the Buckeye state with a good majority he will be nominated by acclamation. Nothing can stop McKinley from being the biggest man in the republican party if he is successful in the coming struggle,"

"Could he be elected?"

"Easily. With McKinley as standard-bearer I am not afraid of any of the so-called doubtful states. Iowa, Illinois, Kansas, Indiana and others will give KcKinley a large majority."

Indiana and standard search in the mercies of contention, but the transition may be softened by the conviction that we in the first and greatest of our present controversies, work for honor, well-being and future peace of our opponents not less than for own."

England and the World's Fair.

London, July 14.—The daily News comments on the government's appointment of a council of the society of arts are deeply sensible of the mercies of God. He gave us for fifty vears a most prectous son. He has now only hidden him for a very brief space from the sight of our eyes. It seems a violent transition may be softened by the conviction that we in the first and greatest of our present controversies, work for honor, well-being and future peace of our opponents not less than for own."

England to the exhibition. It will be a good thing for the commerce of both countries. It English exhibitors prove England's industries can hold their own, it may bring home to the Americans what they sacrifice to protection and open their eyes to the fact that the Mc-Kinley law is not worth what it costs."

A Cowardly Deed. ALBANY, July 14.—Mr. Ray, who lives below Mill City on the Oregon Pacific railroad, is in Albany today seeking relief for his 10-year-old son, who was thrown over a bank at a picnic near Gates on the Fourth, and had his skull fractured. The dead was done by Henry tractured. The deed was done by Henry Sullivan, 17 years old, without provoca-tion. The Ray boy is not expected to live.
