Wheat in every section is turning out better than was expected. In a few sections smut is reported but not to any great extent. The oat crop is reported to be a good one. The codlin moth is doing some damage. Hops are quite promising. The peach crop will be the largest on record.

The Result of the Latest English Election.

LONDON, July 25.—The Tory press commenting on the result of the Wisbeck parliamentary election concedes that a liberal victory menaces greatly the union cause.

The Chronicle says: "The result is due to the conservative candidate adopting the protection cry. The laborers recognize that protection for the farmers will not increase their wages. They voted for the Gladstonian candidate believing that radical measures had better be intrusted to a radical government."

Minneapolis will Have no Prize Fight.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 25.—The chief of police has issued an order that hereafter no glove contests shall occur at the theater, Casino or Pence opera houses. The administration is evidently opposed to sparring unless conducted under club auspices. A contest was to have been held at Pence opera house tonight.

HONORS TO CLEVELAND.

The Ex-President Tendered a Reception at Cape Cod.

SANDWICH, Mass., July 25.—Sandwich today extended a cordial reception to ex-President Cleveland who has chosen Cape Cod as his place of residence during the summer months. The occasion was not confined to the local bounds of Sandwich and Bourne but to Cape Cod, whose residents irrespective of politics and summer visitors united in a welcome.

This morning a special train having on board Governor Russell and staff and other invited guests stopped at Buzzard Bay from where Ex-President Cleveland was escorted. Here a procession was formed headed by a band and Cleveland was escorted to a large tent where the reception was held.

In welcoming Ex-President Cleveland on behalf of the citizens of Cape Cod, Governor Russell warmly eulogized Cleveland's administration and closed with the assurance that Massachusetts believes in sound currency. In replying to the toast "Our Neighbors" the ex-president returned thanks for neighborly intentions of the inhabitants of Cape Cod and speaking of the presidency said he had again returned to the people to assume the ordinary duties of citizenship subject to the same rule of behavior which should apply to his fellow countrymen and his return should be accorded the same fair and decent treatment.

The New York people, however, appear to believe that once out of office we are constantly engaged in plotting for our own benefit and end. Not only to destroy the party to which we belong but to subvert popular liberty and utterly uproot free American institutions.

LITTLE, BUT OH!

A Brutal Fight Between Light Weights on Long Island.

NEW YORK, July 25.—A prize fight remarkable for its astonishing brutality took place this morning at a sporting resort on Long Island between Tim Tomally and Bill Hoggart, light weights. When time was called they went at it like game cocks, hammer and tongs. Tomally by a lucky blow caught Hoggart on the jugular vein and knocked him out. Neither one was satisfied with the result and it is thought they will meet again.

THE CANADIAN SCANDALS.

The Testimony of One Brother Against Another Before the Investigating Committee.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 23.—At the meeting of the privileges and elections committee, Robert P. McGreevy, who is one of the most active prosecutors of charges of corruption against his brother Hon. Thomas McGreevy, testified he obtained from Larkin, Connelley & Co. after a cross-wall contract had been obtained for the firm, through his brother's influence, notes to the value of $25,000, a part of which had been used by Thomas McGreevy in paying a personal debt of $17,000. Robert H. McGreevy in continuing his evidence, stated he had been instrumental in receiving for Thomas, from Larkin, Connelley & Co., $22,000 for further influence used to obtain for the firm a contract to complete the dock.

THE CASE CONTINUED.

Faylor's Suit to Recover for Services as a Lobbyist.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—In the Faylor case this morning Attorney Clunie asked for a week's postponement in order to give time to look up Richard Chute and Henry Wangelheim, who were wanted as witnesses, but could not be found. Stephen T. Gage, who had been summoned, was also not present and his counsel said he had advised Gage to pay no attention to the subpoena as it had not been properly served. The court thereupon stated the warrant would hold good. Attorney Clunie said he also desired to have the state librarian and his assistant in attendance, as he wished to show by them that the finance committee of the combine met in the state library every day. Attorney Campbell objected to the continuance, and the court finally adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon, to enable the plaintiff, if possible, to bring the witnesses into court. After reassembling C. E. Hansen and Robert Dickson, insurance agents, testified, after which the case was continued until Monday.

COAL OIL AND NATURAL GAS.

Startling Discovery by a Farmer on His Land near Nolia.

PENDLETON, Or., July 24.—Some time ago John S. Vinson noticed a peculiar oily covering on the water of a spring at his place near Nolia, which could be skimmed off like cream from a pan of milk. On punching a hole in the ground with a stick and placing a match at the top of the hole, a flash was the result. Vinson kept his discovery quiet, and has since been prodding about his place in search of a similar phenomenon. He now writes to a friend in Pendleton that he has discovered natural gas and coal oil in a number of places on his land. He will have the discovery examined by an expert, and will endeavor to secure the services of E. G. Locke, of the Union Pacific, on his return to Pendleton. The thermometer registered 105 in the shade here today, and yesterday 102.

SULLIVAN'S UNNECESSARY GUARDS.

The Oregon Improvement Company Insured for Employing Them.

SEATTLE, July 23.—The grand jury, specially convened to consider the mining troubles of King county, yesterday presented their report. After reviewing the situation, they find the employment of the so-called "Sullivan Guards" by the Oregon improvement company to be ill-advised, unnecessary and likely to provoke disorder, and that had the authorities of the county been appealed to, ample protection would have been furnished. The report continues:

"We regard the employment of an armed force of irresponsible men, in the pay of a private company, and not in any way under the control of the duly constituted authorities of the county, as not in harmony with free institutions, and as a proceeding which ought not to be permitted, except in case of extreme necessity."

SCHAEFER AND SLOSSON.

A Definite Announcement That the Two Will Meet in November.

CHICAGO, July 23.—All doubts as to George Slosson and Jacob Schaefer meeting again are entirely dispelled. President Bensingor, of the Brunswick-Balke-Collider Company, stated yesterday that a contest would certainly take place, as Schaefer had signified his willingness to go to New York and play Slosson on his own terms. He said: "I have been working very hard to bring Slosson and Schaefer together again, and I'm glad I have succeeded. Schaefer has agreed to go to New York and play Slosson for the fourteen-inch Balke-line championship emblem and $500 a side. The contest will take place about November 1."

TOOK THE ROPE ROUTE.

He Was Either Insane or Drunk.

BALTIMORE, July 22.—The body of Joseph E. Lucas was found this morning hanging from a tree in the outskirts of this city. On a note pinned to his chest was written the following: "I was with a rope around my neck and a bottle of whiskey in my hand. When the body is found, bury it in some river where crabs can get a good feast." A postscript was added, requesting the suicide's brother to meet him in heaven.

The New York Grain Market.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Flour—Closed fairly active for spring and winter patents, with an improved demand for lower brands.

Wheat—Options were strong in the morning dealings and advanced sharply on a good buying, due to the announcement of the break in the Erie canal, and which, it was said, would take several days to repair. The cables were firmer, and foreign houses were buyers to a moderate extent. The market underwent a decided change in the last half of the day, and the advance was more than wiped out under a selling to realize. The closing figures were 1/2 @ 3/4 lower. Spot lots closed steady. Spot sales of No. 2 red winter at 89 3/4; No. 2 red winter, July, 87 3/4; do August, 85 3/4; do September, 83 3/4; do October, 80 3/4.

Newspaper Article Provokes a Quarrel—Temperature.

ALBANY, Or., July 23.—News reached this city this evening that a bloodless shooting affray occurred at Mill City today. S. G. Dorris, editor of the Mill City Gazette, recently published an article concerning a quarrel of the little son of a man named Ray, living near there. Today Ray met Dorris, they quarreled and both drew revolvers, Dorris firing one shot and Ray two. Both were poor marksmen and did not inflict any wounds. No arrests were made.
