THE ENCAMPMENT AT DETROIT.

The Colored People Want their Rights as Citizens in the G. A. R.

DETROIT, Aug. 4.—There is a serious dispute which threatens serenity in the silver encampment of the G. A. R. It is a "Color question." Col. Hedges commander department of Louisiana and Mississippi said today: "Unless things straighten out during this encampment, there won't be a white member of the G. A. R., south of the Ohio on the Potomac a year hence."

Doings of the G. A. R.

DETROIT, Aug. 4.—It has been the desire of all the prominent leaders of the organization that the 25th encampment should be the most successful in the history of the G. A. R. and the parade the most magnificent ever known.

GENERAL PERSONAL MENTION.

Secretary Foster grows so enthusiastic when he sees good baseball play that he throws his hat hke any boy.

There is a well authenticated rumor in Boston that Edwin Booth is dying from the effect of too much smoking.

Since he was ejected from the Jersey Lily's heart Mr. Frederick Gebhard is said to have ejected her cattle from his California ranch.

M. Claretie, the director of the Theatre Francaise, Paris, has invited Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Russell Harrison to visit interesting parts of play-house not open to the general public.

President Harrison and Postmaster-General Wanamaker attended service yesterday in the old brick church, Cold Spring, N. J., where the Rev. E. Stewart, of Allegheny City, preached.

The accident which befell Henry M. Stanley in Switzerland was not as serious as reported. It was his left ankle joint that was fractured. The pain has ceased and the patient is progressing favorably.

The discussion between Huxley and Gladstone over the miracle of the herd of swine is enlivened by the grand old man's very best controversial efforts. There is nothing that Gladstone won't discuss save himself.

When Dr. Talmage appeared in Indianapolis the other day, he was not recognized, though he is well known there. The absence of his famous "mutton-chop" side-whiskers disguised him effectually, and it took some time for the people about the hotel to discover that the tall man with the clean-shaven, ruddy face was Brooklyn's divine.

Foreign News Items.

Five thousand four hundred Russian Jews arrived at Hamburg last week.

The czarowitch has, it is said, arrived at the Russian frontier on his way home. The czar will meet him about August 12th.

The royal rooms at Windsor castle, England, were opened to visitors yesterday and a large throng attended to see where the kaiser had trod. The queen is at Osborne.

Chancellor Caprivi has ordered the German embassy at Paris not to issue passports to any Frenchman who is a member of a Rovanche club. The Prussian government has in its possession lists of the members of several of these clubs.

The Time to Strike.

If Canada ever is to come into Uncle Sam's family circle now is the time to bring about the change. Canada is ripe for a revolution. Whisky has just been advanced from 5 cents to 10 cents a glass, and only twelve ounces of beer hereafter can be bought for a nickel. Now is the time for action. Let us strike while the Cannock is hot.—Chicago Mail.

Education is all right, just so it does not make the victim too smart to work and not smart enough to get along without working.
