Deputy Sheriff Poor Killed and B Cowboy Dangerously Wounded---Running in Chinese the Cause.

A St. Louis Judge Decides that Pool Selling is all Right---Details of the Latest European Horror.

POETLAND, July 27 .- A special to the Evening Telegram from Seattle says that intense excitement has been caused there this morning upon the receipt of the news of the killing of Deputy Sheriff Goo. W. Poor at Woolry last night and limbs. the wounding of Cowboy Terry and Custom Inspector Baird and Deputy Inspector Taylor Holden is under arrest. The shooting is said to have been over the capture of a band of chinamen who were being smuggled into the United States from Victoria. Terry, Holden and Poor were together and the story is that Deputy Inspector Buchanan and Baird were jealous of each other's party and they laid in ambush for them. Thirty shots were exchanged between the two parties.

The coroner's jury charged Baird and Buchanan with the death of Poor.

A RUN ON A BANK.

The People's Home Savings Bank of San Francisco Having Hard Luck. SAN FRANCISCO, July 27 .- A 1un was began on the People's Home Saving bank this morning and several thousand dollars paid back to depositors. The bank commissioners have begun an investigation of the bank's affairs. According to its report of July 1st the People's bank has a capital stock of $1,000,000 of which one third is paid up. There is due depositers who number about 8000 the sum of $190,000. The bank's officers state that the institution is perfectly solvent. Two of the San Francisco morning papers have directed the attention to the bank within the past two days, contending that the s ate bank examiners had not made a proper examination of the bank's affairs. AT SPORT OF THE WAVES.

Over Two Hundred People Killed in the St. Maude Collision -- A Horrible Execution.

PARIS, July 27 .- It is now reported that 200 people were killed or injured as the result of the St. Maude collision yes terday. Many of the unfortunate people were imprisoned beneath the wreck, and drowned by firemen who poured torrents of water upon the wreck and seemed to be utterly unaware that they were drowning the people they were attempting to rescue.

Today the town hall at St. Maude presents a fearful spectacle. The blackened cinders is especially conspicuous, consisting of a mass of unidentified and unconnected bodies placed in a heap.

Dorre, the two accomplices of Mere Berland in Courberer's murder. took place this morning on the place de Laroquette. Berland, walked calmly to the guillotine, but a desperate struggle took place on the scaffold. Dorre made no resistance. No sooner had the heads of the murderers rolled into the basket than the crowd surged forward and with a mighty rush and broke through the cordon of soldiers and policemen and began a disgusting scramble for an opportunity to view the work of the guillotine.

Death of a Prominent Vermonter. WATERBURY, Vt. July 27 .- Ex Governor Paul Dillingham died this morning. He was nearly ninety-two years old. He was a member of the fourteenth congress and was governor of Vermont in 1865 and 1867.

The Pool Selling act Unconstitutional. Sr. Louis, July 27 .- The law which prohibits the selling of pools on horse race and base ball, was this morning declared unconstitutional by Judge Claiburne of the court of criminal correction. The state will appeal.

AN INSURGENT'S STORY.

Money is Plentiful Among the Insurgents and Arms are few.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 25 .- The steamer Montserrat put into port for coal and will proceed north tomorrow. Carlos Krug, captain of an insurgent vessel, is aboard and came upon a visit on account of sickness. The vessel left Iquique, July 2, at which time the insurgents had sents a fearful spectacle. The blackened bodies have been placed in rows upon the floor and tables until in some cases the remains are little more than a heap of cinders intermixed with portions of limbs. One pile of charred limbs and human cinders is especially consciences are insurgents derive a revenue of over $2,-000,000 a month from the nitrate fields, which is used to carry on the war. A The execution of young Berland and shipment of arms is expected to arrive any day, which will enable the insurgents to place a force in the field which will outnumber Balmaceda's army and put an end to his reign.

The Canadian Government.

MONTREAL, July 25.-Rumors in cir-culation here indicate that the fall of the government is considered certain shortly. It is confidently stated by several well-informed politicians that Chaplean has approached Laucier and officient in a a coalition government with him, and that Laurier has written the conditions of a proposition, of which the main feature is that Laurier shall make his own selection, but give Chapleau the portfolio of railways. Laurier has not yet decided what to do:

Shepard to Have a Cabinet Position. WASHINGTON, July 25.-It is reported here that Colonel Shepard is a candidate here that Colonel Shepard is a candidate for a cabinet position. Which port folio the colonel desires cannot be ascertained, but it is generally understood that if he cannot have the one he wants, another will snit just as well. Secretary Proctor will retire as soon as he is appointed senator, probably October 1, and Mr. Noble and Mr. Miller may goat the same time. New York republicans are said to be a unit in favor of an appointment, which will honor Colonel Shepard so conspicuonsly and remove him to Washington.

See Austin, Clarence Beebe and Rufus Shephard of this city were capsized in tion of Lieutenant Finley, weather Long Island Sound last night. Capt. officer, was called this morning to a theory advanced in a telegraphic dis-patch to account for the hot wave now visiting Southern California. The theare lost. The last seen of Judge Daly, Beebe and Shephard they were clinging to a wreck, with the waves threatening diminishing the sea breezes and making the section around San Bernardino so warm. Lientenant Finley says: "Well, the lake is undoubtedly there, but the only effect it has is to increase the heat rather than to lower it. Why? Well, it takes a great amount of heat to cause rapid evaporation, and when once the atmosphere is charged with the vapor of water it retains more heat than if it were dry. Moisture in the atmos-phere retains the heat. Heat is simply a question of the circulation of the at-

TACOMA, Wash., July 25.-B. A. Mun-roe, who was arrested last night for the abduction of Annie Easterbrooke, a 16-year-old girl, of Sprague, claims that they were married at The Dalles, Or., some nine days ago. Shoriff Fish ar-rived from Sprague today with the war-rants for their arrest. He says the girl is wanted in a rape case there. About a year ago Easterbrooke swore out a war-rant for the arrest of Warren Witcher, a rant for the arrest of Warren Witcher, a prominent stockman of Lincoln county, prominent stockman of Lincoln county, charging him with attempted rape upon his daughter. Witcher was tried, found guilty and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. He appealed to the su-preme court for a new trial, which was granted. The trial was set for July 18, the day before Munroe and Annie Easterbrooke left for the west. Sheriff Fish attact the that the cirl's father was an-

A Carlous Financial Scheme.

TOPERA, Kan., July 25 .- In Southern Kansas a curious financial scheme has been worked. Bond companies have been organized in most of the towns and heen organized in most of the towns and clies. The plan is to sell a bond of $1000 for $10 down and a monthly as-sessment of $1.50 on each member. As fast as there is money enough in the treasury the holders are paid in the or-der in which the bonds are issued and they drop out. The scheme is to rapidly add to the number of members that no one will pay more than $400 or $500. Already a bond has been paid, the holder of which has paid but $20. He received his full $1000, and dropped out. The originators of the scheme were con-sidered honest men, and eeem not to

A Mere Boy and Girl.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.-Ida Reed, aged 16 years, and Frank Conwell, aged 14 years, were committed to prison to-day to await the action of the coroner at the inquest to be held over the girl's dead child. The child's body was found in a basket concealed in the cellar. The child was born alive, but had been killed by a blow in the back of the head from some blunt instrument. The girl charges the boy Conwell with being the cause of her disgrace.

Oregon All Right.

Last winter the Oregonian was laboring for the repeal of the morigage tax and usury laws, it could not deplore sufficiently the mossbackism of Oregon that was driving money out of this state and building up the cities of Washington where more liberal laws allowed money to be invested more freely, etc.. to the great advantage of the citizens of Washner Hennessy this morning pleased to an indictment charging him with mis-demeanor by publication in the Evening News of details of the execution of Slo-cum, Smiler and others, recently put to death by electricity at Sing Sing. the day before Munroe and Annie Easterbrooke left for the west. Sheriff Fish states that the girl's father was ap-proached some time ago by two parties who offered him $100 if he would get the girl out of the way. This i.e rejused to do. The girl is pretty and well devel-oped for her sge. A little experiment in that direction would thoroughly convince everybody that the best way, if not the only way, all seasons of the year is to straw them. No question about this; then why not do it? You may call us cranky, if you like, on the matter of strawing the roads. But we know we are right, therefore we But we know we are right, therefore we shall fight on that line until the roads are strawed, or until this frail body and frailer head of ours lies moldering in the cold and silent grave.—Exchange.
