Look out for further notice.

Mr. Wilson, traveling freight solicitor of the Northern Pacific road, has been in this city for the last few days and has made it very tropical for the Union. The rate on wool to Boston by the line Mr. Wilson represents is twenty cents per hundred pounds less than by the U. Tacoma will soon vote on the question of bonding the city for $1,500,000.

A Congressional College.

At the meeting of the General Association of Oregon, held in Salem in June, 1891, a committee of twelve were appointed to take the necessary steps to establish a Congressional college in Oregon, and its composition was as follows: H. A. Shorey, Portland; Prof. W. N. Hull, Corvallis; B. S. Huntington, The Dalles; Albert Brownell, Albany; Prof. G. H. Collier, Eugene; I. A. Macrum, Forest Grove; D. B. Gray and Napoleon Davis, Salem; James Steel, Portland; W. H. Morrow, East Portland; Rev. George C. Hall, Astoria; Rev. George J. Webster, Ashland. A short time after their appointment the committee met and appointed sub-committees for various details of the work in hand. Frank M. Warren, of Portland, was added to the committee in lieu of Professor Hull, who had removed from the state. During the past week the committee met again. There were present, I. A. Macrum, Albert Brownell, D. B. Gray, Napoleon Davis, W. H. Morrow, James Steel, Frank M. Warren, B. S. Huntington, and H. A. Shorey. Reports from the various sub-committees were made, showing what had been done, and the matters presented were fully discussed, after which it was unanimously voted that the instructions of the State Association should be carried out and the necessary steps taken to establish a Congressional college in Oregon. Accordingly H. A. Shorey, James Steel, and W. H. Morrow were appointed as a committee to receive propositions from the various parts of the state for a college location. From information in hand it is thought by the committee that arrangements can be made to open the college in September next.

It is understood that all else being equal, the locality making the most attractive contribution will be recommended by the committee.

In Oregon there is no more beautiful or more healthy place, or more accessible situation than The Dalles, and we would like to see such an institution as the college located here. It would bring a great deal of money to the city and a desirable class of persons, and as an "investment" itself would be a good thing. It is to be hoped that some one having suitable tracts of land in this vicinity will make a proposition to the committee. Our townsmen Mr. Huntington will gladly give all the information in his power to any person applying to him.

An Evening of Pleasure.

Many of the young lady and gentlemen friends of Miss Aimee Newman met last evening at the family residence and passed an evening of jollity and good humor. Everything that it was possible to do to make the occasion pass pleasantly was indulged in and it all passed off to the satisfaction of those present. Before the close of the jollity a party of serenaders made the merry waltzers a visit and with guitars and singing added much to the enjoyment. An exquisite lunch was given at the close and all went away thanking Miss Aimee for the pleasure of a well-spent evening. Among the guests were the following:

Misses Aimee Newman, Grace Campbell, Grace Marden, Mabel Mack, Katie DeHuff, Alice Mulligan, Ettie Story, Laura Thompson, Anna Thompson, Caddie Booth, Nona Kuch, Alma Schmidt, Emma Wentz.

Messrs. Fred W. Wilson, Chas. E. Wilson, Bert W. Phelps, Ed Y. Patterson, Ed M. Wingate, Roger O. Sinnott, Leon Friedman, Max P. Vogt, jr., Will Mitchell, jr., John Booth, Martin Donnell, Nello Johnson, Hayward Kiddell.

REVIEW OF THE LOCAL MARKET

The business in all branches of trade has continued active, and some business report a larger business than a week ago. Money is easier, and bid scores are being settled off. The outlook in the wool market is broken and now the movement is brisk. During the week a million pounds of wool has changed hands at prices ranging from 13 to 17 1/2 cents per pound, and the disposition of buyers is to get all they can at these figures. Mr. Jos. Shearer is loading a train of his own clip and some he purchased a few days ago for the Boston market. Other shipments are being made in the same direction.

The produce market is very quiet. Large supplies of all kinds of vegetables and small fruits are plentiful, strawberries are almost a thing of the past, and are selling at 10 cts. per box. Raspberries are in great abundance and prices are down. Blackberries are in market at 10 cts. per box. Plums are very plentiful at 35 cts. per 20 pound boxes. Good apples sell freely at 60 cts. per box, and are not in great abundance. In some instances the San Jose scale has been discovered on apples brought into market and have been promptly destroyed. Peaches are cheap and are selling at 15 to 20 cts. per box.

The market is feeling the scarcity of eggs, and some dealers are paying 22 cents per dozen in cash and 25 cents in trade. Good, fresh, ranch butter is in less supply with an upward tendency. Some dealers talk of an advance in price but as yet none has been made since last quotations. The market is still quite well supplied with poultry at former prices—$5.00@5.25.

The Dalles wheat market is steady at 70 cents per bushel.

Money to Loan.

$100 to $500 to loan on short time. BAYARD & Co.

The Northwestern Life Insurance Co., OF MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.

Assets over $42,000,000.00. Surplus over $6,500,000.00.

LAGONDA HEIGHTS, SPRINGFIELD, O., June 15, 1891.

DEAR SIR:—Replying to your request for a statement of the facts concerning my experience with the Northwestern Life Insurance Society of New York in their late settlement with me, I would state that in the early part of 1881, my age being 55 years, I took out a Ten-Payment Life Policy in the Northwestern Life Insurance Society of New York for $30,000. My premiums during the period amounted to $7,322.00. The Ten-Payment period expired early in January of the present year, and the Company then offered me the following terms of settlement:

FIRST—A paid up policy for $40,000.00. And cash $751.60.

SECOND—A paid up policy for $40,000.00. THIRD—Surrender my policy, and receive in cash $4,000.00.

I was so little satisfied with the results of my investment that I chose the third, cash, proposition, but when I so decided, the company, through several of its representatives, labored to induce me to take one of the other forms of settlement, but finding that I was determined to surrender the policy and take the cash, they finally instructed me from the home office to send policy and receipt for the amount, $38,498.80, to their State manager in Cleveland, and he would remit me the amount. I followed their instructions and sent the policy and receipt through my bank in Springfield to our correspondent in Cleveland, only to have it returned from the Cleveland Bank with the information that the State manager of the Northwestern Life Insurance Society had "had not sufficient funds to meet it." This maturity before receiving final settlement.

I have given no statement endorsing the Northwestern, or expressing my satisfaction with their settlement with me. On the other hand I have positively refused to do so. The fact that my return was $1,035.20 less than my total investment renders further comment unnecessary.

During the time I carried the Northwestern policy and up to the day when they submitted the above proposition to me I was kept in total ignorance of the condition of my investment. I took a Ten-Year Endowment Policy, Ten-Year Term, for $10,000, that company having from time to time furnished me with a memorandum of the surplus on my policy over the signature of their actuary; so that while my policy has not yet matured, and will not until next year, I have the satisfaction of knowing that at maturity it will net me from $4,000 to $5,000 more than the face of the policy calls for.

Very truly yours, ROSS MITCHELL.
