LOCAL NEWS.

George Nedrow of Dufur is in the city. Assessor Barnett returned to Hood River today to finish his work there.

Mr. H. H. Petersen of Rutledge gave the CHRONICLE office a pleasant call today.

The number one west bound passenger, due last evening, did not arrive till 10:15 this morning.

Rev. O. D. Taylor was announced to preach in the Dearborn St. Baptist church, Buffalo on the 2nd inst.

Children attention: Call at Blakely & Houghtons and get a handsome picture fan or card before they are all gone.

Captain and Mrs. H. Anlauf and family came down from Walla Walla Sunday, and will remain about a week.

An apple tree in the garden of James Harper in the garrison addition is now in full bloom for the second time this year.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hinton of Bake Oven went down to the Beach this morning where they intend to remain for a couple of weeks.

The rate of wheat from Duleuth to Buffalo, a distance of 1200 miles is three cents a bushel. The rate from The Dalles to Portland a distance of 88 miles is ten cents.

Mrs. H. F. Woodcock of Wamic is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Chandler. We regret to hear that Mrs. Woodcock is suffering from hemorrhage of the lungs.

A man named Harrison Haskin of Bridgeport who was recently reported to have been thrown from his horse and dragged to death has turned up alive and well at Baker City. Some contemptible miscreant invented the story and palmed it off, through an anonymous letter, on the Baker City Democrat.

For a long time the question was asked in the press of this country. "Was Lawrence P. Barrett, the great tragedian (deceased), a mason?" He was. He was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason, in Pacific lodge, No. 136, A. F. & A. M., San Francisco, Cal., on the night of September 21, 1870. John P. O'Gorman was made a master mason in company with Barrett.

A San Francisco paper says: "A man died in San Francisco the other day from a new disease called 'aeromegaly.' It is said his head was swelled to enormous proportions." Why, that's a very common disease up this way. We have one or two editors that have it in a very aggravated form but it don't seem, otherwise, to affect their general health.

Don't forget our district fair. When you find an 'extra good sample of grain or grass or an extra fine vegetable, or apple, or peach or fruit of any kind, lay it aside for the fair. When you forget the fair or refuse or neglect to help it along you are forgetting your own interests and the interests of the county.

A young man, the son of a widow who lives at Thirteen Mile Point, on the Washington side of the river, opposite Wyeth, lost his life last week in a very simple manner. He had been employed at Wyeth station taking care of horses and was haching at the station house. After washing the dishes he stepped out on the back stoop to throw out a pan of dish water when he overbalanced himself and fell to the ground, a distance of eight feet, lighting on a rock which indented his skull just back of the temple. He picked himself up and lay down on a bed when he became suddenly ill. A doctor was called from the Cascades but it was two late and the boy died in a few hours. We have been unable to learn his name.

Rev. W. H. Sherrod of Dufur is registered at the Umatilla House.

George Filloon came back last night from Collins' Landing after supplies and will return tomorrow.

Lieut. Norton came up from Portland today and will return again in the morning.

Nine head of town cows were impounded yesterday and nine citizens are mad thereat.

Mr. Pat Bolton and his son Tom, of Dufur, came into town yesterday and left for their home this morning.

A meeting of the directors of The Dalles, Dufur and Silkstone railroad company was called for 4 o'clock this afternoon, at the office of the company in the Vogt block.

Mr. Bert Phelps returned today from a week's visit at Ilwaco, Wash. Bert says he had a good time, and, judging from appearances, there is no reason to doubt it.

Mrs. C. L. Richmond and her two children returned yesterday from Collins' Landing. Her little girl was taken sick while there with measles, and is still quite poorly though improving.

Miss A. S. Brigham and Miss Elizabeth Packard of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived in this city last evening, on their return from Alaska, and are the guests of Mrs. W. S. Myers.

Two tramps, arrested last night were brought before the recorder this morning and fined each five dollars and costs. They are working out their fines under the command of Street Commissioner Jack Staniels.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Johnston left on the boat, this morning, for Portland, which they intend to make their future home. During their stay here they made many friends who regret to have them leave. Their daughters, Misses Lettie and Mattie, will join them in a short time.

William Jordan, who was arrested in Harney county a short time ago charged with horse stealing, had his examination before Justice Schutz on Saturday and was bound over to appear before the grand jury, in the sum of $500. Bail was furnished by Messrs. Dick Brookhouse and Bill Robertson. Jordan says he will prove that he bought the horses found in his possession from Henry Judkins. Henry was duly arrested and tried before Justice Doherty and bound over in the sum of $500. Bail was furnished in his case by Messrs. I. C. Nickelsen and Orion Kinersly. The stolen horses were the property of Wm. Floyd and Gabriel Deckert.

A special correspondent of the Milton Eagle writing from Walla Walla says: "During the past four days our police officers and citizens have had one continued round of pleasure (?) with the festive tramp, he who is not a native of our soil, but comes hither from nowhere and everywhere. Not only are our fruit and vegetable gardens visited but they actually camp here and make hourly raids on the fruit preserves stored carefully away in cellars by the thoughtful housewife. Hen roosts, clothes lines, and even the cows coming home from pasture are waylaid and relieved of the family milk." Now tramps that can extract the "family milk" from a hen roost or a clothes line are just the kind of hair pins we want down this way, and if the Eagle correspondent will send them on to The Dalles, with proper vouchers as to character and competency, the CHRONICLE will guarantee them permanent employment and good wages.

Fine Fruit Ranch for Sale.

Mr. F. R. Absten of Hood River expressed to this office a few days ago, a box of his favorite apples, a seedling produced by himself, which he has christened "The Beauty of the Season." They were the admiration of all who saw them till it dawned upon the editor that the partner of his joys and sorrows should have a chance to look at the few that remained in the bottom of the depleted box. By the way, the ranch on which these magnificent apples were raised is advertised for sale in the CHRONICLE—160 acres of fine fruit land, with abundance of water for irrigation, as fine an orchard and berry patch of their size as there is anywhere, all for the low price of $2200. It is an ideal home for some man who wants to go into the business of fruit raising. Mr. Absten offers it for sale only because his health will not permit him to run it.

Collins' Landing Clippings.

GREENVILLE, Wash., Aug. 8, 1891. The season here has fairly opened with its usual quota of visitors. The weather with the exception of a few days of Washington mist, has been delightful. The hot springs are in fine condition now and the bath house has been repaired, which makes it very comfortable. Berries and hazel nuts are getting ripe and some of the campers occupy their spare time in making ravages upon the same.

Socially there has been very little doing, but next week promises something out of the usual line which you will hear of.

The following are those camped near the springs: Mr. George Filloon and family, Miss Sada Whitmer, Mr. A. C. Phelps and family, Miss Annie Stubbing, Mrs. C. L. Richmond and family, the Misses Thomson, Mr. L. Booth and family, Miss Mittie Wiggins, Mrs. M. L. Booth, Miss Cad Booth, Mr. Nicholas Sinnott, Mr. Ed. Mills, Mrs. Montague and family, East Portland, Mrs. Haight and "Bingo," Mr. Trout and family, Mrs. Cross and family and others.

Mr. Greene, the chief magistrate of Greenville, looks after the comfort of the campers.

The child of Mr. Richmond was quite sick last week but has recovered under the stimulating influences of pure air and water.

Fish and game are plentiful. Mr. George Filloon, Nick Sinnott, Sam Thurman and others made a fishing trip to Wind river. Each got about ten dozen fish. Mr. F. made the largest catch which he says is due to a new fangled hook of his own get up—patent applied for.

Ed Mills is the bear hunter of the camp. One day last week he got sixteen—or I should say got where sixteen had been. Ed says he is still on their track and will get them if he has to kill them with an ax.

That druggists as a rule have senatorian voices and magnificent vocabularies of words none of the campers at Greenville will ever doubt. Saturday morning before the sun had left her bed, the denizens of Greenville were aroused by unearthly yells which changed into piteous wails and exortions, seeming to come from the top of Wind mountain, and while visions of the Itata steaming up to storm The Dalles, the Regulator making her trial trip or some one in the embrace of a bear was passing through the minds of many, some one had the presence of mind to look across the river and there was Mr. East Portland druggist who wanted to cross the river and thought it an effectual way of arousing them to the fact. Whether he thought he had been celebrating the Swiss anniversary or were relatives of the seven sleepers it is hard to say. It is needless to add that his time was profitably occupied in fishing for the next day or so till the popular wrath had subsided.

I will close by saying to all those wishing a nice camping place, plenty of pure air and water, a nice sulphur bath and no mosquitos come to Collins' Landing, Wash. Q. X.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE.

Harrison Cannot be the Candidate Next Year—McKinley in the Swim.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—It is the deliberate judgment of many of the most influential republicans, who have lately congregated in Washington, that President Harrison cannot be the candidate of the party next year. Aside from the fact that he has made many bitter enemies in the party since he was inaugurated, these gentlemen believe that he lacks that popularity necessary to carry the party through the next canvass. A great many of these men look to Blaine, not that they like the Maine statesman any better than they do President Harrison, but because party expediency at the present juncture points to him as the man most acceptable to the large mass of republicans necessary to carry the country. But they are not yet sure that Blaine would accept the nomination, or even that he will have the health to accept it if he had the inclination. One of the republican statesmen, who was in the city during the meeting of the executive committee of the republican national committee, but who was not one of them, said to your correspondent since these gentlemen went away: "Blaine sick or well, dead or dying, accepting or declining, Harrison cannot have the republican nomination in 1892. Asked who would be the candidate, he was of the opinion that in case Blaine was not in it that McKinley would be, and that the republican leaders were keeping a close eye upon the Napoleon of Ohio republicanism, as they might want him as a candidate. So far as Alger is concerned, it was not believed possible to nominate him, and even if he was nominated it was believed that John Sherman would bolt the ticket. Sherman holds affidavits to the effect that the Alger men bought his Southern delegates at the last convention.

Death.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Phillip Brogan, which occurred at her residence on Little Trout creek last Sunday. The unfortunate woman died in confinement only about twenty minutes before the arrival of Dr. Belknap. The case was an extremely sad one. Deceased was about thirty-six years of age, and she leaves a husband and six children to mourn their irreparable loss. Mrs. Brogan was a lady of excellent character, and was possessed of an amiable and lovable disposition. The husband and motherless children have the sympathy of their numerous friends in their terrible affliction.

Norman Campbell, aged 58, a broker having an office in the consolidated exchange and petroleum exchange in New York, committed suicide in Prospect Park, Brooklyn, last evening by shooting himself in the head. He had become despondent over business troubles. He had but fifteen cents in his pockets.

A special meeting of the Knights of Labor will be held in their hall next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is requested as matters of special importance will come before the meeting.

NOTICE.

From San Antonio.

Aug. Hornung, a well known manufacturer of boots and shoes at 820 Nolan St., San Antonio, Texas, will not soon forget his experience with an attack of the cramps which he relates as follows: "I was taken with a violent cramp in the stomach, which I believe would have caused my death, had it not been for the prompt use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose did me so much good that I followed it up in twenty minutes with the second dose, and before the doctor could get to where I was, I did not need him. This remedy shall always be one of the main stays of my family." For sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists.

Preparing For Hot Weather.

The following telegram from White-wright, Texas, indicates that the people in that vicinity do not intend to be caught unprepared.

White-wright, Texas, June 2, 1891. Chamberlain & Co., Les Moines, Iowa: Ship us at once one gross Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, 25 cent size, and two dozen 50 cent size. We are entirely out and have had nearly forty calls for it this week. O. Y. RATHBUN & Co.

This is just such a medicine as every family should be provided with during the hot weather. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly.

To the Public.

CADDO MILLS, TEXAS, June 5, 1891. From my own personal knowledge, I can recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for cramps in the stomach, also for diarrhoea and flux. It is the best medicine I have ever seen used and the best selling, as it always gives satisfaction. A. K. SHERRILL, 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Snipes & Kinersly, druggists.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

Parties have been cutting the supply pipes above the city between the flume and the reservoir, thus doing much damage. This must be stopped and a reward of $20 is hereby offered for evidence that will lead to the conviction of persons doing the same. By order of the Board of Directors.

Teachers will bear in mind that the time for holding the quarterly examinations has been changed from the last Wednesday to the second Wednesday in each quarter. The examination, therefore, for this quarter will begin August 12th. TROY SHELLEY, Superintendent.

Prof. K. L. Shapp, Dayton, Ohio.

LAGONDA HEIGHTS, SPRINGFIELD, O., June 15, 1891.

DEAR SIR:—Replying to your request for a statement of the facts concerning my experience with the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York in their late settlement with me, I would state that in the early part of 1891, my age being 36 years, I took out a Ten-Payment Life Policy in the Equitable upon their Ten-Year Term Plan, for $40,000. My premiums during the period amounted to $7,512.00. The Term period expired early in January of the present year, and the Company then offered me the following terms of settlement:

FIRST—A paid up policy for $40,000 00

And cash 9,751 60

SECOND—A paid up policy for 36,496 00

THIRD—Surrender my policy, and receive in cash 36,496 80

I was so little satisfied with the results of my investment that I chose the third, cash, proposition, but when I so decided, the company, through several of its representatives, labored to induce me to take one of the other forms of settlement, but finding that I was determined to surrender the policy and take the cash, they finally instructed me from the home office to send policy and receipt for the amount, $36,496.80, to their state manager in Cleveland, and he would remit me the amount. I followed their instructions and sent the policy and receipt through my bank in Springfield to our correspondent in Cleveland, only to have it returned from the Cleveland Bank with the information that the state manager of the Equitable states that he "had not sufficient funds to meet it." This forced me to return it to the New York office, and compelled me to wait some twenty days after maturity before receiving final settlement.

I have given no statement endorsing the Equitable, or expressing my satisfaction with their settlement with me. On the other hand I have positively refused to do so. The fact that my returns were $1,053.20 less than my total investment renders further comment unnecessary.

During the time I carried the Equitable policy and up to the day when they submitted the above proposition to me, I was kept in total ignorance of the condition of my investment.

In marked contrast with this has been my experience with the Northwestern, in which in 1882, I took a Ten-Year Endowment Policy, Ten-Year Term, for $10,000, that company having from that time furnished me with a memorandum of the surplus on my policy over the signature of their actuary; so that while my policy has not yet matured, and will not until next year, I have the satisfaction of knowing that at maturity it will net me from $1,000 to $5,000 more than the face of the policy calls for. Very truly yours, ROSS MITCHELL.
