The Chronicle is the Only Paper in The Dalles that Receives the Associated Press Dispatches.

Notice.

Persons leaving town for the springs, sea coast, or mountains can have THE DAILY CHRONICLE sent to them without extra cost by leaving orders at this office.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

C. E. Bayard is in the city. Mr. John Farris of Wapinitia is in the city. Mr. R. H. Guthrie of Rutledge came into town last evening. Mr. A. S. Macallister went to Portland today on the 5 a. m. train. Messrs. A. W. Kelsay and W. L. Hinkle of Antelope are in town. Mr. John Filloon and wife returned this morning from Victoria, B. C. Messrs John Baxter of Antelope and J. H. Menefee of Dufur are in the city. Mr. C. P. Heald, of Hood River, gave the CHRONICLE office a welcome call today. Mr. W. N. Wiley and two sons left today for the Cold Camp ranch near Antelope. Mr. S. E. Farris went out this morning to his ranch at Wapinitia to remain for a week. Two cars of sheep were shipped from this place last night by Chas. Butler, to Portland. Mr. R. C. Fleck, of the CHRONICLE, returned from a pleasant trip to Portland and vicinity, on today's train. This office is under obligations to Col. W. E. McArthur of Washington, D. C. for valuable documents received. Mr. O. C. Stevens and wife have gone to Gilliam county to visit their children and for the benefit of Mr. Stevens' health which has been very poor of late. There are several cases of measles in the city. The youngest child of Mr. C. W. Richmond is just recovering from an attack. We call attention to the advertisement in another column for bids for hauling 150 barrels of cement from the cars to the new reservoir on the Mesplie place. Two carloads of wagons and one of headers are at the depot for Filloon Brothers. Mr. Geo. Filloon says, "We are prepared to cut the season's crop and move it on wheels." James McGinty has commenced the excavation for the new reservoir on the Mesplie place. Six men are now employed and more will be added as they can be worked to advantage. Mr. J. A. Varney leaves this evening for the Willamette valley where he will look over the ground with a view of taking in charge the platting and planting of an orchard of 2700 acres, for an eastern syndicate. Mr. A. Hall yesterday came up from Hood River where he has been working on his claim for a few days. The claim lies near to that of our fellow townsman Mr. C. J. Roberts. Mr. Hall's hands bear evidence that grubbing out pine stumps don't agree with them. When Napoleon Bonaparte found that the West Indies refused to supply France with sugar, he called the farmers of the North of France together and said: "If you plant beets we will make our own sugar," and this was the foundation of the great industry in France, which has spread into Germany and now bids fair to become a staple industry in Oregon.

Every little while we hear of some new adventurer making search for the famous if not mythical Blue Bucket mines. The last person who has recorded his failure to locate them is one John Buckmaster of Fox Valley, Harney county. Mr. Buckmaster closely followed the instructions given him but the search failed to discover anything of value. Mr. August Buchler met with a painful accident last evening that will confine him to the house for a few days. As our reporter learned it, Mr. Buchler was in the act of stepping off a switch engine on which he had been riding, when the engine came to so sudden a stop while Mr. Buchler still grasped it, that his left shoulder was knocked out of joint. Dr. Logan was promptly sent for and soon had the joint in place and Mr. Buchler will, no doubt be himself again in a few days. Mrs. J. H. Covington of this city has a plan for exterminating squash bugs and cabbage and tree lice, that she commends to the attention of all whose gardens are infested with these pests. It is simply finely ground cayenne pepper, used as a powder or in a solution of five gallons of water to a pound of pepper. As a powder, she applies it to the squash leaves and around their roots, by a common insect bellows which can be bought at any of our drug stores. The solution she applies by either washing the leaves, or when convenient dipping the infected branches into a vessel containing the solution. Mrs. Covington pronounces this remedy a complete success. It is her own discovery, she has thoroughly tested it and never found it to fail. The solution no matter how strongly made, will not effect the trees, or plants.

The U. P. pay car passed through the city today going east, and made a numerous constituency happy.

T. P. Crum and F. E. Shontell intend, in a few days to go to the Cascade sulphur springs and remain for about a month. Fireman Palmer and Tode Jackson and family will go to Wind River on Thursday and remain a month or six weeks.

In a Mexican town Methodists were laying the corner stone of a church when they were attacked by a crowd of ignorant Mexican Catholics. "My friends," said the pastor, "for the sake of that gentle Christian in whom we all believe let us proceed in peace." Just then he was knocked down by a rock thrown by an angry Mexican, and as he picked himself up he exclaimed: "If the low-lived, white-livered Greaser that threw that rock will come forward I will kick him out of his boots." Then the police came on the ground and peace settled down over the scene.

Mr. Lytle, the gentlemanly agent of the Union Pacific company at this place has had taken a number of fine photographs of that part of the Fourth procession which he, personally engineered, which illustrated the difficulties of the pioneer's methods of travel, as well as the comforts of the modern railroad carriage. The picture is entitled the "Trail and the Rail." The prairie schooner, propelled by the patient oxen, the six-horse stage coach of '49 and the modern palace car, all are finely represented, as is the legend on the latter, "This is the road you long have sought and mourned because you found it not." The picture is a very handsome one, indeed, and the use Mr. Lytle has made of it, shows a genius for advertising, that is worthy of a P. T. Barnum. It makes as handsome an advertisement as we have ever seen.

There is a very melancholy looking brindle cow and calf impounded in the Saltmarsh calaboose under the indictment of having stolen or otherwise surreptitiously grand larcenous Deputy United State Marshal A. G. Johnson's garden valued at about $20. She waives examination and is fully committed for trial before his honor Marshal Gibbons. What makes the matter possess a touch of deep pathos, is the fact that the editor's cow is there too, though under what charge we have not yet learned. We are fully prepared however, to certify as to her previous good character. As to the brindle, Mr. Johnson says she is an old transgressor, well known for her thieving propensities in the Garrison neighborhood. When she comes up for trial Mr. Johnson will prove that she can open a garden gate, no matter how it is latched, slicker than any cow he ever saw in his life. She can eat corn, without a question. She has now four or five hundred yards of A. G.'s sweet corn concealed on her person, or had, when she latched the garden gate after her.

A very pleasant party met last night, about 8:30 o'clock, in the parlor of the Umattilla house, from whence they crossed the river, on sail boats, to the wheat platform near the shoe factory, where Messrs. J. P. Fitzgerald, Fred Wilson and John Booth had stretched an ample canvas and where, beneath the twinkling stars, to the charming music of the guitar club, they chased the happy hours on flying feet till midnight hour called them back across the river. It was a happy merry crowd and before it broke up it solidly voted the meeting a delightful success and solemnly resolved to have it duplicated next week. The following are the names of the participants: Misses Maggie Rowland, Allie Rowland, Virginia Marden, Grace Marden, Ursula Ruch, Louisa Ruch, Sada Whitmer, Lena Wentz, Bertha Wentz, Matilda Hollister, Alice Mulligan, Katharina De Huff, Gertrude Myers, Rose Michell.

Messrs. John Booth, J. C. Mason, L. Ainsworth, Roger Sinnott, F. Faulkner, W. S. Elliot, Sam Campbell, Norman Wilson, Chas. Wilson, John F. Hampshire, Fred W. Wilson, Joe P. Fitzgerald, Max. P. Vogt, Will Michell, Ed. Patterson and Mart Donnell. Mosier Correspondence. MOSIER, July 20, 1891. ED. CHRONICLE: I should be pleased to write something very entertaining and newsy, but as I have been too busy to find out anything, if there was anything to be found out, so I shall have to beg all concerned to take the will for the deed. We had a very pleasant but short call from Misses Carry Davenport and Anna Dehm yesterday. I have heard that some of The Dalles people are talking of camping on Mosier creek. We shall be pleased to entertain them from our orchards, and gardens; and not only in this, but also from a social point of view. The people here have been packing prunes the past week for the foreign market. I hear some of the Mosierites say they wonder if such as we would have an invitation to try the new boat on its trial trip? M. G.

A Long Remembered Debt.

Forty-nine years ago Father Beezley of this city was dunned by a storekeeper for the price of a bushel of flax seed. He refused to pay on the ground that he had never got it. Time passed and the storekeeper died and Father Beezley if he ever thought of the incident at all thought that he was right in refusing to pay for a thing he never got. To-day while setting in the store of W. A. Kirby something occurred that revived the incident and he remembered, as if it had happened yesterday, the purchase of the flax seed and what he did with it. As the incident came back to Father Beezley's memory the omnipresent news gatherer entered the store and heard the tale. When it was finished he mildly suggested that Father Beezley would have to square that bushel of flax-seed with Saint Peter before he would ever be admitted through the golden gate; but Father Beezley was equal to the occasion when he replied, "That store-keeper died fifty dollars in my debt; the balance is on the other side."

LAGONDA HEIGHTS, SPRINGFIELD, O., June 15, 1891.

Prof. E. L. Shuey, Dayton, Ohio. DEAR SIR—Replying to your request for a statement of the facts concerning my experience with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York in their late settlement with me, I would state that in the early part of 1881, my age being 56 years, I took out a Ten-Payment Life Policy in the Equitable upon their Ten-Year Tontine plan, for $40,000. My premiums during the period amounted to $37,512.00. The Tontine period expired early in January of the present year, and the Company then offered me the following terms of settlement:

FIRST—A paid up policy for $40,000 00. And cash 9,751 50. SECOND—A paid up policy for 54,600 00. THIRD—Surrender my policy, and receive in cash 36,426 80.

I was so little satisfied with the results of my investment that I chose the third, cash, proposition, but when I so decided, the company, through several of its representatives, labored to induce me to take one of the other forms of settlement, but finding that I was determined to surrender the policy and take the cash, they finally instructed me from the home office to send policy and receipts for the amount, $36,426.80, to their State manager in Cleveland, and he would remit me the amount. I followed their instructions and sent the policy and receipt through my bank in Springfield to our correspondent in Cleveland, only to have it returned from the Cleveland Bank with the information that the State manager of the Equitable states that he "had not sufficient funds to meet it." This forced me to return it to the New York office, and compelled me to wait some twenty days after maturity before receiving final settlement.

I have given no statement endorsing the Equitable, or expressing my satisfaction with their settlement with me. On the other hand I have positively refused to do so. The fact that my returns were $1,015.20 less than my total investment renders further comment unnecessary. During the time I carried the Equitable policy and up to the day when they submitted the above proposition to me, I was kept in total ignorance of the condition of my investment. In marked contrast with this has been my experience with the Northwestern, in which in 1882, I took a Ten-Year Endowment Policy, Ten-Year Tontine, for $10,000, that company having from time to time furnished me with a memorandum of the surplus on my policy over the signature of their actuary; so that while my policy has not yet matured, and will not until next year, I have the satisfaction of knowing that at maturity it will net me from $4,000 to $5,000 more than the face of the policy calls for. Very truly yours, ROSS MITCHELL.
